Battle Lake wants the soldiers' home.

Deputy Wood wants to sell his Battle Lake Farm. The lot is entirely out of the way at Duluth. Navigation will immediately open.

The Dubuque jobbers have brought suit against the Milwaukee road for violating the long and short haul clause.

Two Duluth's barman were burned yesterday, the inmates barely escaping with their lives and missing their clothes.

The steamer which left Brainerd for Grand Rapids last Friday was obliged to return without making the trip on account of low water.

The fourth session of the interstate commerce bill has been suspended on the Northern Pacific for a period of seventy-five days.

The Bank Trustee has expired, the material having been seized on a chattel mortgage and shipped to St. Paul. W. G. Cooper, the publisher, will start a fourth paper in St. Cloud.

Mr. Chilton, a prominent lawyer of Duluth, has prepared a copy of a voting law which provides that every legal voter shall be required to cast his ballot upon election day, and that he shall be liable to arrest and other good and sufficient cause. This law, should it ever be placed on the statute books, will certainly be a part of the Brainerd people.

The Duluth Daily Tribune pokes its Brainerd namesake in the ribs quite vigorously for attempting to run that city down. It is an evil word often indulged in by the fraternal and should be remedied some how. For instance, the Bank Trustee Tribune, ever has a chance to escape to give Brainerd an unaccomplished one.

Under a provision of the new law each town clerk is required to report to the secretary of the state board of health on the 1st of each month the number of births and deaths occurring in his town during the preceding month.

The young man who has a good business should be satisfied, and not be looking for a job in a coal field. There are no thanks for the men that go down there. The first one to knif you, it is a case of no thanks and no property he will keep his hand out of politics forever.

World's Work.

If labor and capital cannot agree the best way for the workingman is to form co-operative organizations in which he gets his share of the profits, but also has to stand his share of the losses. The work is to take risks. If an employer, for instance, engages 100 men and makes $100 per week out of them, it gives him an average of $1.00 per week. The workman may get $10 per week. They want to share in this profit. But how many of them would be willing to have their salaries reduced per week from $10 to $1.00? This is the question of loss instead of profit.—Duluth Herald.

The Majority Rules.

The Brainerd paper we see that Mr. C. H. Douglas was elected mayor of this city last week. Of course some will be dissatisfied, and they are right. Douglas has been the lucky candidate. We however, predict that Mr. Douglas will make a good and worthy citizen, and we do not think that he is dissatisfied. The majority rules in all these matters, therefore we expect that universal satisfaction will be given him in the near future. The beautiful city of the Pines, so far as we are concerned, Brainerd is a beautiful and progressive city, and we feel sure that Mayor Douglas will see to it that his fair name will not suffer during his administration.

Let 'em go Gallagher.

A young man who has been in the city for some time, and who is well known to all, has been arrested on a charge of having stolen a horse. He is now in the city jail, and is being held for trial. It is believed that he will be released soon.

What a Dam Does for a Town.

The Semi-annual Meeting of the Board of Health.

The semi-annual meeting of the board of health was held on the 25th inst. The board reported on the health of the city during the past six months. The report was very favorable.

Married Under Difficulties.

A marriage under difficulties was celebrated in Brainerd, Dak., last week. The bride was a young woman who had been married to a man who had been in the city for some time. The marriage was celebrated in a very simple manner.

Help from the State.

Mayor Selk Douglas, of Brainerd, has received a letter from the state board of health. The letter contains information regarding the health of the city. The board is very interested in the health of the people of Brainerd.

Good Good Advice.

Let P. H. Heston, after having served a year as secretary of the state central committee, publishes the following in his Northfield News:

The young man who has a good business should be satisfied, and not be looking for a job in a coal field. There are no thanks for the men that go down there. The first one to knif you, it is a case of no thanks and no property he will keep his hand out of politics forever.
