The addition to the school house is to be completed in 45 days.

It is settled that Mr. Villard and party will be in Brainerd on Monday.

Mr. Villard's father-in-law, Mr. B. Thayer, of Haverhill, Wis., is visiting here for a few weeks.

On Oct. 8th and 9th, the date set for Phoebe McAlister and troupe to appear in Hartley Hall.

Take your prescriptions by Cable's to have them prepared. Nothing but the very best material used.

It is very understood that Duluth will not celebrate as the Villard party will visit that city in a body.

Antonia, Southwick, of White Earth, and Nellie Brown, of Little Falls, were married on Wednesday evening.

W. M. Miller, of the Transcript, Little Falls, is in the city for a few days. He is in the city at the hall Monday evening.

The Villard arch across Sixth street looks somewhat demoralized, it should either be fixed up or taken down.

J. B. Douglas will go to Ashland, Wis., on Saturday and accompany his wife, who is at that city visiting.

We are in receipt of a ticket to the Wisconsin county agricultural society. The fair takes place a Wednesday, Sept. 10, at Grand Rapids, Minn.

The men opened up their new season on Monday night, in the new building which stands on the old site of the old building.

Geo. S. Canfield returned from his western trip Monday morning, looking hale and hearty. The mountain air evidently agrees with him.

The decision on this street will continue till the stock is sold.

On Monday last Capt. R. E. Spier moved into his new residence on Eighth street, and Dr. Crenery moved into the Shaeffer street building.

Work on the new hotel progress here. The old headquarters building has been moved to the grounds back of it.

The new hospital is a very fine building and shows up in good shape from this side of the river. It is nearing completion, the main building being built.

Fred Lodenberg, who had a finger lost in a fight with a man named ...

Mysterious Disappearance.

There is something rather mysterious in regard to the disappearance of Frank Spicer, the blacksmith who has had charge of the bridge which is being built at the foot of Laverdier.

Mr. Spicer was seen at work as usual on Thursday and was absent on Friday evening.
