ELECTION AT HOME.

The Result in Crow Wing County.

Our annual election took place on Tuesday, and, as usual, passed off very quietly. But little comparative interest was manifested in State affairs, the interest centering chiefly in the county and legislative tickets. The general result in the county was one exceedingly gratifying to the TRIBUNE. The State ticket shows a largely increased republican majority over previous years. Gov. Pillsbury's majority being 116 against 43 majority for Hayes last year and 23 majority for Pillsbury two years ago. The poll list this year shows also a very creditable increase in our population. In 1875 there were 261 votes cast in the county; in 1876, 292, and this year 298. This, considering that it is an off year, is not a bad showing. Notwithstanding this large increase in our republican majority, as well as our voting capacity, we find the democratic legislative candidates carrying the county by 17 majority on senator and 127 majority on representative—this as a rebuke to the unjust hoggish conduct of the Sherburne and Morrison county delegates in the republican district conventions of the past three or four years, and their persistent determination to crowd Nate Richardson down the throats of the voters of our district whether they would or no. The TRIBUNE claims some of the claims for this result.

We have not at this writing obtained the full vote of the district, but from what we have gathered it is presumable that Houlton (Rep.) is elected to the senate, and Rascoett (Dem.) to the house.

Herewith we give in detail the vote of CROW WING COUNTY.

WESTERN RAILROAD CO. OF MINNESOTA,
LAND DEPARTMENT.
ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 2, 1877.

Dear Sir,

The attention of this office has been called to various suggestions made to settlers on lands within the limits of the land grant to the "Brainerd Branch," relative to securing their titles, all of which involve the employment of attorneys and incurring other expenses that are entirely unnecessary.

This Company has no intention of treating settlers on its lands otherwise than in a fair and liberal manner, and the Board of Directors has authorized the Land Commissioner to give notice that all bona fide settlers upon odd sections within the limits of the grant whose settlement was made prior to March 1st, 1877, can secure their titles through this company upon the following terms:

For lands within the ten mile limit, $2.50 per acre, cash.

For lands between the 10 and 20 mile limit, $1.25 per acre, cash.

Or, for the purpose of still further accommodating the settler, purchase can be made of the lands within ten mile limit at $3.00 per acre, and between 10 and 20 miles limit at $2 per acre on time, and at the low rate of seven per cent. interest.

The acceptance of this offer will save the settlers all costs for witnesses, land office and attorney's fees, and avoid all further trouble and delay in securing title.

All who are entitled to the benefits of this liberal proposition should notify this office at once, giving name in full, post-office address and description of land claimed.

Yours truly,
JAMES B. POWER,
Land Comm'r.

BENJAMIN DISRAELI, Earl of Beaconsfield, has passed the allotted three score years and ten, and yet is hale and hearty. His present excellent health is largely due to the regular use of red flannel night-shirts, which his late devoted wife made up on a "Domestic" Underbraider and Sewing Machine. A neat cambric ruffle surmounts the neck-band, and the royal arms and an earl's coronet in white braid appear between the shoulders, elegantly put on by the "Domestic" Underbraider. When thus costumed for the night the noble earl's appearance is said to be truly imposing.

15,000 majority for Gov. Pillsbury.

It is evident that a hearty, honest Hayes platform is the safest for republicans.

"BLUE JEANS" of Indiana, has appointed Dan. Voorhees U. S. Senator to succeed O. P. Morton.

MASSACHUSETTS, New York, Wisconsin and Minnesota republicans win on an unreserved Hayes platform.

CRAWFORD ran ahead of his ticket in this county 66 votes. Check it down, Bro. Atkins, your letter is answered.

HON. J. H. STEWART, our representative in Congress, has introduced the Northern Pacific extension of time bill.

CANADA, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and New York were shook up by an earthquake on Sunday morning.

HAYES' policy is no longer an experiment, but a positive necessity. It has been weighed in the balance and found not wanting.

CRAWFORD and Rascoett carried Crow Wing county, running far ahead of their ticket, as a rebuke to Sherburne and Morrison county bulldozing Republicans. Next.

