H. H. Jagersell, Editor and Proprietor. F. W. Walsland, Business Manager. OFFICIAL PAPER OF TOWN OF WADE, CARROLL COUNTY, MINN.

Vol. for Knute Nelson for congress. Political argument. "Come and take something."

The wish is father to the bet in a good many wagers these piping political times.

The free trade speech Tuesday night at the opera house drew quite a crowd out through curiosity.

It has been rumored that should C. B. Sleeper be elected to the office of attorney, he will have the position filled by E. E. Wabara. Mr. Sleeper's reply to this statement in a communication in to-day's issue.

There is anything that is to be despised and repudiated by all decent men, it is a man who buys up the tax titles on poor farmers and workmen's homes.

No poor man should be legislated up in Todd county in a man of his stripe, and if he does such things at one time he will do another.

All opposition to Knute Nelson in this part of the district has subsided and he will get the solid vote of his party.

It is useless for us at the present time to urge the necessity upon the republican voters of this district to support the regular republican nominee for the assembly.

Minnesota's republican majority will not be far from 40,000, but in the face of these figures no man should relax or abate his efforts to see that every republican is at the polls and votes right on election day.

If there is one office in our local political economy more than another, it is a thorough knowledge of law is required in it.

We hope that no republican will be induced to vote against J. R. Hewes for the legislature. He was unanimously nominated at the district convention at Little Falls.

The charge that Wm. E. Lee, of Todd county, is a life long Democrat is in no sense true.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards which will be given to the person following the conditions set forth.

THAT DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

Under the above caption the Bank Center Tribune gives its version of the Little Falls Democratic convention as follows:

If over a weak and disinterested ticket was nominated by any party the Democrats did so at the Little Falls convention. At the convention itself the most disreputable tactics prevailed and everything but the purpose seemed to be present.
