A French journal reports the case of a man who entered a coffee-house and sat down near a window. He was reading the morning newspaper which belonged to the establishment. "After you with the paper, if you please," said the new-comer.

"The other man nodded assent, and went on reading, but at the end of half an hour had hardly finished the first column. Just as the waiting-tender was about making a second and perhaps impatient application, he noticed that the reader had left the organ of sight. His resentment vanished.

"Ah," said he, in a low voice, "I am not surprised. The man must be only one eye, and has to read every thing twice over."

A Chin of the Old Block.

"Is your father in?"

"No, he is not here," said the man who rang the bell with one hand while he held a bunch of accounts behind the other.

"I don't know," said the boy who opened the door. "Got one of your photographs with you?"

"Why, yes. I believe I have."

"Well, let me take it a minute, and I'll find out."

"German Syrup"

My niece, Emilie Hawley, was taken with spitting blood, and she became very much alarmed, fearing that dreaded disease. Consumption, she thought, had taken her. Her mother, who had been a nurse, told her to stop the blood, give her strength and ease, and a good appetite. I had the German Syrup. Mrs. Mary A. Stacey, Trumbull, Conn. Honor to Germany.

It is the only medicine that will cure the blood, and it is the only medicine that will cure the lungs. It is the only medicine that will cure the stomach, and it is the only medicine that will cure the bowels. It is the only medicine that will cure the nerves, and it is the only medicine that will cure the brain. It is the only medicine that will cure the heart, and it is the only medicine that will cure the liver. It is the only medicine that will cure the kidneys, and it is the only medicine that will cure the bladder. It is the only medicine that will cure the prostate, and it is the only medicine that will cure the uterus. It is the only medicine that will cure the ovaries, and it is the only medicine that will cure the vagina. It is the only medicine that will cure the cervix, and it is the only medicine that will cure the uterus. HOW WE LIVE IN AMERICA

Both in the Matter of Food and Dress This Country is Far Ahead.

This has long been stoutly asserted by the average American, and he is not alone in his opinion. The fact is that we are far ahead of the world in the matter of food and dress. Our food is better, our clothing is better, and our methods of production are better. We are the only country in the world that has a surplus of food, and we are the only country in the world that has a surplus of clothing. We are the only country in the world that has a surplus of both.