THE Sherburne County Star says the TRIBUNE lied in its reference to H. Houlton's opposition to his own brother. Election is over now, Bro. Atkins, and our head is not sufficiently sore to impel us to wrangle over dead issues already decided, and we will simply say the Star editor is a gentleman. If we were in the habit, however, of indulging in his pet epithets, we should say he lied and knew it.

CHARLES LOCKWOOD broke out of the Litchfield, Conn., jail, and a policeman looked all over the prisoner's house for him. When about to give up the search, the officer, who was standing in the cellar, saw at his feet a human nose sticking out of the earth. It was Lockwood's, and the policeman was standing on his breast as he lay buried under nearly a foot of earth. He was speedily dug out and returned to jail.

THE editor of the spicy Brainerd TRIBUNE has "taken to himself a partner," not in life, but in business. His brother, Mr. G. G. Hartley, has become a partner in the firm. The editor says that the slow paying disposition of his patrons has necessitated this step. He also states that henceforth "cash up and no grumbling" will be the motto of the house. We wish the TRIBUNE abundant success, for it certainly deserves it.—[Hutchinson Enterprise.

NEWS was received yesterday of a fatal shooting affray which occurred at one of the stage line posts between Bismarck and the Black Hills. The stage had stopped for dinner, and W. J. Gidley, with other of the stage line employes, were engaged in shooting at a target. Mr. Gidley was not as successful as might have been in his target practice, and one of the by-standers remarked, "You can't hit anything. You can't strike the broad side of that out-house." Whereupon Mr. Gidley turned and fired, the ball piercing the door, and entering the body of J. S. Porter, one of the passengers, who had entered the building unknown to Gidley and the others present. The shot had been no sooner fired than he emerged, exclaiming: "My God, boys, you have killed me," and fell forward and died soon after. The sad affair was entirely accidental.

AN excursion over the Brainerd Branch on occasion of the official inspection of the road, pursuant to the law of last winter, took place on Thursday. The company left St. Paul in the morning reaching Brainerd for dinner, and included Gov. Pillsbury, Secretary of State Irgens, Ex-Senator Ramsey, Hon. Geo. L. Becker, Hon. Edmund Rice, J. C. Ramsey, S. Folsom, Hon. F. R. Delano, Capt. Castle of the Dispatch, L. E. Reed, Julius Engels, G. A. Hamilton, Hon. P. Pusey, Hon. T. M. Metcalf, Earl S. Goodrich, Col. DeGraff, Hon. Wm. Crooks, Greenleafe, Clarke and B. B. Eaton of St. Paul; L. Gorton, S. E. Neiler, S. B. Thayer and Gen. Rosser of Minneapolis; Ex-Lieut.-Gov. Yale, Hon. C. F. Buck and Col. Cockerell of Winona, and Hon. C. A. Gilman of St. Cloud, accompanied by H. E. Sargent, Gen. Manager, and H. A. Towne, Sup't of the N. P. R. R. They took the afternoon train west to Fargo, returning here the next day. They report the roadway of the Branch solidly built, and smoothly finished, ready for rapid and safe running.

Prodigious Potatoes.

McLennan and Morrison have on exhibition at their grocery store, a full bushel of potatoes, numbering only forty individual murphies. You fellows out on the Northern Pacific, can you beat that?—[Minneapolian Herald.

Fairish sort o' potatoes, probably raised on the Northern Pacific, but not our best, by a long shot. Last fall, Mr. W. R. Gregory, of this place, brought into our office thirteen potatoes, which measured a rounding half bushel. They were of the Peerless variety, and one of them, three weeks after it was dug, weighed three pounds and fourteen ounces. You will have to try again, Bro. Foster.—[Crookston Journal.

Pretty well done, Bro. McLean, but Crow Wing county can "get away with the baggage" yet, on potatoes. One of our grangers brought in our office the other day a single potato that weighed five pounds eight ounces, and even such would make more than a bushel—in weight.—[Brainerd Tribune.

We can't allow Polk county to get away with what one of ours, Bro. Hartley, that "taters" was a veritable Northern Pacific seed, raised on the farm of W. R. Gregory near Ambositor. But that five and a half pounder in Thunder land is a-coming. It was a "taterum," now wasn't it, Bro. Hartley? After all it was a Northern Pacific tater, and our article called it out, and we raised that tater. Let Bro. Foster try again.—[Audubon Journal.

