 Arguments in Chicago transacting business.
 Today is the day of Thanksgiving and no work.
 E. N. Connelley was in St. Paul on business for the week.
 Mrs. H. C. Washburn spent Thanksgiving with her parents in this city.
 Dr. Landry now occupies rooms on Linneman & Co.'s store on Front street.
 Have you secured your seats for "The Emeralds"?

A. M. Gray remains in the office of the firm of the week, returning on Tuesday.
 J. J. Howe & Co. have a new sign at the entrance of their office on Sixth street.
 Miss F. B. St. Paul received this week for the holiday trade at Metzger Bros.

 The Madison Square Theatre will occupy the new opera house next Wednesday and Thursday evenings.
 A brother of Harry's Amman, accompanied by his wife, Fargo, are spending a few days in this city of the Pines.
 This play wagon, although several days behind, made the hearts of the railroad boys happy last Saturday.

If the Forum "Herald" publishes a list of those best advertised, and subscribers, as it threatens to do, there will be a running of the boys in that neighborhood.
 The Duran's has added new type and other facilities for first-class job work and can furnish you on printing, call on them for particulars.
 We are receiving the Long Prairie Paper, a new weekly recently started by Long & Simmons at that place. The paper is well gotten up and bids fair to be a financial success.
 E. H. Erickson and Iver Benson have been spending a few days in this city, the latter's claim about 10 miles up the river. The game in that region has undoubtedly suffered during their stay.

An evening school has been opened in the rooms over Oon's meat market, course of 5th and Laurel streets, by Burd D. White, a good linguist, and who will endeavor to learn book-keeping with a view to patronize the institution.
 E. H. Erickson remains here the popular comedian, joking from what he calls the "copy." If any one is hindered by how to do up the ludicrous biters it is in Mr. Erickson, and his increasing patronage shows that his efforts are appreciated.
 The second hall of the U. W. T. club was held last night, Saturday evening, and was so much of a success, if not more than the first. The boys have not got the society in running order and the next time will be kept up during the winter months.
