BRAINERD, JULY 31, 1914.

The new union depot at Minneapolis will be ready for occupancy the 20th of August.
 The editorial assistant will remain in Brainerd and another two days and the boys are promised a royal good time while there.
 The great decrease in the visible supply of wheat is expected, will help the market and a decided advance in prices is expected by dealers.

In the first ward of Buffalo a weeklong strike of the Buffalo Club was formed Wednesday, with 100 signers of the roll, of whom two thirds are Democrats.

An eastern young lady, teaching in the public schools of Herman, was recently wooed by a lawyer of that place, who used the persuasion of hot tears and a bull-dog determination to win the girl. The girl was also wooed by the editor of the Herald who used the tactics of threats of blood and slaughter. The poor girl fled for home and her authors naturally become friends and "never speak as they pass by."

Now that the Hon. John P. St. John has secured the Prohibition nomination for the presidency, it is in order to inquire what he is going to do with it. He cannot beat Blaine in Kansas with it, for Kansas is for Blaine first and for St. John some other time—say, by Mr. St. John is the candid, so very good people, very inopportunely and very unwisely.

Three northern States and five southern State elections held on November, namely: Alabama the first Monday in August; Arkansas, the first Monday in September; Georgia, the first Monday in October; Maine, the second Monday September; Ohio, second Tuesday in October; Tennessee, the first Thursday in August; and West Virginia, the second Tuesday of October.

The Independents have had their century in the past few years. It is in order to inquire what they have done and what they are going to do. They have done much to the credit of the State, but they have also done much to the credit of the Nation. They have done much to the credit of the Nation, but they have also done much to the credit of the State.

One novel result of the election was the fact that the law in regard to the carriage of liquor in Iowa and Kansas. At some points in the latter state express agents have been arrested and fined for delivering consignments of liquor, and the express companies doing business in those places have ordered their agents to close their accounts and withdraw from business in those towns. It is said that the express companies that do business in the state propose to take a similar course wherever the agents are arrested in that way. They claim that they can get along without the state quota as well as the people can do with them. It is the express companies of Maine and other states, whose most stringent regulations have been enacted and attempts made to enforce them, that they fear to accomplish the end sought. They estimate to inaugurate devices and substances to evade the law. The liquor is concealed in all sorts of contrivances that suggest vinegar, soap or anything but intoxicating drinks. Some curiosity will be had to see how the proposed course of the express companies in Kansas will result.

What the Republican Party Has Done.
 When the Republican party took control of the national government it found the business of the country paralyzed. The Treasury empty, the credit of the nation almost destroyed, its people being hawked about the streets at a ruinous discount, and treason, anarchy and internal discord pervading every department of the administration. The deplorable condition of the country had been brought about by Democratic policy and Democratic misadministration. Even President Buchanan recognized this, and in his final message to Congress alluded to the fact that the desires of the country were paralyzed and almost wholly antagonized by the free-trade policy of the party. He urged that unless some thing was done speedily the whole country would be bankrupted. Such was the condition of the country twenty-three years ago when the Republican party was placed in power. Contrast the condition with that of to-day. Within that twenty-three years the Republican party has...

It crushed out treason and rebellion and gave new vitality and force to sentiment for liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable.
 It gave freedom to 4,000,000 of our slaves.
 It raised a service to the citizenship.
 It restored property to the insecure of the country, and dotted the country over with busy factories, furnishing employment to millions of thousands of working men.

It has increased the wealth of the nation more than threefold.
 It has advanced our foreign commerce until the nation sold $3,000,000 more of its products in twenty-three years than had previously been sold from the continent of the country in 1860.
 It has upturned the settlement with railroads, and made the deserts of the west to blossom with busy life.
 It gave to the country a stable currency in place of the wildcat issue forced by the Democracy.
 It has raised the standard of the nation's credit to a point never before attained by any government.
 It has paid of the national debt faster than was ever done by any other government.

