A vote of the Akeley Lumber Co.'s mill at Minneapolis was taken last Saturday on president, and resulted in 386 votes for McKinley and 108 for Bryan. This is a good indication of how laboring men will vote this fall.

FREE coinage means a reduction of 50 per cent in the purchasing power of the wages of every man employed at the N. P. shops or in the mill in this city. Do free coinage advocates think they can get laboring men to vote for such a proposition.

BRO. STIVERS now says that the man who says he predicted that fifty names could not be secured for a Republican club is a liar. We should think he would, considering the way the boys came up on Tuesday evening to register themselves for law and order, protection and sound money.

THE Populists, in state convention assembled, nominated John Lind, who claims to be a Republican, for governor. It has been evident to a great many people for a long time that the Populists would have to go outside of their party to get a man who had sufficient ability to fill the place if elected.

FOUR years ago Democracy said we wanted free trade because it would reduce prices, and this year we want free silver because it will raise prices, and in two year it will be hard for Democracy to tell what it does want. As a matter of fact Democracy wants the offices, and will advocate anything, no matter how absurd or injurious to get them.

WHY do not the advocates of the free coinage of silver who are so fond of telling how free coinage will reduce one half the capital of rich men, also state that it will, in the same proportion, reduce the capital of the poor man? The rich man, worth thousands, can better afford to lose one-half his income than the poor man can one half his wages. The rich man would only have to dispense with a few luxuries that he would be better for the dispensing, while the poor man, with only barely enough to live in comfort, would starve if the value of his income was reduced one-half. And yet you can't do one without doing the other. Is the poor man willing to starve himself and family to take a few luxuries away from the rich? And yet this proposition is daily advanced by the advocates of free silver coinage.

FOUR years ago Bro. Stivers of the Journal filled the columns of his paper with editorials, saying that if the Democratic party and free trade were successful, wheat would be worth $1.50 to $2.00 a bushel as it ought to be and that the low prices were due to Republican protection. Republicans said the country was then prosperous, but if Democracy and free trade succeeded a panic and hard times would ensue and prices would be lower. Democracy won and Republican predictions proved true. Now the populistic portion of democracy, including the Journal editor, declare it's because we do not have free coinage that prices are low, and Republicans and sound money people say that a worse panic and we so times well follow free coinage, and be assured Republican predictions will prove as true as they did four years ago. The Journal editor lied then and he is equally false now.

This Year's State Fair.

The Minnesota State Fair this year is to be a great Exposition of Northwestern products and resources. It is now anticipated that the National Encampment of the G. A. R. at St. Paul, and the Knights of Pythias at Minneapolis the week of the State Fair, August 31st to September 5th, will attract at least two hundred thousand visitors to the twin cities, possibly more. The visitors do not come from abroad alone, but from all parts of the country owing to the rate of one cent a mile made by the railroads for a thirty day limit, and without limitation as to purchaser.

It is certain that quite a large proportion of people, especially those from Eastern Southern states, are coming not merely to attend the Encampment, but to see the Northwest and learn of its soil, climate, mines, timber and manufactures. The State Fair, therefore, affords the Northwest a great opportunity to do valuable work for the promotion of immigration. Realizing this, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, North and South Dakota, will send state exhibits of their products. Minnesota, spurred on by this friendly rivalry, is expected to make a thirty day limit, and will spend more than ever before, and many of the agricultural counties will make a county exhibit.

A ROUSING MEETING

The Opera House Completely Filled to Hear Republican Principles Expounded.

THE SILVER QUESTION EXPLAINED

An audience completely filling the opera house listened attentively on Saturday evening last for over three hours to hear Hon. J. T. McCleary, of Mankato, and Judge Page Morris, of Duluth, our next congressman, preach the doctrine of protection and sound money. There was no torch-light procession, no marching club or any other unusual demonstration to get the people out, but for all that the house was completely filled, and with but very few exceptions, all remained until the end at half past eleven, so deeply interested were they in the subject.

It was expected that Congressman McCleary would make the principal speech, but he missed the noon train at St. Paul, and had to come to Staples on No. 1, and got down here on a freight, which he could not do until ten o'clock, hence Judge Morris occupied the time until that hour.

