

Brainard, Minn. In Portugal they give a quick temper person by inviting everybody to give him a kick.

A comparison of the work of Eggsie, French and American... show the latter to be 12 per cent ahead all around.

A Florida planter has contracted to furnish a New York dealer with 1,000,000 oranges during the season.

During a courtship of six years an English lover and his sweetheart exchanged 1,000 letters—600 each—one is using for food of cream.

The yellow fever fund kept on growing and unfortunately the fund was not. The mosquito is the only ray of light that pierces the gloom at Jacksonville.

Mr. Davis, of Dayton, O., who died the other day, is said to have been worried to death by the accidental death of his wife. He had been before, but had been buried while in a state of trance, and when too late to do anything.

A curious fact revealed by the photograph is that people generally do not know their own voices. The husband will recognize his wife's voice in a phonogram, and the wife will recognize the husband's voice in a phonogram.

While a game of base ball was in progress, a player in attempting to steal second base, disappeared suddenly and completely, as if he had been eaten. He had broken through the ground into an old well, the existence of which had been forgotten, and he was rescued standing up to his neck in water.

A woman who acted apologetically in a drygoods store was taken into a room, and when examined there was found to be a woman in an umbrella who carried six pairs of men's shoes, six small pairs of women's shoes, two brasiers, two pairs of gloves, two pairs of socks, three pocket-books and a napkin.

It is reported that a "devil bird" or "ocean vampire," weighing fully two tons, recently caught in a fishing net on the Mexican coast near Tampico. When dead and spread out on the beach, it presented every appearance of a vampire, and it was fifteen feet long and seven feet wide from the edge of its protruded fins, and its mouth was six feet across.

The swiftest bird on the wing is the frigate bird, a sort of nautical bird of prey. It is said to be able to start with the poop of down from the coast of Africa, and following the trade wind, land on the coast of New South Wales. It can undoubtedly fly more than 200 miles an hour, but we do not know of any bird with a worthy record of speed on which it can be based.

The big teal-gull factory of Cham Speckles at Watsonville, Fla., will begin operations on Sept. 15. Owing to the fact that the birds were not planted until late in the season, only 250 tons per day can be obtained, the works having a capacity of 700 tons. There are 160 farmers who own 2,300 acres of land, under contract for this season, but the average of crop supply will be doubled by next year.

An enormous wave is reported to have struck the beach at Laguna, Costa Rica, and flowed inland in a distance of 400 feet before it retired. It destroyed 1500 farmers' fields and hundreds of houses, but happily no lives, as the inhabitants saw it coming and fled to the nearest hill. Curiously enough, the wave was neither tidal nor due to earthquake disturbances, but, it is stated, to a north wind which had blown for three successive days.

A romantic story, in which a young man saves a girl from drowning, and rewarded by her father, and afterward left her to his $15,000, which she has, has come to light in New Haven, Conn. The young man is Charles W. Selby, 22 years of age, a graduate of the University of California.

William H. Selby, a wealthy merchant, died in New York City, leaving a large amount of money. A question of his will has been raised, and it is said to come to court in the near future.

Joseph P. Shephard, a wealthy merchant of New York, died in New York City, leaving a large amount of money. A question of his will has been raised, and it is said to come to court in the near future.

A young lady who passed several days at a noted country hotel was obliged on the account of a storm for room, to occupy a bedroom on the ground floor which was ventilated from only one window. At the air was very close and sultry she opened this one window, with the intention of partly cooling the room. She lay down on her couch for a temporary rest but fatigue so overcame her that she slept the sleep of the just, and after three in the morning, getting up to adjust matters, she discovered that the window was not closed, and she was sitting on the floor, through the window, without, however, any lowliness and so quietly that the sound asleep was not disturbed.

Money is in low circulation and low level. The bank has a circulation of $100,000,000, and the money market is very tight.
