

Brainerd Dispatch.

Issued every Friday morning at Brainerd, Minn. Terms $1.00 per month in advance. Published by W. W. England, Editor and Proprietor.

The big strike of boom men at Muskogee, Mich., is over. Our democratic friends here no doubt heard from Ohio before this.

The struggle for the Brainerd postoffice is seemingly at a standstill. H. W. Shaw, better known as "Josh Billings," died at Montevideo, Cal., on Wednesday.

The usual abundant rice crop along the Savannah river has been ruined by the rain and floods. A woolen mill is to be established at Le Prairie for the manufacture of blankets, yarns, etc.

Min Yob the Mongolian who murdered See Chey in a Chinese restaurant at Chicago, Ill., has been convicted of murder in the first degree.

The muskrats are building very light houses this year which tend to prevent a very light winter. It is to be hoped that the sign will fail this time.

It is understood that the sentence of death passed on the Rev. leader of half-breed reform in Canada will be commuted to life-long servitude.

After October 1st those who desire to marry in any part of Pennsylvania will be compelled to answer, under oath, a number of questions, all of them important.

Wilkie Collins' new story will begin the first day of November. It contains six chapters. It will appear in the Minneapolis Sunday and Weekly Tribune only. Wilkie Collins writes for no other paper in the Northwest. Send for sample copies.

Any farmer desiring a Pocket Knife, made of the best material, which retails at from seventy-five cents to one dollar and a quarter, will procure the same by sending with the Minneapolis Weekly Tribune. Send for sample copies.

If you want a Standard Dictionary which will cost you one dollar at retail, or if you want to understand "Penny Needle Work," or if you want to understand "Law Without Lawyers," subscribe for The Minneapolis Weekly Tribune. Send for sample copies.

Electricity has been brought to the aid of the sportsman by the use of a small lamp for the front light of a rifle, to render it visible in the dusk or when any cause whatever there is insufficient light. The electric lamp is placed near the muzzle of the gun, and shielded by a metallic screen. The current is supplied by a small battery in the stock.

Wilkie Collins, the greatest living English novelist, will commence his new serial story, "The Minneapolis Sunday Tribune, November 1st, which will be transferred to the Minneapolis Tribune, and will continue for six months. Any person desiring of reading the same is only to subscribe to the Weekly Tribune, at one dollar a year.

The Sherburne County Star says that the late Sir John Lubbock had ambitious hopes of her future. One day she came into the magnificent apartment which he occupied at his home office, and trembling like a frightened fawn, she laid her feet on the floor and said, "I am your wife."

"You child, I said kindly," for he loved his only daughter. "I have heard you justly named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife."

"I hope not, child. What is it?" he eagerly inquired. "I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife."

"I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife."

"I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife. I have heard you named for me, but you are not my wife."

Would not do Otherwise.

The Brainerd Dispatch compliments Bro. Dars, of the Elk River Star-News, when it says, he is not a member of the Brainerd standard—Princeton Union.

An Old Cheat. The Globe of St. Paul peddled an old cheat about the proposed Crookston and Duluth railroads yesterday morning.
