How the Patriots Would Do It. The democrats are nearly devoid of their seats in the house of representatives at Washington last Tuesday and the reasons were filled with "colored congressmen." No doubt they were also filled with "colored congressmen."

Not Wearing the Watch. Chicago, Oct. 16.—An unusually early reading of the clock of a drummer, "said that in the future, the watch will be worn by the man who is not doing high company work, but by the man who is doing it."

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY. Senator C. K. Davis and Gov. W. H. Murray are speakers on this occasion.

Religion in Russia. Most educated Russians have no religion at all. The clergy are divided into two classes, the orthodox and the white clergy, or parochial priests, and in a very general way, the orthodox clergy are the only ones who are respected.

There was very little to be said for the return of John Foster to the office of county treasurer. When he was elected two years ago he had no money, and he has not since.

There have been many articles in the papers during the past few weeks advocating the adoption of the clover mow as the national flower, but the most unique is the following by Col. Robt. G. Lugenroth.

George Kenman's Clothes. George Kenman's suit of prison clothes and the iron chain which he wears have already brought him notoriety. The way they are made is a good example of the way in which the American manufacturer will be stimulated by the tariff.
