The Twelve Temptations.
The book of "The Twelve Temptations" has been very carefully prepared by Mr. Chas. H. Yale. He has evidently studied to make the story and the illustrations of the highest quality. The illustrations are the work of the artist Tom Hood, who headed one of his pleasant efforts with the quotation, "Mirth, admit of your crew." The play is brightened with choice bits of comedy sketching the "high lights" which bring out the picture fill the eye and make the scene. Throughout the Arctic perspective would become monotonous, and the climatic changes between torridity and frigid it would be to the prying audience a tall tree or some striking and incomprehensible symbol. There is also in this new spectacle a legitimate attempt to combine many of the popular features of stage entertainments. Everything is set given over to the "rebutious, peripatetic fellow" who "can't bear a passion to take and split the ear of the granddaddy," the speaking characters are sufficient for the purpose of the story, but they are not dramatic, nor is the dialogue diffuse. There is a suggestion of pathos, that pleasant form of entertainment with which the English man's child delight their patrons. Songs, specialties and novel incidents are introduced, and every effort put forth to gratify, as near as possible, the varied tastes of audiences. There are pleasant illusions and grandly executed for a few days ending at Front Lake, where it is said the ducks are very plentiful.
City Attorney McClellan and County Auditor Tellez left this morning for a few days ending at Front Lake, where it is said the ducks are very plentiful.
News come from Atkin of the marriage of Warren Foster, well known in this city, to Miss Martha Madly, a prominent society lady and school teacher of that place.
T. J. J. wishes to see all his old friends at his new stand.
Dan McLaughlin, chief of the Brainerd fire department, has been at West Superior attending the California game, which he was one of the judges in awarding prizes.
Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Swartz have issued invitations to a number of their friends to be present on Monday evening, Sept. 7th, at the tenth anniversary of their wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt, of East Brainerd, mourn the loss of two children, Francis and Peter, aged respectively three and five, who died on Friday last of scarlet fever.
Painful, old, varicose, and itchy skin in the palm, line, D. M. Clark & Co.
While out duck hunting on Tuesday morning, A. Z. Reslow drove his team through some land bramb and one of his horses was badly cut on the leg by a scythe which had been stored away there in order to prevent accidents.
Mr. John Willis, one of the old timers in Brainerd, was in town last Friday, inspecting the ties for the Great Northern Railway Co. Mr. Willis gave a typical representation of the "City of Pines," and just such a man as we like to meet.—Pineconer.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give a musical and literary social at Mrs. J. E. Goodman's next Tuesday evening.
The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. U. White, who has been dangerously ill for some days, is somewhat better today, and hopes an extraordinary recovery will be the result.
Geo. N. Day and Harry Brooks went out yesterday afternoon to kill a bear which had been seen in the vicinity of Red Lake Lake. The gentlemen returned unharmed.
The department was called out early Monday morning to a fire in East Brainerd. The blaze was at the residence of Martin Toomey's, which, together with most of the contents, was destroyed.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Alderman, of East Brainerd, Conn., accompanied by Miss May Clark, arrived in this city on Friday evening of last week, and will remain some time, the guest of their son, S. F. Alderman.
It is estimated that at least 100 men from this city were in the field ready for war on prairie chickens at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning. Birds were plenty this year and nearly every party brought back a good bag of game.
Henry Spalding returned from his trip to Vermont on Wednesday night after an absence of two weeks. While in the east Mr. Spalding had the honor of being President of the Wisconsin Club, which was held in his honor two years ago at the time of the destruction of Mr. Gilmore's Central Theatre, Philadelphia, Penn.
Ed. Doby, who was arrested for a violation of the game law, charged with killing a grouse on August 30th, was acquitted after a lengthy jury trial yesterday. The bird was found dead close to where Mr. Doby and John Orth were standing, secured in the brush and still warm when found. Mr. Orth testified that he did not kill the bird, and the jury in their wisdom could not convict, inasmuch as the bird was not found in his possession.

"This is dangerous to stand near a tall tree or some striking and incomprehensible symbol. There is also in this new spectacle a legitimate attempt to combine many of the popular features of stage entertainments. Everything is set given over to the 'rebutious, peripatetic fellow' who 'can't bear a passion to take and split the ear of the granddaddy,' the speaking characters are sufficient for the purpose of the story, but they are not dramatic, nor is the dialogue diffuse. There is a suggestion of pathos, that pleasant form of entertainment with which the English man's child delight their patrons. Songs, specialties and novel incidents are introduced, and every effort put forth to gratify, as near as possible, the varied tastes of audiences. There are pleasant illusions and grandly executed for a few days ending at Front Lake, where it is said the ducks are very plentiful.
City Attorney McClellan and County Auditor Tellez left this morning for a few days ending at Front Lake, where it is said the ducks are very plentiful.
News come from Atkin of the marriage of Warren Foster, well known in this city, to Miss Martha Madly, a prominent society lady and school teacher of that place.
T. J. J. wishes to see all his old friends at his new stand.
Dan McLaughlin, chief of the Brainerd fire department, has been at West Superior attending the California game, which he was one of the judges in awarding prizes.
Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Swartz have issued invitations to a number of their friends to be present on Monday evening, Sept. 7th, at the tenth anniversary of their wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt, of East Brainerd, mourn the loss of two children, Francis and Peter, aged respectively three and five, who died on Friday last of scarlet fever.
Painful, old, varicose, and itchy skin in the palm, line, D. M. Clark & Co.
While out duck hunting on Tuesday morning, A. Z. Reslow drove his team through some land bramb and one of his horses was badly cut on the leg by a scythe which had been stored away there in order to prevent accidents.
Mr. John Willis, one of the old timers in Brainerd, was in town last Friday, inspecting the ties for the Great Northern Railway Co. Mr. Willis gave a typical representation of the 'City of Pines,' and just such a man as we like to meet.—Pineconer.
