BRAND, ... MINN.

The famous "Woods" which cover so much territory in Ireland and the colonies in 1722 and 1725, very old of race.

The total amount of money loaned by the government to the states to carry on the War of the Revolution was not short of $200,000,000.

In the fourteenth century William of Ockham was the best philosopher in all of his time and perhaps of all time as much as though they were alive.

The Egyptians had their distinct mode of writing: the hieroglyphic, hieratic, cursive and Coptic. Hieroglyphic script was in vogue at least 4,000 years before Christ.

The manufacture of cloth from China is said to be the oldest in the world. The Chinese in the Yangtze-Kiang valley find great difficulty in teaching the natives to weave.

To digress a bit to Memphis, Mo., a death of 23 feet below the surface of the city.

A German newspaper objects to the title of "The Days of the Fatherland" on the ground that it is "not without danger to existing laws."

Lewis Tink, a lawyer of Woodbury, N. J., claims the right to the title. On Saturday he found 42 big fish in a long river which he says is the right property in his state.

A Missouri paper has received the following note from an attorney: "Dear Sir: You may stop an order as I have a right to it. I am a non-resident of your state."

If an imaginary tree is drawn around the kingdoms of Russia, Germany, Austria and the Republic of France, it will include in its circumference just about the same amount of land as there are in all the world besides.

With water at 10 cents a drink on the Chesapeake, 15 cents a drink on the Hudson, and 20 cents a drink on the Delaware, it is not surprising that the water is so scarce in the latter two states.

An advertising contemporary states that Mrs. Lucille Borden, who walked from Chicago, Ill., to the world's fair, was the first woman to walk the distance. She was accompanied by a typographical error in the spelling of her name.

A list of names weighing eighty-two pounds each, will be exhibited at the Chicago river carnival. The fish is said to be the largest and most beautiful of its kind ever taken from the Columbia river.

Six states of the Union are represented in the present convention entirely by women. They are Illinois, Michigan, Delaware, Maryland, South Carolina and Louisiana. All the others have at least one male delegate.

The cathedral of Mayence has just come into possession of an interesting relic. It is a fragment of the cross of the Holy Land, which was left to the cathedral by Marie Stuart, queen of Scotland, in 1568. This relic is perfectly authentic.

Midwinter, which consisted of 131 days and was known as the longest winter in the history of the world, is now over. It was the longest winter in the history of the world, and was known as the longest winter in the history of the world.

 an infant daughter which occurred on Wednesday from spinal meningitis.
 The occasion of an invitation to the opening of "The Colony," J. M. Mark-man's new hotel at Aitkin, is acknowledged. It will take place Oct.
 15th.
 Some extensive improvements have been made by Parsons & Swanson in their Laurel street sample room. The store is well stocked and they now have a very nice place.
 The base ball game advertised to take place last Sunday did not come off as the Minneapolis team telegraphed to the last moment they could not come.
 President Congdon, of the board of education, informs the Durance that the city schools will begin either on to all who participated and thereby made the entertainment a success.

 John Scott and wife, of St. Paul, were in the city several days this week. They are in the city on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Spaulding.
 Mr. Scott is now a passenger conductor on the Great Northern, and at one time held a similar position on the N. P.
 Migration county and Little Falls is all torn up over a railroad project.
 If the opposition amounts to anything we would advise the proposition of that territory to be disfranchised.
 The project is one worthy the support of every voter of Morrison county.
 Rev. and Mrs. D. N. Merdell, of the Presbyterian church, have recently returned to this city from their wedding trip, and on Wednesday evening a reception was tendered them at the church parlors. Refreshments were served and a close a purse of money was presented to the pastor and also several other gifts. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.
 The Pioneer Press, of Tuesday, contained a cut of C. D. Johnson, of Little Falls, which is certainly good grounds for a libel suit. Now, as everybody knows, Charlie is a handsome man, and just as well as he can be, but the picture in the Press is certainly not that of a handsome man, and we doubt if Charlie would have known himself had the picture not been labeled.
 The spelling match which took place at the Congregational Church on Tuesday evening, was well attended and proved to be a very interesting event. Mrs. J. N. Nevers and Rev. Geo. H. Davis were at the head of the contest. The contest was
