Mr. Sletten was about forty-five years of age at his death.

Lumbermen May Close Down.

Duluth, July 6.—The lumbermen of the Northwest are considering a proposition to shut down all mills on Sept. 15 next for the rest of the year. They say that at the present prices it is impossible for lumbermen to make anything, and some such movements as this is not only needed, but demanded, to restore prices. The proposition has been talked of by lumberman all over the Northwest, and, if agreed upon, all manufacturers will go into it. The Duluth lumbermen held a meeting Saturday evening to talk the matter over, but no decision was made or is expected to be made at present. All the Duluth lumberman, so far as heard from, favor the project. Reports from Eau Claire, Stillwater, and other places show the lumberman heartily favor the proecct.

Work of the Wind.

A storm which passed over Long Prairie last week blew down chimneys on the court house and, damaged the roof. In Burnhamville, the Bear Head mills were partially unroofed, and the Pillsburyites were badly frightened, some of them taking to their cellars, and quite a number gathering at the school house. Bridges were uncovered, trees turned roots upward, telegraph wires broken by falling trees, and cornfields flattened. Grain seemed to stand unhurt. No lives reported lost, and no bodily injuries yet heard of. At Little Falls the cattle shed at the fair grounds were torn down, several barns unroofed and many shade and ornamental trees were destroyed. The roofs were partially taken off the houses of W. H. Sarf, Jr., and J. W. Arthur in Hartford.—John McNiece's new granary frame was blown down at Round Prairie, and part of Will Slawson's house unroofed. On the east shore of Big Swan lake, Mr. Ezra Showalter's house was torn down, but no injury to the inmates is reported. At Tintah the railroad windmill was blown over, and the air was thick with flying lumber yards. The roof was blown off the post office at Ash, and other buildings were disabled. The large barn belonging to Andrew Pikup was nearly overturned. Thos. Toomb's barn was blown from its foundation. The Norwegian Lutheran church in the town of Elbow Lake was completely demolished, and eye witnesses say it was turned over three times. It now stands on its roof, about 100 feet from its foundation, with the floor and ends blown out and still farther away.

Only One Cent.

The number of motions set down for argument before Judge Van Brull in supreme court chambers, and the character of the council engaged seems to indicate that what little actual assets the assignee found belonging to the late firm of Grant & Ward will hardly suffice to pay the lawyers. There was a suit to set aside conveyance of the property by Ferdinand Ward to Warner, also to set aside the assignment of Grant & Ward to Julien T. Davis and petitions of other parties to the suits. No decision was rendered. The published statement of assets and liabilities conveys a wrong impression in making no allowance for the very large amount of claims which are fully secured, so that the collaterals pledged do not appear in the list of actual assets. The amount of unsecured claims is 410,610 dollars and the collaterals held by the secured creditors amount to more than the sum of their claim, and therefore will be available to increase the assets which the unsecured creditors can reach. Present appearances are that unless the litigation becomes too much involved, there will at least be a cent on the dollar for the unsecured creditors.

The new Council rooms and firemens' department, which has just been finished over the hose house, are indeed specimens of elegance and convenience. The front room will be occupied by Judge Douglas, and is finished off with a private consultation room, a Judge's stand, and a raised platform for the accomodation of the jurymen. A railing has been built across the room for the purpose of keeping the spectators in their proper place. The room in the rear of the building is for the use of the firemen, and it will make a fine place for their meetings.—Both rooms are wainscoated and grained, the painting being done by A. Frederickson, and which is a credit to himself, and also to the city. The city now has a building that it need not be ashamed of, and one which was needed long before it was built. All that is necessary now is for the city to ouild a suitable jail building, as the one which is used for that purpose is not fit for a hog pen, and should be discarded as soon as possible.

The proprietor of the Brainerd House had his pocket book stolen Sunday night.

A select party is being given at the Villard, this (Friday) evening.

The roller rink will be open every afternoon and evening, next week.

A County Fair for Crow Wing county, is among the possibilities this fall.

Barney Metzger, of Wadena, is spending a few days in the city, visiting with his brothers.

The man with the trained bears and the organ grinder and monkey, have been picking up the stray coins in and about Brainerd this week.

A. L. Hoffman has put telephones in both flour and feed stores, which will be quite an accommodation to his numerous customers.

The W. C. T. U of Brainerd will be held at the Congregational Church, on Tuesday July 15th, at 3 o'clock P. M.—All who are interested in the temperance cause are cordially invited to attend.

C. Both visited the cities below this week in the interest of the intended visit of the Grand Army Post to Minneapolis on the 22d.

A. Dettelbach is in Davenport, Iowa, this week, and before his return he will visit Chicago and other points, laying in a supply of goods for his clothing story, at this place.

The East Brainerd Drug Store has changed hands, Dr. Paquin becoming the owner. Mr. P. will remodel the store and put in a line of notions. Wallace Bane, will be retained as clerk.