Well, now, Bro. Cook, we mean to try to help you Journal fellows out, again. If that's the way you speak to us. We don't know a potato from a sassafras root. Give us a club and we'll make a tornado of you in a jiffy. That potato, sir, was a Murphy, sir. All Murphies are potatoes, sir, and Bro. Cook, Mrs. Murphy made it, either, for did his article call it out. Mrs. Murphy says so, and she knows.

Where, oh where, has little Banning gone?

GEN. MCCLELLAN has at last been elected to an office—Gov. of New Jersey.

HON. A. MCCREA and Hon T. Holton are elected to the House from the 41st district.

BANNING had the whole of one vote in Wadena county. A suitable reward is offered for the owner thereof.

RAILWAY passengers who took breakfast at Sparta yesterday morning report four to six inches of snow through Wisconsin and the mercury indicating five degrees below zero. The people down that way had better move up north, into the Indian summer land.—[Dispatch.

At this writing we are unable to give any complete election returns, but enough is known now to say that Minnesota, Wisconsin, Connecticut and Kansas have gone Republican. While New Jersey, and probably New York and Pennsylvania have gone Democratic; of course, as expected, the Southern states have gone Democratic.

STICK A PIN HERE

J. F. Gordon, of Deer Creek, who has just threshed, got a yield of 1,056 bushels of oats, machine measure, from 17 acres. A little over 62 bushels to the acre.

STICK ANOTHER PIN HERE.

Jerry M. Ragan, of Deer Creek, raised from 3 acres, 121 1-2 bushels of wheat. This was machine measure also, and gives 40 1-2 bushels per acre.—[Wadena Tribune.

Safe to Pass Around.

Robert G. Ingersoll is not orthodox in theory, but we should like to see a better Christian in practice. He hates slavery, child-whipping, kicking men after they are dead, and all manner of injustice, and he fought for the Union just as well as if he had belonged to the regular society. He votes the Republican ticket, hates humbug, smokes only the best cigars, never sees a pretty woman without being thankful for the blessed gift of sight, and hits out in behalf of a friend quicker than he would for his own protection. It is really so nice an article of infidelity that a good deal of it might be passed around with entire safety.—[Rochester Democrat.

LETTER FROM PEMBINA.

PEMBINA, D. T., Oct. 29, 1877.

Friend Tribune:

