Persons desiring to avail themselves of the low round trip rates ($20) to Helena or Butte on the 11th inst. should not fail to give timely notice to J. J. Walker, passenger agent, as tickets will be furnished the Brainerd office, excepting such as are ordered before noon of the 10th inst. Round trip rate to Livingston $12.50.

J. J. Gardner has begun excavating for the foundation of a new store building which he proposes to erect immediately on the vacant lot adjoining the Palace Hotel on Sixth street. The building will be 20 feet in size and two stories in height. We understand that Mr. Gardner will open a grocery store there as soon as the building is completed.

The Brainerd Manufacturing Co. of this city, has been awarded the contract to build the Becker county jail at Becker, Minn. The building will be located about two miles from Detroit, Minn. Mr. Mahan will have Brainerd in charge with a large force of men, and the building will be pushed to completion.

Shimley Norton, the king of the chimney sweeps, has arrived in town and will accept all orders in his line with the same care and attention as to the interest of his patrons as he has heretofore. Leave orders at the Post-Office News and Confectionery Stand, Winchell Hotel, D. M. Clark & Co.'s hardware store, and Shipley Bros. by postal card in the post-office. He will remove his office once every year, about the 1st of September in this city on 7th street south.

We are in receipt of a letter from Crow Wing signed by Geo. C. Kirtland, in which the writer claims that the Crow Wing Agricultural Society is a city equal to any other in the state.
