LITTLE NEWS NOTES.

Miss Lilian Wilson, of this city, has music class in Little Falls.

Miss Letta Grandjean is in Minneapolis visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Parker.

J. S. Rankin, of Bay Lake, operates a delivery service in this city on Tuesday.

Miss Lillian Loomis and Miss Rosa Neuhart, of this city, spent Tuesday at Staples.

Mr. Geo. M. Hall, of Hillbom, N. D., is in the city, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. N. H. Ingervall.

Mrs. N. H. Ingervall and Mrs. Walter Smith returned Monday, after a three week visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Chas. Metcalf, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. A. Koenig for some time, returned to her home in Grand Forks on Wednesday.

Keop Bros. will supply the ladies of Brainerd with C. R. Croff's celebrated triple extract. Warranted the best and full weight. Use no other.

A festival will be given by the ladies of the Bethel Lutheran church, at Sixth street, on Wednesday afternoon, evening, July 23rd. Everybody is invited.

A year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. O. LaMar, who live at the corner of Oak and Seventh streets, died on Sunday afternoon of cholera infantum, and was buried on Monday.

Mrs. Robinson and daughter, Miss Ada, went to Brainerd on Saturday to visit friends in the city. Mrs. B. has returned, leaving Miss Ada, who will spend some weeks in Brainerd.—Altkin Age.

Prof. Grout, of the Brainerd Trust, will be in Little Falls on Saturday next, in the interest of that excellent institution. Under the efficient management of Prof. Grout, the college is gaining quite a reputation, and quite a number of scholars from outside towns are being secured.

A large number of Italians, painted and gaily dressed, will be in the city next Wednesday afternoon and execute a genuine, old-time waltz dance. Every one should be present, especially after the dance, when the winning rebel will try to get in the nickle by passing the hat.

The old frame building at the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets was partially destroyed by fire last Saturday. This is the third or fourth fire in that kind in the block, and it is believed that it is the result of an incendiary, and it is high time that an effort should be made to discover and punish the guilty party.

H. C. Miller left with most of his crew of builders on Tuesday to erect buildings at Deerwood Lake, some eight miles northwest of Brainerd, where eastern parties are establishing a summer resort. He will return in about two weeks, from which time will winter he expects to run a crew of fifty to seventy-five men in building operations in this city.—Presto Change.

Rev. C. H. Trapp, of the M. E. church, will continue the Pioneer Progress, illustrated with large pulp illustrations. Sermon No. 2: Hindrances to Pioneer's Way. 1. Obstacles in the Slough of Despond. 2. Astry at Mount Sinai. Morning service at 10:30 a. m. Subject, "The Gospel of Grace."

A. C. Glenn, chief grain inspector of Minnesota, and W. M. Beck, representative of the Minneapolis Central Co., in St. Paul, were in the city the first of the week, the guests of C. N. Parker. Mr. Parker took the distinguished gentlemen out to his cottage on Long Lake, and showed them the attractions of this part of the state lake to the way of boating and fishing.

Quite extensive improvements have been made in the road bed of the N. P. between this point and Little Falls during the past month, two work trains being employed during this time, leveling grades and widening the bed to be heavy. The streets over the creek at the Driving Park Grounds, and also the one at Buffalo Creek, have been torn out and heavy stone culverts put in their place. It is believed that the company expects to have heavy traffic over this part of the road this fall.

LITTLE NEWS NOTES.

Miss Lilian Wilson, of this city, has music class in Little Falls.

Miss Letta Grandjean is in Minneapolis visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Parker.

J. S. Rankin, of Bay Lake, operates a delivery service in this city on Tuesday.

Miss Lillian Loomis and Miss Rosa Neuhart, of this city, spent Tuesday at Staples.

Mr. Geo. M. Hall, of Hillbom, N. D., is in the city, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. N. H. Ingervall.

Mrs. N. H. Ingervall and Mrs. Walter Smith returned Monday, after a three week visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Chas. Metcalf, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. A. Koenig for some time, returned to her home in Grand Forks on Wednesday.

Keop Bros. will supply the ladies of Brainerd with C. R. Croff's celebrated triple extract. Warranted the best and full weight. Use no other.

A festival will be given by the ladies of the Bethel Lutheran church, at Sixth street, on Wednesday afternoon, evening, July 23rd. Everybody is invited.

A year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. O. LaMar, who live at the corner of Oak and Seventh streets, died on Sunday afternoon of cholera infantum, and was buried on Monday.

Mrs. Robinson and daughter, Miss Ada, went to Brainerd on Saturday to visit friends in the city. Mrs. B. has returned, leaving Miss Ada, who will spend some weeks in Brainerd.—Altkin Age.

Prof. Grout, of the Brainerd Trust, will be in Little Falls on Saturday next, in the interest of that excellent institution. Under the efficient management of Prof. Grout, the college is gaining quite a reputation, and quite a number of scholars from outside towns are being secured.

A large number of Italians, painted and gaily dressed, will be in the city next Wednesday afternoon and execute a genuine, old-time waltz dance. Every one should be present, especially after the dance, when the winning rebel will try to get in the nickle by passing the hat.

The old frame building at the corner of Sixth and Laurel streets was partially destroyed by fire last Saturday. This is the third or fourth fire in that kind in the block, and it is believed that it is the result of an incendiary, and it is high time that an effort should be made to discover and punish the guilty party.

H. C. Miller left with most of his crew of builders on Tuesday to erect buildings at Deerwood Lake, some eight miles northwest of Brainerd, where eastern parties are establishing a summer resort. He will return in about two weeks, from which time will winter he expects to run a crew of fifty to seventy-five men in building operations in this city.—Presto Change.

Rev. C. H. Trapp, of the M. E. church, will continue the Pioneer Progress, illustrated with large pulp illustrations. Sermon No. 2: Hindrances to Pioneer's Way. 1. Obstacles in the Slough of Despond. 2. Astry at Mount Sinai. Morning service at 10:30 a. m. Subject, "The Gospel of Grace."

A. C. Glenn, chief grain inspector of Minnesota, and W. M. Beck, representative of the Minneapolis Central Co., in St. Paul, were in the city the first of the week, the guests of C. N. Parker. Mr. Parker took the distinguished gentlemen out to his cottage on Long Lake, and showed them the attractions of this part of the state lake to the way of boating and fishing.

Quite extensive improvements have been made in the road bed of the N. P. between this point and Little Falls during the past month, two work trains being employed during this time, leveling grades and widening the bed to be heavy. The streets over the creek at the Driving Park Grounds, and also the one at Buffalo Creek, have been torn out and heavy stone culverts put in their place. It is believed that the company expects to have heavy traffic over this part of the road this fall.