Judge Morris is an able and convincing speaker, and while he has not the wonderful eloquence of his opponent, he has justice and right on his side, which he presents with so much earnestness that he carries conviction. His reference to the situation as it existed two years ago and compared it with to-day. How he stumped the district then for Mr. Towne, and how he told the people then that it was but a preliminary skirmish for the great battle of this year. How Mr. Towne was elected and had scarcely been seated when he was captured body and soul by the silver barons, and had deserted to the enemy in the face of the great battle that they had told the people they were preparing for. He read extracts from Mr. Towne's speech made on the memorable platform two years ago in accepting the nomination to show how absurd and foolish was Towne's claim that the party had left him instead of his leaving the party. He then entered into a discussion of the merits of free coinage, and showed how it would reduce in value by one-half every dollar of money in circulation other than gold, how it would cut in two the savings of laboring men in all savings institutions, such as savings banks, building and loan associations, trust companies and deposits in banks, how it would reduce by one-half the value of all life insurance policies, how it would rob the old soldier of one-half his pension money, and reduce the value of all wages, whether earned by the minister in the pulpit or the laboring man in the shops, on the farm, in the mill, or on the railroad in any capacity, or by the struggling and tired teacher in the school room, and, worst of all, would produce such a lack of confidence in the financial integrity of the nation that such a panic and business depression would ensue, as would make the panic of 1893 a boom in comparison. He was applauded to the echo as in seathing sentences he denounced such dishonesty and dishonor to enrich the millionaire silver mine owner, for he would be the only one who would profit by free silver coinage.

by this time having arrived, Mr. Morris closed, and Mr. McCleary, in a clear, simple, schoolmasterly, but very able and convincing fashion, explained to the audience what free coinage of silver meant. He traced the experience of the government from its birth to the present time in attempting to maintain the two standards and circulate both metals, and showed how futile an effort it was and always would be unless at a fixed ratio by international agreement, or by the unlimited coinage of one and the limited coinage of the other as at present practiced by the United States. The hour was so late that Mr. McCleary could not explain everything as clearly as he liked, and as he reached his subject he entered into most timely effort, for it settled the question for good in the minds of quite a few who did not understand the question, and who had been partially led to believe that the unlimited free silver advocates that there was some merit in their scheme of public robbery. Mr. McCleary was most attentively listened to throughout and was greeted with hearty applause as he passed the fallacies of the free silver advocates.

There is no question but that the feeling for honest money and honesty is now paramount to all else again, at present in this community, but no effort must be spared until all who are not blinded by partisan feeling or swayed by dishonest motives of self advancement will see and feel the truth, and the result will be the crushing defeat of the foes of good government and financial honesty next November.

Why He Remains A Republican.

At the late Republican convention of Arizona, held to elect delegates to the St. Louis convention, Tom Fitch, one of the most noted free silver advocates in the territory, was called upon to speak and responded in a speech, which for simple eloquence and beauty of diction, deserves preservation. His reason why he should remain a Republican are unanswerable and should be read by every Republican. The reading will in no way dwarf their enthusiasm for the grand old party. The full text of Mr. Fitch's speech is as follows:

"Gentlemen of the convention: I thought that the seclusion that the upper gallery grants, combined with other circumstances, would exempt me from invitation to speak before this convention, but repeated calls leave me no alternative consistent with courtesy but to answer them.

"The speakers who have addressed you have spoken of the free coinage of silver as a cardinal principle of the Republican party. I fear that the St. Louis convention may compel us to retrace our steps in this matter, and as the statesmen who control this convention have not included me among those deemed most fit to represent Arizona at St. Louis, I feel quite at liberty to tell the truth.

"I suppose no one will question my long devotion to the cause of free silver coinage. Years ago, at the inception of the movement, I, as the vice-president of the national executive committee of the free silver convention, in connection with A. J. Warner, the president of the committee, traveled through the South and West preaching the doctrine of bimetallism, and I have never since had occasion to change my views with respect to the great benefits that might result to this nation from the complete restoration of silver as a money metal; and yet there are other circumstances quite as influential which must be potent in determining my future action and the future action of many Republicans in this matter.

