

Brainerd Dispatch

Special Paper of Crow Wing, Cass and Lake Superior Counties, Tuesday, Nov. 15, 1904.

Register for J. R. Hoves. Do not forget to register. Republican on the front.

Vote for Blaine and Logan. The campaign has been a hot one.

Vote for C. B. Sleeper for county attorney. The campaign is nearly ended, thank heaven.

Cleveland hats will take a tumble next Wednesday. Taft is Grover, over the river and to the left.

Remember the grand political rally Monday night. There will be hundreds—very sick men next Tuesday.

See that Knute Nelson's name is on your ticket for Congress. The Blaine and Logan boys will rally in grand style on Monday night.

No Brainerd man should fail to exercise the elective franchise next Tuesday. Everything looks lovely for a glorious republican victory next Tuesday.

Wilbur F. Storey, one of the most noted journalists of the west, and proprietor of the Chicago Times, is dead.

Let every republican put in the polls and vote and swell Minnesota's majority to 50,000. Lieutenant Greely was initiated as a member of the G. A. R. in New York City Tuesday night.

A vote for J. R. Hoves is a vote to put Brainerd in an influential position in the Minnesota legislature.

Cleveland is manifestly angling for the vote of the criminal classes. He recently restored 53 convicts to citizenship in one day.

In criminal lawsuits C. B. Sleeper is not a representative, and it is just that kind of experience that we want embodied in our country attorney.

Let no man be deceived into voting for two representatives from Crow Wing county. Vote for John R. Hoves. He is the man who can best serve our interests.

Monday evening at the opera house the most important republican mass meeting of the campaign takes place. There will be an immense turnout and plenty of good speaking and enthusiasm.

The republicans will have a grand torchlight procession next Monday night. Hon. Knute Nelson, Senator Beckman, and Gov. Bark will address the meeting at the opera house.

Brainerd's Globe crank is indignant because the republican papers here do not support the democratic nominees. There is something wrong with this fellow's mental condition.

A Wisconsin wool buyer is making contracts for wool at 30 cents per pound if Blaine is elected, and 25 cents per pound if Cleveland is elected. That shows the benefit the farmers get from the tariff.

The tickets will be split and pasted up in every conceivable shape at the Tuesday's election. Let every voter exercise his right and see that he is not balked.

Vote for J. R. Hoves and you will congratulate yourself that your vote has not been in vain.

The tax title shark over in Todd county is having a hard time of it. The poor farmer does not have much love for a man of Maynard's stripe to ever on the alert to get a tax lien on his premises.

He will be effectively settled at the polls next Tuesday. Maria Halpin comes on the stage at last, with an affidavit respecting the too familiar details of her intimacy with Cleveland, and denying certain imputations upon herself in connection with them, which it is due to Cleveland to say has never made himself responsible for.

The Lacksawanna Coal and Iron company has just underbid English manufacturers and obtained a contract from a Canadian railway for 10,000 tons of steel rails. This is the first sale of steel rails ever made by an American manufacturer for shipment abroad.

The fact is significant of the leniency of protection. A few years ago not a steel rail was made in America. A heavy duty was laid on them, and now we make them cheaper than England.

Voices for C. B. Sleeper.

If it is said that the Brainerd has not persistently urged upon the people the necessity of voting for C. B. Sleeper for county attorney...

It is a feeling that such men as Col. C. B. Sleeper need no commendation where he is so well and favorably known. The mere mention that he is a candidate for that office should be sufficient guarantee as to his being elected.

His excellent qualities both as a lawyer and as a professional man are well known to all. He is a citizen that Crow Wing county will be proud to have as their attorney and the people can depend on having justice meted out to them in his hands, and his interests will be defended by him with unflinching zeal.

As a criminal lawyer, and that is one of the essential requirements of county attorney, he has been proven during the past few weeks. Col. Sleeper has no equal in this city, or in this part of the state, for that matter. The voters of Crow Wing county, who are voting to the polls next Tuesday morning, see that his name is on your ballot for county attorney.

It is not only to yourself, but to your neighbor, and you cannot afford to do otherwise.

Probably the most thankless office which a county has to find a servant for is that of county clerk. No matter how well or how truly a man may do the duties assigned him, on him will fall the curses of every person who does not succeed in obtaining what he has a right or the right to ask for.

Therefore, one in which certain qualifications are pre-eminently necessary—these are honesty, integrity, moral ability, and a clear head with good judgment.

There is a commissioner elected for the third district, which comprises all of the county north of the railroad track. There are three candidates for the office, W. E. Keeley, D. E. Slipp, and A. P. Farrar, all of whom are excellent men, and will fill the position as well as it is possible for any man to do.

You pay your money and you take your choice. L. D. R. Slipp has withdrawn in favor of W. E. Keeley.

Next Tuesday every voter will be called upon to help decide who shall be our law makers. We are to choose men to act as our judges, and it is in our power to choose such men as will best serve the interests of the people of this 39th legislative district.

Who will stand up to the rack in any emergency and save the constituents like loyal citizens; let no man neglect this duty. Let no man vote without first deciding to do his duty.

It is not only to yourself, but to your neighbor, and you cannot afford to do otherwise.
