The deceased lady was the wife of one former fellow townsman, George Pewter, who has recently been living at Wynand, Kansas, but who brought his wife here some weeks ago, thinking that the climate might prove beneficial to her. The lady was the sister of A. E. Veon, at whose home she died. Mr. Pewter, after bringing his wife here, returned to Kansas, where important business matters required his attention. Telegrams were sent to him conveying the sad news of his wife's death, but as he is a considerable distance from my telegraph station, it is feared he will not receive the intelligence in time to attend the funeral obsequies, which take place to-day at Mrs. Veon's residence. Rev. J. A. Rowell, of the First Congregational church, will conduct the ceremonies, and his remains will be interred in our cemetery. The deceased lady, who had given her personal word that she would attend the funeral, was quite well known, and was loved and respected by all. She leaves a husband and two motherless children to mourn her loss.

A number of prominent officials of the city were in town Monday making a tour of inspection of the shops. The party included W. T. Shull, superintendent of the city, J. E. Barber, master car builder, Master Mechanic Ben, of the Dakota Division, Master Mechanic J. E. Flaeta, of the Missouri division, and Mr. Ristino, road foreman of the western division.

W. W. Hartley goes next week to Tacoma, Washington Territory, where he will locate if the town suits him. He will probably be accompanied by A. A. Keen, who also intends of giving that country a trial, providing he can favorably dispose of his interests here. Quite a good many former residents of this city are now located at Tacoma.

The Uniformed Knights of Pythias of this state completed the organization of a regiment at Minneapolis on Tuesday, the three commissioned officers of Brainerd Division No. 7 being: George A. Frederick, of Stillwater, was chosen a colonel; F. J. Shaw, of Duluth, was elected lieutenant colonel; and E. D. McEntee, of Minneapolis, was elected major.

On account of the delay of the commission appointed by the council to make sewer assessments, they can not be made this year, as the tax books were on the first of the year in the hands of the treasurer for collection. Had the commission reported before the first of the year, the amount would have been levied this year, and money would thus have been raised to put the sewers on in the north side next year. This is greatly to be regretted as a thorough system should be constructed as soon as possible.

The Oyster Supper and entertainment at the new Y. M. C. A. building on Tuesday evening was a success in every particular. The tables were spread constantly from 6 to 10 p. m. and all went very well pleased in the manner in which it was conducted. For supper, being the guest were entertained in the dining room by singing and musical selections. Songs by male quartets; piano solo, by Miss Carrie Meador; violin solo, by Miss Sperry and Harry Gray; song by male quartet; recitation by Miss M. Warren; violin solo, by Miss Sperry and Harry Gray; song by male quartet; recitation by Miss M. Warren; violin solo, by Miss Sperry and Harry Gray.
