

Brainerd Dispatch

Special Extra Thursday morning... Brainerd, Minn. Termed $1.00 per copy in ADVANCE.

W. H. Wiggall, Editor and Proprietor. OFFICIAL PAPER OF CROW WING, CARBON and Lake Counties, Minnesota.

Vote for Gardner and your conscience will not trouble you during the year to come.

The city needs a liberal minded man for mayor. James Gardner is that man. Vote for him.

See that the name of John B. Douglas is on your ticket for judge of the next year's court.

James S. Gaultier is the people's choice for mayor and he will be elected—mark the prediction.

Give the people a mayor who will do the most for the city with the least grumbling—that man is Jas. S. Gardner.

Do not be deceived by election dogmas, sprung at the last moment from the mouths of the winning candidate.

and in advance, in the great sympathy with its material progress, and loyally alike, as a vigilant and far seeing citizen, to the varied interests that are involved in its growth and development.

H. A. Castle to the front say the best Republican judgment of the best when we say that he, rather than any other citizen should be the next governor of Minnesota.

Under the head of "The Anonymous Slenderer" the Journal of last week printed a column of course, to the readers of the article being a communication which appeared in the columns of the Dispatch, from the pen of a columnist.

As long as people can write communications, and get them published in the names of others, it is the duty of the editors to see that the names of the authors are not published.

It is some comfort to know that Dr. Hines is not in the field on your ticket for the year to come.

Quite Comforting. It is some comfort to know that Dr. Hines is not in the field on your ticket for the year to come.

The Lawyers Not Outlets. Inasmuch as certain attorneys are accredited with having written the article which appeared in these columns over the name of "John B. Douglas," we think it just to the real author of the article of say, that no lawyer had anything to do with the authorship of the communication in question.

The Municipal Judge. John B. Douglas is a candidate for the municipal judgeship, which has been created by the passage of the bill establishing a municipal court in this city.

Do You Want Him? A. P. Farrar is asking the people of Brainerd to support him for mayor. Brainerd is his qualification.

Do we require any improvements in Brainerd this next year? If so, would he favor them? Opposed to the water works.
