

Wife's Misery

His Half Story.

An old negro was doing business from a man who happened to be passing along. "You don't see me as pleased with this boy?" "You said I was a half-bred," said the man who had just passed by. "You said that a good many years ago, but he isn't any more." "You said that a good many years ago, but he isn't any more," said the man who had just passed by.
