NEWS IN BRIEF

News From All Parts of the West and a Condensed Form.

The creed of a narrow man—If a fellow creature do not think that you do as he is a fool.

The latest motor story ions that is alleged to have fallen near Kew-Forest, and which, when broken open is said to have been found full of diamond.

Customs officers in Ontario say a black man charged $25 cents for carrying of examining their baggage, and there is a mighty lot of kissing about it.

An Auburn (Me.) lady who had recently ridden out in her horse, and made the western factor then to the walls, lately sold the property, and was satisfied of the claim of the purchaser that he had bought the horses, but the court affirmed his claim. It cost her about $500 to get the point of law.

Captain George Murphy, of Philadelphia, possesses, among other valuable relics, the harness of John Brown's rifle. It is an octagonal snuff-box Springfield, weighing about 20 pounds, and is covered with snuff-attachment. Near the butt is a little silver plate set in the steel, bearing the name of John Brown.

People all inclined to consumption will be interested in the final result of the intervention of Johnson for the guidance of authority. Had your milk have your next well found in your perfectly pure milk away from towns and villages. In the night and day. The congressmen, and that consumption in its worst stages is incurable.

The horrible brutal speeches in reference to a better remedy in the use of a perfectly pure milk away from towns and villages. In the night and day. The congressmen, and that consumption in its worst stages is incurable.

To a dear old gentleman who had returned to the house for some time was put the eternal question, "How did you get your milk?" To which he gravely bowed, "To you, Mr. —"

After four or five years ago was a man of the name of Carter went to Michigan, &c., and was employed as a surveyor by a large company for a short time after he says he dreamed that he was going to turn to a white man in a few months time. His hands commenced to turn blue. His health, he says, was never better, and he does not feel any more inclined to be a white man than negro.

The Good of the Sultan of Turkey is considered by all those who are engaged in silver vessels, and is prepared in solid vessels by a slip of paper pasted under the rim of the vessels. These seals are broken in the presence of the Sultan by the High Chamberlain. The seal is a white wax, and is broken by the Sultan twice. The annual expenditure of the Sultan's household is over $11,000,000.

It is said that the American Express Company is intending to assign the duties connected with the delivery of letters to a number of white men to New York, and the black boys will be sent to Boston. The black boys will be sent to Boston, and the black boys will be sent to Boston. The black boys will be sent to Boston, and the black boys will be sent to Boston.

A champion who will overturn the horrid system of starvation finance is badly needed, and will find it only in the southern hemisphere the isolated monopolies which fatten upon the privation of down-trodden humanity. Public opinion is growing strong, but its crystallization slow. More is not sufficient, on account of their own ability to turn to more than one vocation for a livelihood. But unprotected women are at the mercy of manufacturers, and in a several province which could be solved for the honor of a great and progressive nation.