Sheriff Mertz went to Melrose, Iowa, on Tuesday, for the purpose of bringing back a man who had sold a mortgaged horse to J. T. Harrison, of the bottling works.

The G. A. R. Post have secured a reduction in rates over the Northern Pacific road to $4.00 for tickets to Minneapolis and return, and will therefore go by rail instead of water.

The examining physicians of the Minnesota division of the Northern Pacific railroad met at Brainerd Tuesday to hold social intercourse, and also to examine the Northern Pacific hospital located here.

A mass meeting has been called to meet at the opera house on Saturday evening July 19th, for the purpose of organizing a Blaine and Logan club. Parties from the towns adjacent to Brainerd are invited to be present and take part in the proceedings. Let there be a full attendance.

We understand that Andy Bennett has rented the store now occupied by Mrs. Thevriott, on Front street and will open a meat grocery in the same. Andy was in St. Paul on Thursday buying his stock of goods.

The most interesting of the exercises at Red Sand Lake on the 4th, was the race between Midget and Snake, owned by F. O. Sibley and J. M. Gray. The race was for $100 a side, the best two in three.—Sibley's horse won the first two heats, making them in 1:50 and 1:54, and the third heat was not run. The race will be repeated on Saturday afternoon of this week.

The Minneapolis Tribune of Tuesday says: Col. George S. Canfield of Brainerd was in the city yesterday, and arranged with the Northern Pacific for the transportation of two posts of the Grand Army of the Republic from that place to the Minneapolis reunion. It is the intention to organize two battalions of veterans from that section of the State and place them in the July camp. The Brainerd Band will accompany the posts.

Dr. E. H. Stanley, dentist, making a specialty of bridge work and gold crowns. Will be at the Villard Hotel July 21st and remain two weeks. Bridge work and crowns only solicited. 2-w

The new Council rooms and firemens' department, which has just been finished over the hose house, are indeed specimens of elegance and convenience. The front room will be occupied by Judge Douglas, and is finished off with a private consultation room, a Judge's stand, and a raised platform for the accomodation of the jurymen. A railing has been built across the room for the purpose of keeping the spectators in their proper place. The room in the rear of the building is for the use of the firemen, and it will make a fine place for their meetings.—Both rooms are wainscoated and grained, the painting being done by A. Frederickson, and which is a credit to himself, and also to the city. The city now has a building that it need not be ashamed of, and one which was needed long before it was built. All that is necessary now is for the city to ouild a suitable jail building, as the one which is used for that purpose is not fit for a hog pen, and should be discarded as soon as possible.

Notice to Stockholders.

The stockholders of the Masonic Temple and Opera House Association are hereby notified that a meeting will be held at the office of C. B. Sleeper, President, on Monday, July 14, 1884, at 3 p. m. sharp for the purpose of voting an increase of stock from $14,000 to $17,000. All parties owning stock are requested to be present. J. L. SMITH,
Brainerd, July 9, 1884. Secy.

Bean Bake.

Pap Thomas Post, G. A. R., have decided on having a regular old fashioned Camp Fire and bean bake the latter part of next week, probably Friday evening previous to their departure for Minneapolis. The object of this is to raise funds to defray the expenses of taking the Brainerd band with them. The programme will be somewhat similar to the one that was held here last winter by the Post, this time it being held at the roller rink. After the exercises are over and the beans and "hard tack" partaken of, the floor will be cleared and a social dance will take place. In order to secure the necessary funds the G. A. R. boys have decided on an admission of 50 cents at the door, which will entitle you to supper and dance, and at which price the spacious room should be filled.

A Model Store.

A reporter for the DISPATCH dropped into the Hardware Store of Conkling, Clark & Co., on Front street this afternoon, and noted the handsome display of goods and the neat and attractive appearance of the establishment. The fact that everything on the shelves and in the store is brand new and not old and shop worn, and that all the articles are of the latest design, is sufficient reason when taken into consideration with the large quantity of goods in stock, to account for the reporter's admiration. This is one of the most exclusive hardware firms in this section, and the large field in which it has to do business, makes it necessary for them to carry a large and well assorted line. They carry everything in the hardware line that human being could wish, and if you are in need of anything, just call in and look over their goods. The shop is run in connection with the establishment in which only first class workmen are employed, and as their work speaks for itself, they are always busy, even during dull times.

Blueberry Picnic.

Miller & Grant will give a blueberry picnic at Gilbert Lake, on Thursday, July 17th, at the old picnic grounds on the north side of the big lake. The woods in the vicinity of the picnic grounds are full of blueberries. Refreshments of all kinds will be furnished at the grounds. The proprietors have reduced the price of boat one-half for this particular day, and a big time is expected. The sail boat will be at the disposal of the party, and everything to make a good time will be provided. MILLER & GRANT.

The Frail Doves.