"This morning a friend, who is a member of this convention, and who now honors me with his audience, said to me: "Mr. Fitch, you have always been a pronounced advocate of the free coinage of silver; what will you do if the St. Louis convention adopts a plank favoring a single gold standard, and denouncing the free coinage of silver? I did not answer the question then, but with your permission I will do so now.

"I belong to the Republican party because its history is the history of the growth, the greatness and the freedom of this nation; because its purposes are patriotic; because it is the friend of labor without being the foe of thrift; because it is wise, because it is just, because its restoration to complete power will rekindle the furnace and start the turbines, and fill the land with the music of contented and well paid toil, and put bread into men's mouths and hope into their hearts.

"I belong to the Republican party because it is the grandest political organization of freemen that the world has ever known; because under its wise guidance star after star has been added to our flag, ship after ship has been added to our fleets, factory after factory has been added to our resources, millions upon millions have been added to our wealth, city after city has been developed from our villages, and the land has been laced with network of iron rails, and furnace fires have illuminated the night, and the grand diapason of labor has been made to sound throughout the continent.

"I belong to the Republican party because under its inspiration these United States, once a waggling and discordant common wealth, these United States, once shamed with starvation and despair with the disease of secession—these United States have become a country where no slave's presence dishonors labor, where no freeman's utterance are choked by the hand of power, where no man dare his hat to another except through the courtesy of equals, where education is free, where manhood is respected and where labor is protected.

"Under the patriotic rule of the Republican party these United States have become a nation whose credit reigns at the head of the world's finance—whose flag floats proudly upon every sea, and whose armies would be as the drumbeat out of the hives of industry to swarm in defense of the country on every shore.

Cecil Rhodes is probably only too glad of another Matabele outbreak. He is not likely to miss any opportunity ties at present for ingratiating himself again with the government and the English people.

The American consular service doubtless may be improved, but it is soothing to national selflove to know that Germany is about reforming hers, to bring it up to the American standard.

Mr. Tesla's announcement of his belief in a possibility that the X rays are fatal to bacilli will revive hope in that direction. His belief is mainly theoretical as yet, but a Tesla theory is worth considering.

The decision made in 1878 by the general assembly of the Presbyterian church that the Bible forbids preaching to women, was reaffirmed at the recent meeting. They may, however, deliver lectures and special addresses despite the words of the great Apostle, "I command that your women keep silence in the churches."

Mrs. Terhune ("Marion Harland") says she is satisfied that women have at present all the "rights" they can make use of. Indeed, "things have reached such a pass," said she to an interviewer in St. Louis recently, "that I am really seriously thinking of trying to win immortality for myself by beginning an agitation for 'the rights of men.'"

It is strange how useful the club organization has been found in promoting literature, patriotism, military knowledge, hunting, fishing and the fraternal virtues, since the Raines liquor law went into operation in New York. Mr. Raines dreamed not of the good he wrought for all these objects. But it is stranger still that no club has been formed to secure Sunday drinking privileges.

The sentence of Dr. Jameson, although not very severe, is sufficient to stamp the man a convict, and the military proceedings which are likely to follow will be still more humiliating. And probably not the least galling feature of the situation to the man himself is the knowledge that Cecil Rhodes is at large and winning fresh laurels in Matabeleland.

A young man of Boston who had just spent his last ten cents received a telegram from San Francisco the other day stating that he is the heir to a fortune of over $2,000,000. But this should not lead other young men who have only ten cents to part with it in the hope that he may get a similar telegram. Better keep it as long as they can.

A Mull (Scotland) centenarian, Mr. Donald Macmaster, has passed away in his 103d year. Until about four years ago he was to be seen any favorable evening fishing in the Sound of Mull. Facts speak more powerfully than words. The Spanish government takes occasion to say that one-half of the news telegraphed from Cuba to this country is false, that the rebellion is rapidly being suppressed and that it will soon be a thing of the past. Perhaps. If that is so, however, why is Spain preparing to send still more troops to the rebellious island? Are they needed to keep the other Spanish troops loyal?

