FRENCH SEASIDE BATHING.
Madeleine Must Be Very Sober.
Just Made at New Haven.
When a French young lady who is known all over the world as the author of a companion to the Queen of Charles I. Horatia, who was its own author, writes her sister, Marie, a letter describing a bathing scene at Trouville. She orders herself completely with a white, pink, blue or spotted sheet, which conceals even the color of her bathing costume. This she throws or hands to an attendant only when she gets into the water. When she emerges it is instantly removed. Thus, while bathing, she is entirely nude. This was the discovery of her bath attendant, who, by attending to her bath so discreetly that the gentlemen never open their eyes, she was able to remain in the water without being seen. There was no one to forbid her walking and bathing as she pleased.

"German Syrup"
My wife, Madeline Hanley, was taken with spitting blood, and she became very much altered, hearing that she had cancer of the stomach. She tried nearly all kinds of medicine, but nothing did her any good. Finally she took German Syrup and she told me it did her more good than anything else she ever tried. It stopped the blood, gave her strength and ease, and good appetite. It had been from her own lips. Mrs. Mary A. Steacy, Trumbull, Conn. Honor to German Syrup.

Fuller, postmaster at Little Falls, has resigned and Peter Mehl has been recommended for the place and will undoubtedly be appointed soon. W. P. Farrington and wife, of Milwaukee, are visiting with the family of Alabaster Parker, of the third ward. Mr. Parker and Mr. Farrington are cousins.

The heavy wind of Tuesday did considerable damage to standing timber north of town. A number of shade trees in the city were more or less damaged. Gilbert B. Cole, a cousin of C. E. Cole, Jr., of St. Cloud, is the guest of West Patterson, N. Y., arrived in the city Wednesday and will remain several days. The lumberman says that Dr. Howes expects to start up his saw mill at Grand Rapids, Minn., in a week or ten days, and is now out on the job. Call and M. Clark & Co.'s store and inspect their stock of hardware, crockery, lamps, furniture, carpets, call paper and wall coverings and all the latest. Their prices have been cut to meet the bad times.

Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent. About 25 young people were present.

Boy Drowned.

A nine year old son of Matt Stanley, of East Brainerd, was drowned at the dam yesterday about noon. He was seen with some other boys who had been fishing and attempted to go across to the other shore of the stream by jumping. He was seen to be slipping and was carried into the whirlpool below the dam. Up to the present time all efforts to recover his body have been fruitless and his search is being continued this afternoon. The distraught parents have been notified.

The animal had trotted for twenty minutes, but we understand will suffer no serious injury.

Long Way Off.
It now looks to us as if the Brainerd School and Tribune would not support their argument in regard to the open house management until their case falls. The school is now not out of Little Falls. And that seems to be a long way hence—Staples, Wis.
