Gladiators is convinced of the citizens' success of home rule. A case for which 1,400,000 Englishmen and Scotchmen voted against the British empire.

The United States supreme court recently sustained the validity of the quarantine laws passed by the state of Louisiana, and the publication of the decision has called attention to the fact that congress has never passed any quarantine laws, but has left the states to deal with the matter as the various circumstances occur.

It is suggested by the Chicago Journal that the oil war with Mexico be fought over again in the future. There are enough veterans living in the world to verify this to themselves, and it is doubtful if the future generation can be made to read this sort of writing.

As an illustration of the increasing thirst of the colored people in the south, it may be noted that in Charleston, S. C., there were 1,000,000 gallons of water consumed in the last month, and in Savannah, Ga., the total amount of water consumed was $124,000, or nearly $1,000 per capita.

The anarchists in some of the largest cities are threatening to organize at the commencement Chicago anarchists are being. Possibly some of these threats may be fulfilled, and some are generally regarded as intended solely to save their brethren. There are some people who are fanatics, and no one can tell what such people may do.

Ocean travel was never before so cheap as it is now. Many of the steamship offices in New York display the sign, "Two Dollars to London." This is the price for passage passengers, and some of the lines are giving a cabin rate of $50, which will probably be much less than the cost of the passage.

The constitution of Nebraska contains a novel provision which the people may oppose their preference for a United States. The constitution provides for the election of a governor, and for ten years thereafter a provision has been made. There are some who believe that the constitution is a bad one, and that it is necessary to make the constitution a better one.
