Opera House, June 2nd.
 Milton Nobles' new play, "From Sir to Son," is proving a strong attraction at the Grand Opera House, and it deserves the highest success. It was a big step for Nobles to take, but he has proved that he is fitted to fill a higher sphere, both as an actor and dramatist. This play is his best work from a literary and constructive point of view. His language is always forceful, his character studies are naturally wrought, and his characters flesh and blood creations that stand out with life-like prominence. The plot is a masterpiece of logic and effective retort. Dr. D. M. Clark is the best of his lot in this play.—N. Y. Star.

 Satisfaction has been secured for the wedding of Miss Olive Gleason and Mr. T. F. Bellhouse, which will occur at St. Paul's Episcopal church on Tuesday evening next, June 2nd, at 9 o'clock, with a reception to follow at her father's residence on Tamarack street, from 9:30 to 11:30. The bride is the only daughter of our fellow townsman, E. B. Gleason, and is highly respected and admired by a large circle of friends.

Go in and look over the bargains Wm. Hack is offering on furniture to close out the entire stock.
 This Looks Like Business.
 The St. Paul News says: W. B. Tinkabach, of the Fish and Game Commission, says the wholesale price of fish in the upper lakes in the state is simply outrageous, and the commission proposes to take the matter in hand at once and begin prosecutions against the offenders. He says there might be some excuse for selling fish, but to take to the wholesale for even more than $1.00 per bushel is an outrage. The law is not being enforced. The game wardens have been instructed to give every effort to have the offenders punished. Chief Warden Stinson, of Minnesota, will probably appoint a deputy warden for every county in the state.

Come and get any part of my stock of furniture or wall paper at your own price. The bargains I am offering will astonish you and I could not afford to make them did I not intend to quit the business.
 W. Hack.