Under the charter proposed for Greater New York, appropriation bills will have to pass two municipal boards by a four-fifths vote, and in case of veto by the mayor, by a five-sixths vote. In preparing the charter the commission have an important work to perform, and if they can do anything to lift municipal government in this country to a higher standard they will be remembered among the benefactors of their time.

The terrible forest fires which have swept over the State of Washington and a portion of British Columbia during the past week, have brought ruin and destruction to many busy communities and death and desolation to many happy homes. It is hoped that this experience will awaken interest in the proper protection and preservation of the forests, which is yearly growing more important, and a movement in which little progress has been made in the Western states.

Language, once said a great literary authority, is enriched by contributions from the slums, not from the upper strata of society. The latter are satisfied to use it in its purity. We may quarrel with the use, in this sense, of the word "enriched," but we have only to look at slang additions to our modern dictionaries in order to realize that language is at least increased from that source. So, on the whole, we have little sympathy with those persons who always sneer at the innovations of men not purists in style. The innovations are terse, vigorous and expressive, and many of them have come to stay.

THE NEWS RESUME.

DIGEST OF THE NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

A Comprehensive Review of the Important Happenings of the Past Week Culled From the Telegraph Reports—The Notable Events at Home and Abroad That Have Attracted Attention.

The Nation's Capital.

People Talked About.

Col. John A. Banks, chaplain-in-chief of the Union Veterans' league, died at home in Glenfield, Pa., of heart disease.

Frank Earnshaw, president of the big Earnshaw Steamship company, and one of the most prominent men in shipping and commercial circles in Philadelphia, died very suddenly at his summer mansion at Chestnut Hill. He was just mounting a bicycle when stricken down, and fell dead in the avenue in the presence of his family and several friends.

Accidental Happenings.

Half the business portion of Ilfracombe, Eng., was burned, involving a loss of $500,000.

The explosion of fifty pounds of giant powder in Victor, Col., seriously damaged four business blocks. Many people were bruised but none killed.

Much damage was done at Cleveland by a terrible wind storm. Eight or nine houses were completely destroyed and a large tabernacle blown down.

While watching a game of ball at Youngstown, Ohio, Oscar Gilchrist was struck in the eye by a foul fly with such force that the eye was knocked into pulp and fell out of his head.

A freight train on the Vandalia railroad ran through a bridge near Crawfordsville, Ind., killing Conductor Fowler, Brakeman McKenzie and Fireman John Herbert.

A terrible storm struck Homer, Mich. Roofs were lifted, houses partly blown away, barns tipped over and over half of the fine shade trees about the town were blown over.

A fire swept the mill, lumber planer, dwelling and several railroad cars at Sunny South Lumber company at New Lewisville, Ark., destroying 1,000,000 feet of lumber. The loss is $50,000, heavily insured.

An entire family, consisting of five persons, were bitten by a pet family cat at Cambridge, Mass., and serious results are expected, as the cat was evidently suffering from rabies. John Hanlon, his wife and three small children are the victims.

J. W. Merchant and family, consisting of five persons, were poisoned at Frankfort, Ind., by eating "schmierkaese." Ada, the ten-year-old daughter, died in terrible agony, but the remainder of the family, while dangerously sick, will probably recover.

A freight train on the Vandalia line ran through a bridge near Crawfordsville, Ind., killing Conductor Fowler, Brakeman McKenzie and Fireman John Herbert and seriously injuring Roadmaster J. S. Brothers and Engineer Bowman.

A violent rain and electrical storm, which passed over Parkersburg, W. Va., did much damage to the Baltimore & Ohio east of that point. The bridge at West Union was again swept away and the tunnel at Eastons badly caved in.

Joseph Scheibal of Bass Lake, Starke county, Ind., was struck by a fast train and instantly killed. Scheibal was assaulted and robbed and his body placed on the track to be mangled by passing trains. The authorities are conducting an investigation.

Miss Mary Phares, formerly a resident of Milton, Iowa, and Miss Webber, were drowned in a large pond on the farm of William Webber of Brock, Mo. It seems that they went in bathing and got beyond their depth. Both of the girls were eighteen years of age and quite talented.

