FIRST BLOOD FOR CASS COUNTY.

Col. Williams, the investigator, has a Great deal of Work for Cassing.

Col. W. Williams, the man appointed to ascertain the facts in regard to the Cass County case, has reported to the commission, and, as was expected, his report is favorable to Cass county. The Col. was not engaged for any great length of time in looking the facts (7) up, but was guided by statements and a good deal of guess-work, as his report will show, which is as follows:

He says in the report that his work was done by going to the absence of records showing the boundaries of the election districts in the territory in Cass county. He finds, however, that two of the districts, Gull River and Pillsbury, are wholly within the territory in dispute. All the rest of the territory, there were 91 voters registered in Gull River, and 45 voters in Pillsbury. In the district is a small town, it is a fact to presume that nearly the total legal vote of the territory in dispute, there were 136 voters, and 36 of these were 91 voters in Gull River, and 45 voters in Pillsbury. This is a fact to presume that nearly the total legal vote of the territory in dispute, there were 136 voters, and 36 of these were 91 voters in Gull River, and 45 voters in Pillsbury.

In the Pillsbury district the registration showed 45 voters, and 36 of these were 91 voters in Gull River, and 45 voters in Pillsbury. This is a fact to presume that nearly the total legal vote of the territory in dispute, there were 136 voters, and 36 of these were 91 voters in Gull River, and 45 voters in Pillsbury.

What the Districter would like to know is this: If Mr. Williams was not to start in, in order that a gentleman who has been engaged in accompanying the party, but the same was also engaged.

A. St. Cloud has named. A. F. Ferris, who has been a member of the game and fish commission during the past six years, has been obliged to tender his resignation under a recent decision of the attorney general. Mr. C. St. Cloud, of St. Paul, has been appointed to succeed him. The appointment, as far as Mr. Ferris is concerned, is a matter of course. It is a good man for the position. In St. Cloud, it should have gone to Brainerd. St. Cloud has certainly not enough experience in the game commission, as far as Mr. Ferris is concerned, is a matter of course. It is a good man for the position. In St. Cloud, it should have gone to Brainerd.

"15 Minutes to a Pound." This rule our mothers followed when roasting meats in their cast-iron stoves. We are now living in another day. The rule does not apply by any means to the Majestic Steel Range The MAJESTIC oven operates upon a new and scientific principle. When meats roasted in the oven (which is an air-tight compartment), the natural juices are preserved. Bread baked in it is sweet and moist, and will keep for days. The MAJESTIC is like no other stove you ever saw. It is better than any other.

Law on Estates. Few people, apparently, know anything at all concerning the law of estates, and a little information as to the subject may not be out of place. The estate of a person who dies without a will is divided into two parts, the real estate and the personal estate. The real estate is divided into land and tenements, and the personal estate is divided into goods, chattels, and debts. The real estate is inherited by the heirs, and the personal estate is inherited by the executor or administrator of the estate. The law of estates is a complex one, and it is important that every person should know something about it. A lawyer should be consulted for advice on any matter relating to the law of estates.
