The dog catcher is an unknown factor in Brainerd politics this spring.

The mayor has confirmed the appointment of A. J. Hales as official critic of the city administration.

The five Minnesota congressmen voted for the McKinley tariff bill which passed the house on Wednesday.

Mats a gross on the population of Brainerd as shown by the national census.

The republican legislative committee on the bill to amend the act in relation to the election of judges.

There seems to be some dissatisfaction in regard to the early date set for the state convention, but it is only among the chronic who are never satisfied with anything.

The five department mounds in section 10 of the township of Brainerd are considered. This is no time for dissection but for united action in making the convention a heaving success.

There is talk in political circles of pledging Senator Clough to the support of the John Robinson show on the republican ticket.

A republican district convention for the Fifth Congressional District of Minnesota, is called to meet in the city of Fargo, N. D., on Wednesday, July 8, 1890.

The supreme court on Monday rendered an opinion to the effect that the law of Minnesota requiring that all fresh meats sold in the state shall be cut from animals slaughtered within the state and inspected 24 hours before slaughter.

A Cordial Hand-Shaker. J. J. Howe was elected chairman of the second ward, Brainerd, at his own election.

An Outsider's Opinion. The Long Prairie Leader calls the election of Bro. Slivers, mayor of Brainerd, a "democratic victory."
