ABOUT MILLS LAKE.

A Brainerd man visits the Mills Lake region and writes the Press as follows: Four years ago I rode out to Mills Lake lake from Brainerd on a hunting excursion, and within the space of four days I explored the lake, to look over the burnt district, and as I went and came by the same route I had a good opportunity to study of the development of the country in that time, and they are wonderful. On the former trip a cabin was built on the same route. On this, however, I saw a fine highway opened by Crow Wing county, and indeed there are as numerous as in any well settled country—twenty-eight dwelling places located in the forest on the north side of the lake.

MURDER NEAR PERHAM.

The Perham Bulletin of yesterday says: From Mr. John Pick we learn the particulars of a cold blooded murder which occurred in February 1887, near Perham, Brainerd county, Minnesota.

It appears that Arnold Kohler, a young man, was killed by a man named Adams, for the purpose of getting his land.

Adams was a man of bad character, and he had been drinking heavily at the time of the murder.

Kohler was a young man of good character, and he was a member of the local church.

The murder was committed in a field near Perham, and the body was found in the morning.

The case is now pending in court, and it is expected that Adams will be convicted.
