Brainerd Dispatch.

Issued every Friday morning at Brainerd, Minn. Price 100 per year in ADVANCE.
E. W. WILSON, Editor and Proprietor.

The electric light, as tested by the Northern Pacific, is found to work very satisfactorily. It makes a magnificent light and an object the size of a man can be seen by the engineer a mile away.

The east bound train on the Northern Pacific lunch ran into a herd of cattle Thursday evening near the Edge mill. The train belonged to H. G. Page. They were being driven along the track by two men. The engineer saw them and shut off steam and reversed his engine so that when the engine struck them it had nearly stopped.

A disappointed faction of the Democratic party of Minnesota after the late election of Miles Dorman, says the Duluth Herald, with a suffrage club and the club is not satisfied with either the Circulars have been issued and sent out to all the state committees calling a meeting of Minnesota Democrats who are expected to adopt resolutions asking President Cleveland to choose one besides the two schemes to distribute the government patronage in Minnesota.

Brainerd is anticipating a big lift from the Northern Pacific road. A rumor of a large addition to the shops there is what they call their hopes in Brainerd will be out of luck—Pricition Union.

Brainerd is to have a daily paper in the spring. In the light of that experience it is safe to assert that the newspaper man who undertakes to edit a daily in Brainerd will be out of luck—Pricition Union.

On the Ragged Edge. W. W. Hartley, the Republican postmaster at Brainerd, is on the ragged edge, and will probably have to go. It beats all how some of these federal officials come out of their Star Wars.

The District predicts that W. W. Hartley remains in possession of the Brainerd postoffice until his commission expires.

Brainerd is not exempt. "The tramp season has set in early this year, the general warmth of the atmosphere considered. The influx was on now suffering from canes from the harvest fields of the north and south.

A Hard Fight. "It was a hard fight on yesterday to see the two victims of the unfortunate Brainerd disaster put into a pine box each and send them to the cemetery no coffin, no shroud, no one to pray for or shed a tear over them."

Miller, the Murderer Must Hang.

The Grand Jurors heard yesterday that the Supreme Court at Duluth affirmed the view of the law taken by Judge McConnell and District Attorney Selby in the Miller murder case and the conviction will stand on the 20th as originally fixed.

The Methodist church conference for the Minnesota district section at Rochester, had the discussion one before them for discussion, the subject being the revival of the cause of J. Walton, who is charged with outraging a girl at Wadena, was brought up and elicited some discussion.

The growth of the Northwest is not more astonishing than the growth on the ground cities, St. Paul and Minneapolis. One prominent factor in this growth is the railroad, and numerous railroads have done more or are more popular, or more important than any other factor.

It's Bound to Come. Brainerd is anticipating a big lift from the Northern Pacific road. A rumor of a large addition to the shops there is what they call their hopes in Brainerd will be out of luck—Pricition Union.