A general raid was made by the Police on the hooses of ill-repute on Thursday morning, and the result was, eleven females of easy virtue and two male companions being brought to the cooler—They were before his Honor, Judge Douglas, at 9 A. M., and were very loud in their denunciation of the Mayor and the Police officers. The names of the first batch were Mary Collins, Jennie Covington, Frankie Cook, Fannie Bennett and Nellie Stuart, who were found in Jennie Clark's house on Third street, and who all refused to plead guilty. But after being taken to jail they relented and three or four paid their fine, which was $12,85 in each case with the exception of the land-lady, whose fine was fixed at $27,60, and who deserves a trial which will be held Saturday at 9 A. M. Jennie Gray, the cook, was brought up and told such a straight story about being the widowed mother of three small children, and that she did not know the reputation of the house when she went out to do the culinary work for the proprietor, that she was dismissed without fine.

In Annie Ball's house were found Lou Peterson, Nellie St. Claire and Mate Baldwin, who all plead guilty, with an emphasis that meant business. Their ardor cooled down a little, when the Judge says, "$10 and costs" amounting to $12.60 to each of the inmates, and $27.40 for the mistress of the house, making $64.60 for the four, which she paid, and the girls departed to their haunts of iniquity and sin. Among the last batch was found two specimens of male sex, giving their names as T. Summers and Andie Henderson, and were fined $7.40 each.

Duluth Items.

Herald

The Northern Pacific road discharged six passenger conductors last week.

L. N. Low, of Brainerd, was in Duluth yesterday and registered at the Windsor.

It is reported that Mr. Stewart, of the Vineyard rink, intends to erect a new skating rink on Superior street.

It was stated sometime ago that the Vineyard rink was to be enlarged, but the proprietor has given up the idea.—As soon as Mr. Armstrong, the proprietor of the Parlor Rink, heard it, he leased the lot immediately adjoining it, thereby putting a stop to the enlargement scheme.

A. J. Armstrong has been the first in Duluth to introduce a roller skating costume. He appeared at the Parlor rink Saturday night in a suit of blue flannel, trimmed with gold cord, which looked very pretty. It is said that several young men have ordered similar suits.

Dissolution Notice.

A. E. LOSEY.
C. E. SMITH.

Brainerd, July 8th, 1884.

Having sold my interest in the Undertaking business to A. E. Losey I ask for him in the future any business that may come in his line.

C. E. SMITH.

I have this day bought the right, title and interest of C. E. Smith in the Undertaking business, and moved the entire stock to the Blue Front on 7th street, next to Theriot's, where I will continue to do undertaking, upholstering, and picture framing. All persons who are owing me on the old score, are earnestly requested to call and settle as soon as possible, as I must straighten up my old account.

Sold Burglars.

Engineer Green's house on Tenth street north, was burglarized on Wednesday afternoon while the folks were absent. The thieves got away with a gold watch and chain belonging to Mrs. G. and two solitaire diamond rings.

On Tuesday night C. G. Hartley's house was burglarized to the extent of a gold watch and chain belonging to Mrs. Hartley, some shirt buttons, and a little money that he had in his pocket. The thieves entered the back way and must have been very stealthy in their movements, as the things stolen were taken from the room where Mr. Hartley and wife were sleeping. Several articles of value among which were some diamonds, were in the room, but the midnight prowlers did not happen to find them.

On Thursday morning about 4 o'clock, burglars entered the residence of Mrs. H. E. Gleason at 143 South 6th street. It seems that whoever this light-fingered gentry is, they have got the thing down to a science. The back door was first unlocked from the outside, and when the thief had gained an entrance he immediately turned the lock in every but-side door in the house, so that in case of a disturbance he could make his exit in a hurry. When this was done, he entered the bed-room occupied by Mrs. Gleason and a little 5-year old daughter, and took out a perfumery case and some boxes, and old fashioned daguerreotypes that he supposed contained jewelry, as they resembled jewel caskets; these he went through in the sitting room, but finding nothing but pictures under the lounge and went to the room again, and was going through the bureau—when Mrs. G. awoke. She immediately understood the situation and jumped for the man, thinking to detain him until more help could be aroused who were sleeping up stairs, at the same time uttering a scream of alarm. The man had her gold watch and chain in his hand, and seeing he had got to get out or be caught, he dodged Mrs. Gleason, at the same time reaching down and grabbing her pocket-book which was in the drawer, and which contained between fifteen and sixteen dollars, and started on a run through the house, and ran for the woods in the direction of J. J. Howe & Co.'s saw mill, and got out of sight before assistance could be called. The goods and money taken amounted to something like $100.

H. Harrison has been in little Falls this week, looking up a couple of horses that he owned, but which had been sold, or run out of the country by some parties in that city.

To the HONORABLE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BRAINERD:—I respectfully return herewith to your Honorable body the petition requesting deed to W. H. Harris, being sub-half of one day's license fee for exhibition by him of his circus. I have not approved or signed the same, for the reason that it is manifestly unjust for the city to make a special reduction in one system of license as established by ordinances in favor of any one person unjustly discriminating against others; and now in the present low state of the City Treasury, I do not think it advisable to refund any money, that has been legally paid in to the Treasury, and which there is no necessity for paying out.
