His Life Work Ended.

Capt. W. F. Spalding died at his family residence on Main street in this city Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. His illness dated back over a period of two months since which time he had been confined to the house and a greater portion of the time to his bed, his disease being cancer of the stomach.

Capt. William Percy Spalding was born in Lowell, Mass., on Nov. 1, 1823, where his early life was spent. He afterwards moved to Poultney, Vermont, where he was married. When the civil war broke out in 1861 he formed a company at that place, Co. C of the 1st Vermont Regiment, and as captain served five years in the service of his country. After the close of the war he returned to Harvard, Ill., and from there he came to Northern Pacific Junction in the employ of the N. P. company having charge of the construction, and was first work on the road was commenced. He had charge of the first train that was ever run on the Northern Pacific railroad and continued in their employ until his death the time covering a period of over 20 years. In 1869 he came to Brainerd and located permanently. For the past ten years he has held the position of local claim agent and has also held the position of Judge of Probate of Crow Wing and Cass counties during the past four years.

Capt. Spalding was a man who had the respect of everyone in the community where he lived. He was universal in his sympathies, and his genial disposition and his honest and just character were known to all of those who knew him. He was a man of high character and his death is a loss to the community in which he lived. He was a man of high character and his death is a loss to the community in which he lived. #### Feats of Leggerism.

A unique entertainment comes to the Opera House next Wednesday evening, June 17th, in the shape of the eminent prestidigitator, Hermann Franck, who has been in the city for some time. The principal part of Hermann's entertainment consists of rare and all surprising phenomena, to which his own original and collective train has given existence. His work seemingly sets at naught all natural law. It is replete with mysticism and those occult deeds ordinarily ascribed to the redoubtable Prince of Darkness. Yet everything is simply done. He is simply a marvel before the eyes of the audience. The remainder of the combination is composed of a lot of unexceptionally clever people. The feats of leggerism, performed by Hermann, the prince of conjurers, are some of the very striking and hand affairs to which the old line of these-gone are accustomed. Hermann stands alone and supreme in the art of leggerism, and no word description can do full justice to the mystery of this remarkable phenomenon. His claims upon a gross of manner that is bewitching, he entrances by the subtle power which he so greatly possesses, and mystifies and bewitches you by the deftness and dexterity with which he executes his remarkable feats. His performance is a succession of surprises, each succeeding one being more bewildering than its predecessor. S. P. C. J. H. Koop, P. C. C. E. McMillan, V. C. Geo. M. Haas, K. of R. S. E. K. Gamble, M. of P. F. W. Vanderlief, M. of E. M. Smith.

The visiting Knights were given a banquet at Coulter's after the work was finished.

T. P. Russell has returned to Brainerd.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Bellhouse returned from their wedding trip on Wednesday.

The dog catcher has made things lively for the unfortunate and unleashed dogs during the past few days.

Miss Maggie Bailey, of Ironopolis, a sister of J. W. Bailey, arrived in the city last evening and will spend the summer here.

Chief McIntosh, S. H. Parker, W. Bedford and Chas. Kinkade returned this morning from the state freemen's tournament.

W. E. Seeley returned this morning from Farmington where he has been in attendance at a reunion of his old regiment, the 8th Minnesota.

Geo. Gardner will give a grand opening ball in his new hall on the evening of July 4th. The new building will be nearly finished by that time and Mr. Gardner proposes to have the event celebrated.

The wedding of J. J. Howes, Jr. to Miss Lizzie Edelbrock occurred at the Pro-Cathedral, St. Cloud, on Tuesday morning. The couple have gone east on a wedding trip and will make St. Cloud their future home.

Commissioner Hallett, of Cass county is in trouble again. While in the city on Monday he was arrested on the charge of having forged his name to a petition for a road. His examination will occur on Monday next.

A very exciting time was experienced at Little Falls recently in capturing a burglar. It seems that the house-breaker's partner was being followed away by post. Mr. Berg, to which his place would be broken into first and he stationed three men in the store. The h. b. made his appearance about 1:30 a. m. and the men on watch captured him after shooting at the windows out of the building and backshot. The shooting was merely done to intimidate the thief and make him flee.

The Hanco county bank was burned to the ground on Saturday last at La Prairie. The loss was $50,000 with an insurance of $10,000. A telegram was sent offering to be made to discover fire bugs who have been burning property in that and neighboring places. As the road of the veritable $10,000 reward, Banker Bowman, of the Hanco County Bank, of La Prairie, claims to have found a man who burned his bank last week. Rumor on Bowman's authority, makes the fact a well known one, who has had personal trouble with the aggressive burglar.

Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

An Explanation.

Envious Dislike.--In regard to the makers of the I use a claim made by Mr. Olson in the Journal that one of his hands made $105 in a month. The statement is correct, but it needs some explanation. First, the month referred to was five weeks; he worked sixteen hours a day, in fact he put in 56 hours of a stretch without rest or sleep, besides the man referred to is an extra fast worker so the case is not a fair criterion for others to be governed by.

The situation is as follows: Olson paid $7.00 for each coat and paid the price of each coat and pants and vests at $2 each. Olson pays from $1.25 to $1.75 for pants. Now he takes on the making of a pair of pants or a vest, four days work and ought to be paid $2 for it, while two coats is a fair week's work, so the account asked for is very moderate.

By order of the Union,

The Attorney of Aitkin County, desired a larger salary than that fixed by the county commissioners, but Judge Haldeman, before whom the case was taken, decided against the attorney, getting all that the services performed was worth, says the Standard.