Having been a sojourner in many a quiet corner of Uncle Sam's domain, I herewith propose to indulge myself by sending you a few scraps of our quiet little town. Pembina proper is, as your many readers know, situated on the west bank of the Red River of the North, and is the county-seat for Pembina county. It boasts of quite a respectable number of residences and a few stores, as well as being the Port of Entry for boats Garryward and vice versa. About three miles or so to the north, and nearly opposite Emerson, Man., is a new town called, I believe, Huron City. This town butts up against the boundary line, and bids fair at no very distant day, to be a rival to its next neighbor south. Pembina town is backed up by fine soil and a large farming country, and in summer quite a steamboat trade. I question much if this prosperity will hang to it, for why. On looking across the boundary you will notice that the Canucks have their customs department just exactly where it ought to be, viz., on the line. Now, if Uncle Sam calculates to protect his revenues and his domain it seems but natural for the public to see our government follow suit and go and do likewise. Here at Huron City the whole Mennonite and Pembina mountain trade comes in, and even crosses the line and recrosses again ere the farmer, trader, or whoever else he may be reaches his goal in the far famed city of Emerson. I have, as you know, seen in my time the cream of the soil of the United States, as well as having visited the extreme recesses of Canada's far Norwest, and, as far as soil, climate, and a healthy country goes, this Red River has no equal. Good water, a abundance of wood, and any amount of rich pasture as well as agricultural soil, awaiting only the incoming of the husbandman to till the same. And one great feature which is worthy of mention is this: the west bank of the Red River being so much higher than the east (some thirteen feet, I believe) shows for itself that the side must claim an advantage over the opposite bank. For miles east of the east bank the country was flooded as late as September, and farmers had to "lite out" and take to the ridge, so called, along which you can discern the well known Port Garry and St. Paul cart road. The town of Emerson was under water as well as Fisher's Landing, while at Pembina and Huron City the inhabitants had nothing to fear. Now, if the Northern Pacific men have any discernment they must see for themselves that a road on this side has two advantages, viz., a good road bed comparatively dry, and the best farming country, now rapidly filling up, and the grain trade which must of itself be an enormous item. If once a road gets from Fargo or Breckenridge to the boundary line, then, ho for Winnipeg, for into Winnipeg a road can be put direct by John Ross and his partners, and, by crossing the Assiniboine near the Hudson Bay Company's post, it is once at last within the corporative limits of the "Chicago of the North"—Winnipeg city. From personal inspection this past summer, I have satisfied myself that the Canadians will not be able to get the Whitehead contract, 37½ miles of rock ballasting through in four years, and then it will require 4,000 men a year to do it; and, allowing it to be finished by that time, where are they? Only at Rat Portage, where the waters of the Lake of the Woods empties itself through Winnipeg River through into Lake Winnipeg. Now, I have spoken of the west end of the Canadian Pacific, how about the east end? We even worse, four years will not see it finished to Rainy Lake, and even if it does, look then at the distance of travel between these two extremes, Rainy Lake, St. Frances Canal (now building slowly), Rainy River, and finally, Lake of the Woods, all have to be gotten over in some shape, by boats are the connecting link can be supplied about American lines and boats will give to the carrying trade for Canada's eastern port. Look around Huron City's few days he visited [illegible] one a fair business, selling [illegible] for from [illegible] and a [illegible] at $.50 cents a bushel [illegible] Well, it would seem strange to a Lake Superior man to see a good many one horse wagons, and a lot more [illegible] Now a word here about the Mennonites. [illegible] Pembina [illegible] and [illegible] value as it now stands for wind [illegible] Mount Avon.

ELECTION AT HOME.

THE TRIBUNE, CROW WING, Nov. 7, 1877.

Our annual election took place on Tuesday, and, as usual, passed off very quietly. But little comparative interest was manifested in state affairs, the interest centering almost wholly in the county and legislative tickets. The general result in the county was very exceedingly gratifying to the Tribune. The State ticket shows a largely increased republican majority over previous years. Gov. Pillsbury's majority being 116 against 43 majority for Hayes last year and 23 majority for Pillsbury two years ago. The poll list this year shows also a very creditable increase in our population. In 1875 there were 261 votes cast in the county; in 1876, 295, and this year 398. This, considering that it is an off year, is not a bad showing. Notwithstanding this large increase in our republican majority, as well as our voting capacity, we find the democratic legislative candidates carrying the county by 17 majority on senator and 127 majority on representative—this as a rebuke to the unjust hogish conduct of the Sherburne and Morrison county delegates in the republican district conventions of the past three or four years, and their persistent determination to crowd Nate Richardson down the throats of the voters of our district whether they would or no. The TRIBUNE claims some of the claims for this result.

We have not at this writing obtained the full vote of the district, but from what we have gathered it is presumable that Houlton (Rep.) is elected to the senate, and Rascott (Dem.) in the house.

Herewith we give in detail the vote of CROW WING COUNTY.

WESTERN RAILROAD CO. OF MINNESOTA,
LAND DEPARTMENT,
ST. PAUL, MINN., NOV. 2, 1877.

Dear Sir.—The attention of this office has been called to various suggestions made to settlers on lands within the limits of the land grant to the "Brainerd Branch," relative to securing their titles, all of which involve the employment of attorneys and incurring other expenses that are entirely unnecessary.

This Company has no intention of treating settlers on its lands otherwise than in a fair and liberal manner, and the Board of Directors has authorized the Land Commissioner to give notice that all bona fide settlers upon odd sections within the limits of the grant whose settlement was made prior to March 1st, 1877, can secure their titles through this company upon the following terms:

For lands within the ten mile limit, $2.50 per acre, cash.

For lands between the 10 and 20 mile limit, $1.25 per acre, cash.

Or, for the purpose of still further accommodating the settler, purchase can be made of the lands within the 20 mile limit at $3.00 per acre, and between 10 and 20 miles limit at $2 per acre on time, and at the low rate of seven per cent. interest.