It has reduced the interest burden from $175,000,000 to less than $50,000,000 annually.
 It has reduced the loss by embosomment from $1,200,000 every $1,000 under one man to less than $1,000 on each $1,000.
 It has reduced the cost of collecting money for the Government to what it ever was before.
 It has constantly and steadily improved the Federal taxation, the Republican Congress reducing it four fold more than the Democratic party did in eight years.
 It has kept every pledge made to the people.
 It has made nation great protector, rich beyond the wildest dreams of the people.
 While reducing the national debt at a rapid rate it has paid in pensions to the gallant soldiers of the Union more than $100,000,000. During all the battles of the Union the enormous sum of $650,000,000. Such is the record of the Republican policy and administration of the Federal revenue for better than that time the Democracy has met once in every four years, passed columns of resolutions, and then gone out and done a country, grubbing and sifting filth.

Patent Curiosity.
 Cincinnati, July 30.—A terrible explosion occurred at the house of Henry Upmeyer, No. 51 Oregon street, this morning. A young son of Upmeyer brought home an unexploded rocket that had fallen from the Highland House, where there had been an exhibition of fireworks last night. The child tried to open it, but failing to do so, his mother seized a hatchet and dealt it a severe blow. A terrific explosion followed. Mrs. Upmeyer was fatally injured. Her Upmeyer, aged 19 years, fatally injured; Charles Upmeyer, aged 6, severely hurt; Phillip Hill, aged 10, slightly injured. The deadly missile was a six pound rocket. The vicinity of the explosion was fearfully wrecked.

A Mock About a W. setting March.
 The wrestling match between Col. J. H. McLaughlin, of Detroit, and M. H. DeCar of Massachusetts, for $400 a side and the championship of the world was won tonight by DeCar, who gained two consecutive falls. The conditions were collar and elbow, with jackets, best two falls in three. The match was held under the auspices of the Union Athletic Association, and was a novel feature of the contest took place in an open air, on the Union base ball grounds, which were lighted by electricity. About fifty hundred persons were present. The result was not satisfactory to the spectators, and the justice of the referee's decision in giving the second fall to DeCar was questioned by many who held.

All Depends on Fair Count.
 Col. J. E. Bennett, who has just been elected United States senator from Georgia, to succeed Gen. Sherman, has just returned to Atlanta. He has kept every pledge made to the people.

Telegraphic Time.
 A lumberman's convention is called for August 20th. Chicago. Daniel Connor of New York, says for the loss of two daughters in the city of Florida disaster, claiming $10,000.
 The Tallapoosa leaves Bar Harbor, Me., tomorrow, for Portland, Me. to meet the Greely relief vessels, whose journey is described.
 The latest version of the Iowa prohibition law is to give licenses to brewers to manufacture for medicinal purposes. In several counties this has been done.
 The photographers of the United States are holding their fifth national convention at Cincinnati. About 1,300 delegates, representing nearly every state in the Union are present.

Complaint was made that yellow fever infected cars run over the Mexican border into Arizona. And inland quarantine is suggested to be instituted by joint action of the governors of California and Arizona.
 At Fishers, Pa., the Westinghouse Air Brake company has notified 215 of their employees that their services will not be required longer than next Saturday. The reason given is the strike of the millers in that district.
 The valley around Fultonville, N. Y., has been clouded with smoke from the night of the 29th inst., doing injury among the timber on Big Nose, caught from a spark from a West Shore locomotive. It is said that fully five acres were burned over.
 A tornado visited Murray, Iowa, and surrounding country on the night of the 29th inst., doing immense damage to crops, fruit, buildings, etc. Two houses about four miles from town were blown down and four persons severely, though not fatally injured.

A Strange Disease.
 Dr. Hopkins Gargon of the Wyoming Stock Growers Association, reports that the disease now devastating herds in Nebraska is probably the Texas cattle fever. A first case appeared at Brady Island Saturday, after a herd of 2,000 Texans had been driven across the range. It is the expert opinion of Dr. Gargon that the disease is probably the Texas cattle fever.
