On the 18th Ballot.

The legislative convention which was in session at the time the Dispersal bill was passed last week, nominated J. C. Flynn for senator on the 18th ballot.

The caucus bureau announced the population of St. Cloud, Minn., to be 6,592, an increase of 4,070 since 1880.

Two priests are held at New York on the ground that they came under the law excluding contract labor. There never was a time since the county was organized where there was no opposition.

The bill which the house has finally passed is a conference with the senate for the relief of settlers on Northern Pacific indemnity lands.

The result of the legislative convention at Little Falls last week was anything but satisfactory to the people of this city and county.

They Stayed With Crow Wing. The Frodo Change in speaking of the recent senatorial convention at Little Falls says:

It finally became evident that neither Lee or Linn could ever be nominated. The name of J. C. Flynn, which with four from Morrison, we presume gave him the majority necessary to nominate.

To be known as the Manitoba & Manitoba railroad has been changed. The Manitoba line from the boundary to Winnipeg, Manitoba, and the Duluth, Crookston & Northern branch will be included in the division.