The acceptance of this offer will save the settlers all back expenses, land office and attorney's fees, and avoid all further trouble and delay in securing title.

All who are entitled to the benefits of this liberal proposition, should notify this office at once, giving name in full, post-office address and description of land claimed.

Yours truly,
HENRY M. POWER,
Land Comm'r.

BENJAMIN BOARMAN, Esq., of Bonsecours field, has passed the allotted threescore years and ten, and yet is hale and hearty. His present excellent health is strongly due to the quarter-life he led during sixty years in the Canadas, when the late events were made up on a "Boundary" Commission, and having occasion to call on him, he rattle off a dozen or two anecdotes of the early days of the country. He has been a resident of the county since 1857, and has accumulated with the years, and is now possessed of a good farm, well improved, and free from encumbrance. Charges reasonable. Good Building at stake.

It is evident that a hearty, honest Democrat is the safest for republicans to elect to office.

Rep. Kelley, of Indiana, has appointed Dan. Voorhees U. S. Senator to succeed D. P. Morton.

Massachusetts, New York, Wisconsin and Minnesota republicans win on an unreserved Hayes platform.

Crawford ran ahead of his ticket in this county 88 votes. Crank it down, Bro. Atkins, your letter was received.

Hon. J. H. STEWART, our representative in Congress, has introduced the Northern Pacific extension of time bill.

CANADA, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and New York were shook up by an earthquake on Sunday morning.

HAYES' policy is no longer an experiment, but a positive necessity. It has been weighed in the balance and found not wanting.

CRAWFORD and RASCOTT carried Crow Wing county, running far ahead of their ticket, as a rebuke to Sherburne and Morrison county bulldozing Republicans. Next.

THE Sherburne County Star says the TRIBUNE lied in its reference to H. Houlton's opposition to his own brother. Election is over now, Bro. Atkins, and our head is not sufficiently sore to impel us to wrangle over dead issues already decided, and we will simply say the Star editor is a gentleman. If we were in the habit, however, of indulging in his pet epithets, we should say he lied and knew it.

CHARLES LOCKWOOD broke out of the Litchfield, Conn., jail, and a policeman looked all over the prisoner's house for him. When about to give up the search, the officer, who was standing in the cellar, saw at his feet a human nose sticking out of the earth. It was Lockwood's, and the policeman was standing on his breast as he lay buried under nearly a foot of earth. He was speedily dug out and returned to jail.

THE editor of the spicy Brainerd TRIBUNE has "taken to himself a partner," not in life, but in business. His brother, Mr. G. O. Hartley, has become a partner in the firm. The editor says that the slow paying disposition of his patrons has necessitated this step. He also states that henceforth "cash up and no grumbling" will be the motto of the house. We wish the TRIBUNE abundant success, for it certainly deserves it.—[Hutchinson Enterprise.

NEWS was received yesterday of a fatal shooting affray which occurred at one of the stage line posts between Bismarck and the Black Hills. The stage had stopped for dinner, and W. J. Gidley, with other of the stage line employes, were engaged in shooting at a target. Mr. Gidley was not as successful as might have been in his target practice, and one of the by-standers remarked, "You can't hit anything. You can't strike the broad side of that out-house." Whereupon Mr. Gidley turned and fired, the ball piercing the door, and entering the body of J. S. Porter, one of the passengers, who had entered the building unknown to Gidley and the others present. The shot had been no sooner fired than he emerged, exclaiming: "My God, boys, you have killed me," and fell forward and died soon after. The sad affair was entirely accidental.

