Brainerd Dispatch.

The municipal court is busy every morning now with three or four cases. Cool weather is doing much for the appetite for gambling.

A party consisting of J. Roger, A. F. Farris, J. J. Smith and John Johnson, were taken to the Old Main to slaughter ducks for a day or two.

An exchange says that not every citizen has the right of being held in a footlock but the humblest student of this institute has a buy goal. The news are daily.

Secretary Allison, A. E. Lowry and Geo. Merritt represent Brainerd at the annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. at Fairbairn this week. They will be absent until Monday.

K. W. Kaley was the city clerk Monday. He will shortly have the Pacific Coast where he will reside in the future, having secured his connection with the Northern Pacific road.

This is the time of the year when the overworked school teachers and Brainerd are looking in matters of charity. A good amount of suffering is created each winter by the society and active preparations have been made for more labor in the direction.

Col. Cronk of this city, has returned from active service as deputy marshal of the United States. He doesn't think that $10 a day is sufficient compensation for being hounded down and walked on.

His experience in St. Paul last week with a collection of men was about to be his charge soon to have taken the desire to be a marshal retired out of him.

Mr. C. H. Childs will start for Billings, Montana, in a few days which place to be his future residence. He is expected to be in the city in the capacity of foreman of the N. P. railroad shop. Previous to her departure a reception was given her by Mrs. D. McDougal's by her lady friends and a very enjoyable evening was the result.

John Peterson was run over and horribly mangled by a freight train last Saturday night. Peterson was in the employ of the lumber company at that place and was on his way to work in a wagon with him. Peterson was in front of the train he slipped and fell with the above result. He was brought to this city and is now in the hospital of a big sum was performed last night following day from internal injuries.

An exchange says that John Astinier, of Little Falls, took a trip into this county Sunday. He was in the northwest of this city, to hunt snags or wolves. He was feeling his way around the foot of one of the timber cuts when he detected an opening and a wild beast path made by animals. He entered and looked about and then he to his horror discovered the bones of a human being. Nothing but the bones remained, but he found pieces of an old book that told the tale. The bones were evidently taken from a white man. He was in the possession of a number of bones, but he quickly became master of the situation, killing seven of their number. A thorough investigation of the case is to be made.

We were pleased to receive a call from Hon. W. H. C. Fisher, of Taylor Falls, this morning, who is in the city gathering statistics and data for his book on the history of the Northwest. He is in the city to receive favorable and interesting mentions. The gentleman is a well known and respected citizen of his county and during that time has been carefully prepared list of statistics and notes of the progress of this section of our country which is now putting in shape for publication. It is a handsome book and will be interesting and instructive to those who live in the upper Mississippi river valley. Mr. Fisher has under this state forty years, and was once a legislator. Representative on term and was a member of the constitutional convention. He is very much pleased and favorably impressed with the advancement that Brainerd has made and predicts that it will be a manufacturing city in a few years. The work will be issued early in January.

The Gates Trouble Him. The gates trouble him to the park have been taken off their hinges by some unknown citizen. The gates were in the hands of the city. Mrs. Halsted has never yet informed the public they have been taken some source of annoyance in her city.

Give Them a Banquet. The case of Red Cross was conferred on C. E. Halstead, Fred G. Green and J. W. Ward, by Assistant City Attorney J. W. Halsted. The case was given at the dining room in the Masonic Temple, C. E. Smith, of the Empire restaurant, furnished the supper, which is spoken of very highly by the participants.