AN excursion over the Brainerd Branch on occasion of the official inspection of the road, pursuant to the law of last winter, took place on Thursday. The company left St. Paul in the morning reaching Brainerd for dinner, and included Gov. Pillsbury, Secretary of State Irgens, Ex-Senator Ramsey, Hon. Geo. L. Becker, Hon. Edmund Rice, J. C. Ramsey, S. Folsom, Hon. F. R. Delano, Capt. Castle of the Dispatch, L. W. Reed, Julius Engeld, G. A. Hamilton, Hon. P. Pusey, Hon. T. M. Metcalf, Earl S. Goodrich, Col. DeGraff, Hon. W. Crooks, Greenleafe, Clarke and R. R. Eaton of St. Paul; L. Gorton, S. E. Neller, S. E. Thayer and Gen. Rosser of Minneapolis; Ex-Lieut.-Gov. Yale, Hon. C. F. Buck and Col. Cockerell of Winona, and Hon. C. A. Gilman of St. Cloud, accompanied by H. S. Sargent, Gen. Manager, and H. A. Towne, Supt. of the N. P. R. R. They took the afternoon train west to Fargo, returning here the next day. They pronounce the roadway of the Branch solidly built and smoothly finished, ready for rapid and safe running.

Prodigious Prosperous.

McLennan and Morrison have on exhibition at their grocery store, a full bushel of potatoes, numbering only forty individual specimens. Not culled out on the New York fashion, but just as they came from the mother hill. [Minneapolis Herald.

Fairfax City, a village probably called into the Northern Pacific, not and only half, by a long shot, last fall, Mr. H. R. Gregory, of this place, brought into our office thirteen potatoes, which measured a combined foot. They were of the Peerless variety, and the largest three weeks after it was dug, weighed three pounds and fourteen ounces. Can we have to say again, Mr. Tribune, we told you so?

Pretty good, Bro. Atkins, but there is one county in the state that can beat Fairfax City. Mr. Hartley, of Hartley Bros., the office day, brought in a potato from his farm in Fairfax County, which weighed a pound and a half. Fairfax County is not very, very far from Fairfax City, and we think the Fairfax City potato will be found to be the larger of the two. Fairfax County potatoes are good potatoes, and we know whereof we speak, for we have eaten them.—[Fairfax Herald.

Whisky on Sperr has little Brainerd gone?

GEN. McCLELLAN has at last been elected to an office—Gov. of New Jersey.

Hon. A. McCREA and Hon. T. Holton are elected to the House from the 41st district.

BARNESVILLE had the whole of one vote in Wadena county. A suitable reward is offered for the owner thereof.

RAILWAY passengers who took breakfast at Sparta yesterday morning report four to six inches of snow through Minnesota and Wisconsin, indicating five degrees below zero. The people down that way had better move up north, into the Indian summer land.—[Dispatch.

At this writing we are unable to give any complete election returns, but enough is known now to say that Minnesota, Wisconsin, Connecticut and Kansas have gone Republican. While New Jersey, and probably New York and Pennsylvania have gone Democratic; of course, as expected, the Southern states have gone Democratic.

Jerry M. Ragan, of Deer Creek, raised from 3 acres, 121 1-2 bushels of wheat. This was machine measure also, and gives 40 1-2 bushels per acre.—[Wadena Tribune.

Safe to Pass Around.

Robert G. Ingersoll is not orthodox in theory, but we should like to see a better Christian in practice. He hates slavery, child-whipping, kicking men after they are dead, and all manner of injustice, and he fought for the Union just as well as if he had belonged to the regular society. He votes the Republican ticket, hates humbug, smokes only the best cigars, never sees a pretty woman without being thankful for the blessed gift of sight, and hits out in behalf of a friend quicker than he would for his own protection. It is really so nice an article of infidelity that a good deal of it might be passed around with entire safety.—[Rochester Democrat.

LETTER FROM PEMBINA.

PEMBINA, D. T., Oct. 29, 1877.

Friend Tribune.

Having been a sojourner in many a quiet corner of Uncle Sam's domain, I herewith propose to indulge myself by sending you a few scraps of our quiet little town. Pembina proper is, as your many readers know, situated on the west bank of the Red River of the North, and is the county seat for Pembina county. It boasts of quite a respectable number of residences and a few stores, as well as being the Port of Entry for boats Gazyward and vice versa. About three miles or so to the north, and nearly opposite Emerson, Man., is a new town called, I believe, Huron City. This town butts up against the boundary line, and bids fair at no very distant day, to be a rival to its next neighbor south. Pembina town is backed up by fine soil and a large farming country, and in summer quite a steamboat trade. I question much if this prosperity will hang to it for ever. On looking across the boundary you will notice that the Canucks have their customs department just exactly where it ought to be, viz., on the line. Now, if Uncle Sam calculates to protect his revenues and his domain, it seems but natural for the public to pass government collectors out and to and do likewise. Here at Huron City the whole Mennonite and Pembina mountain trade comes in, and even across the line and across again are the farmers, trader, or whoever else he may be reaches Emerson the far famed city of Emerson. Like most know, men in my time the cream of the soil of the United States, as well as having visited the extreme reverse of Canada's domain, and, as far as soil, climate and healthy country goes, this Red River has no equal. Good water, abundance of wood, and a great amount of rich pasture as well as agricultural soil, awaiting only the incoming of the husbandman to fill the same, and one point more which is worthy of mention is this: the same bank of the Red River being so much higher than the east (some thirty feet) it is enabled to keep itself free from the ice, which is apt to cover the opposite bank. For some part of the east bank the country was flooded as late as Sep. tember, and farmers had to "lie out" and take to the ridges, so called, along which you can discern the well known Fort Garry and St. Paul's cart road. The town of Emerson was under water as well as Fallowfield Landing, while at Pembina and Huron City the inhabitants had nothing to fear. Now, if the Northern Pacific men have any discernment they must see for themselves that a road on this side has two advantages, viz., a good road and comparatively dry, and the best farming country, now rapidly filling up, and the grain crop of which most of itself has an increasing demand. If some a road gets from Winnipeg to Brainerd, to the Lakeside Bay, or to the Wilmington into Winnipeg's road, and we get direct by John Rose and his partners, and by crossing the Assiniboine near the Hudson Bay Company's post, it is once at least within the corporate limits of the "Chicago of the North."—Winnipeg Sun.

LOCAL.

Who's afraid?

Ice is running in the river.

Election is over, and now for business.

John A. McArthur was recently married at Central City.

Maj. A. N. Seip, of Duluth, gave Brainerd a call on Tuesday.

Theo. Brown, of Minneapolis, called at the Tribune office this week.

When is that promised excursion over the Brainerd Branch to take place?

A communication from Grove Lake and several editorials are crowded out this week.

Clark McKay called at the Tribune office on Monday. He has been on the Yellowstone all summer.

We received a call yesterday from Prof. Locke, formerly principal of the Brainerd graded schools.

The entertainment at Bly's Hall, on Thursday evening, was the best advertised public affair of the city, and consequently a rare success. Remember this.

Henry Smith, of Smith & Leighton, who have a lumber camp on the Little Willow River, passed through town to-day with sixteen oxen and four horses for the scene of their winter operations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wick desire us to tender their most sincere and heartfelt thanks to the good people of Brainerd who have rendered them favors and kindnesses in their recent sad bereavement.

Thos. Duncan, contractor and builder, who has the job on the Brainerd Branch of constructing the depot buildings, gave us a call. He expects the contract for putting up the buildings on the Northern Pacific west of the Missouri.

The voters of Crow Wing County have the sincere thanks of the Tribune for the high honor paid its editor in his re-election on Tuesday last to the office of clerk of the district court. We shall never prove recreant to the trust.

George W. Day, of Glencoe, Minn., gave us a pleasant call to-day. He is en route to his camp on the upper Mississippi, where he will carry on extensive lumbering operations the coming winter. Call again, friend Day. Always glad to see you.

The St. Paul's Parish guild soiree and fair, at Bly's Hall on Thursday evening, in honor of the completion of the Brainerd Branch, was, we are glad to learn, a grand success, as it was, as we can testify, a pleasant, happy affair. The gross receipts were about $134, and the net proceeds $75 to $80. We feel constrained to remark in this connection, if the ladies will pardon the freedom, what occurred to us as we looked upon the merry, cheery faces there—that the ladies of St. Paul's Church Society have the best faculty for planning and consummating a social entertainment that we ever witnessed. When Mrs. Bivins, Mrs. Swain, Mrs. Alsop, Mrs. M. D. Ford, Mrs. A. A. White, and others, take the lead on such occasions, followed by a number of the younger ladies we could mention, and are so fortunate as to procure the valuable services of Mr. Swain in the culinary department, our citizens can rest assured of a first-class good time, a pleasant, harmonious party, and a splendid supper.

That Large Buck Killed.

That large buck that has led many a hunter a "wild goose chase" and frequented the timber south-east of town for the past three years—all that time successfully evading the death-dealing bullet, though thousands of them have whistled about his ears, was finally shot by Capt. Sleeper on Wednesday morning between the N. P. machine shops and Robt. Cowley's residence. Uncle Ed. White says the buck became disgusted with our hunters and came in to town and gave himself up.

MARRIED.

WHITE—DEAN—At Brainerd, at the residence of the bride's father, on Sunday morning, November 11th, by the Rev Herbert Root, of St. Paul's Parish, Isaac U. White, son of Edward White, to Miss Christe A. Dean, daughter of William Dean, all of Brainerd.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of the respective families and a few friends of the bride and groom, the day was a beautiful one, suitable to the occasion, and the happy young couple start out upon their new life with cheerful prospects, the best of wishes from many warm friends, and the hearty congratulations of the Brainerd Tribune.

PHILIPS—BOND.—On Sunday, Oct. 28th, 1877, at Brainerd, John Phillips to Miss Elizabeth Bond.

PROBERT—COLEMAN—At Bismarck, on Tuesday, October 30, at the Catholic Church, by Rev. J. Cryostrom, of Standing Rock, Mr. Frank M. Probert and Miss Kate Coleman, both of Fargo.

HOAG—DAVIE.—At Glyndon, Thursday, November 1st, by Rev. Mr. Pelton, of Glyndon, Mr. W. E. Hoag and Miss Hattie K. Davie, both of Fargo.

DIED.

WICK—At Brainerd, on the 7th inst., the infant daughter of William and Anna Wick. Aged one day.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Very many of our subscribers are in arrears, and we are now very much in need of the money. Will YOU, dear reader, refer to your address label (or if you reside in this city, call at this office,) and ascertain the amount you owe on subscription, and pay it at once and save us the trouble and expense of personally notifying you? The number of your label indicates the whole number of the paper to which you have paid. If your number is below the present number of the paper, which is 206, you are in many weeks in arrears, as it is below that number, and should send us at the rate of four cents per week for arrearages, and $2.00 for one year's subscription, as our terms are "in advance." Do not neglect this now, please. We need every dollar promptly, as we have heavy bills to meet that must be paid. Send money by post-office order, registered letter, check or draft, at our risk, or send it any way you please, only send it; don't neglect that.

WE EXCHANGE MACHINES

Send your old-fashioned, cumbersome, heavy-running, woman-killing machine to us, and we will allow you $35 for it, as part payment on one of ours.

IT IS CELEBRATED FOR ITS ADVANTAGES, IN THAT IT IS ONE OF THE LARGEST SEWING MACHINES MANUFACTURED, ADAPTED SOLELY TO THE USE OF THE FAMILY OR THE WORKSHOP. IT HAS THE LARGEST SHUTTLE AND A BOBBIN THAT HOLDS ALMOST A SPOOL OF THREAD.

THE SHUTTLE TENSION IS ADJUSTABLE WITHOUT REMOVING THE SHUTTLE FROM THE MACHINE.

THIS MACHINE IS SO CONSTRUCTED THAT THE POWER IS APPLIED DIRECTLY OVER THE NEEDLE, THUS ENABLING IT TO SEW THE HEAVIEST MATERIAL WITH UNEQUALED EASE. IT IS VERY SIMPLE IN ITS CONSTRUCTION, DURABLE AS IRON AND STEEL CAN MAKE IT. ALL ITS WEARING PARTS CASE-HARDENED TO STEEL, AND INGENIOUSLY PROVIDED WITH MEANS FOR TAKING UP LOST MOTION, SO WE ARE JUSTIFIED IN Warranting Every Machine for 3 Years.

IT IS THE LIGHTEST AND EASIEST-RUNNING MACHINE IN THE MARKET. IT IS ALSO THE MOST ELABORATELY ORNAMENTED AND PRETTIEST MACHINE EVER PRODUCED.

WITH ALL THESE ADVANTAGES, IT IS SOLD FROM $10 TO $25 LESS THAN OTHER FIRST-CLASS MACHINES.