Information just received from Stanley, E. I., under date of June 9, proves conclusively that the ship which foundered off that locality, May 14 last, was the Philadelphia clipper City of Philadelphia, and that Capt. Johnson, his wife and family, one passenger and a crew, numbering in all twenty-seven men, perished.

Crimes and Criminals.

A bold and successful raid was made on a faro bank at Newport, Ky., but the haul netted only $75.

United States Senator George G. Vest's summer residence at Sweet Springs, Mo., was broken into, and a silver tea service taken.

Mrs. Mary Hermann, thirty years of age, of Camden, N. J., drowned her two infant children and attempted to drown herself in the Delaware river.

Bert Green, colored, convicted of the murder of Miles P. Mitchell, near Whiteville, Hardman county, in December last, was hanged at Jackson, Tenn.

Mart Crawford, a widower, thirty-eight years old, employed as a section foreman on the Missouri Pacific, was lynched a few miles from Tipton, Mo., for attempted assault on Mary Tuckley, sixteen years old.

Capt. W. Bailey Tucker, general manager of the Tavares, Atlantic & Gulf railway, was shot at Oreando, Fla., by Alfred St. Clair Abrams, a prosecuting attorney of Lake county. Political troubles led to the tragedy.

A crank with a slungshot invaded the office of Supt. W. H. Peddles, of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, at New York city, and demanded $2,000,000 in bonds. The man was directed to a certain office to get the bonds. The office proved to be that of the chief detective of the road, and the crank is now under arrest.

James Casherega, alias George Wilson, was hanged in the federal jail at Fort Smith, Ark., for murdering a man named Thack for robbery. He protested his innocence on the gallows. His neck was not broken, and he died of strangulation.

In a lonely gulch, several miles west of the village of Lacey, in the northern part of Oklahoma Territory, the regular mail stage was held up by a band of outlaws. There is little doubt that the robbery was the work of the reorganized gang of "Bill" Doolin, the condemned murderer and outlaw who escaped from the jail at Guthrie several weeks ago.

The body of Sheriff David Doughlass and the corpse of an unknown highwayman were found lying a few feet apart in a woods two miles from Nevada City, Cal. There were five empty chambers in the pistol of the sheriff, who had been shot through the heart, in the right eye and in the hand. The bullets of the sheriff had gone through the robber's heart, abdomen and hip.

Daniel Strain, a wealthy farmer of Vermilion county, Ind., prominent in social and church life, committed suicide, using the same revolver with which his daughter, sixteen years old, committed suicide fourteen years ago, because of disappointment in love. This revolver has been carefully concealed by him all this time, none of the family knowing its whereabouts, although its loss was frequently mentioned in his presence.

Hiram A. Waite, ex-city controller, who disappeared March 30 last, leaving a shortage in his accounts of about $2,500, suddenly returned to Port Huron, Mich. He went immediately to his residence. The city is excited over his return and new developments in the case may be interesting reading. Mr. Waite is much stouter than when he disappeared and, with a clean-shaven face, could hardly be recognized.

Sheep Shearing in England.

We have no longer sheep shearing festivals as in times of yore. At the commencement of the century the sheep shearings of Francis, duke of Bedford, and the great Coke, afterwards earl of Leicester, were important rural gatherings, which were attended by agriculturists from all parts of the kingdom. Moreover, at this period, at this period and up to the middle of the present century, the sheep shearing day on farms in general was a red-letter one. Neighborhood farmers visited one another on these occasions, and their sons did most of the work of the clipping. Regular feasts were provided and there was much merry-making. All this has long since changed. Bands of itinerant laborers, well versed in the art of shearing, go from farm to farm and contract for the clipping at a fixed rate per score or per hundred, and when this is not done the shepherds and ordinary laborers on the farm have to perform the work. All kinds of feasting in connection with sheep shearing have very much gone out of fashion. The custom still lingers in populous districts, but since agricultural depression came all but the well-to-do have avoided anything like a festival.—Mark Lane Express.

Misfit Horses.

Wallace's Monthly, in a criticism of the hap-hazard kind of horse breeding which has so long prevailed, says:

Long before draft horses can be grown there will be a brisk demand for good ones. The demand for first-class coachers has never yet been supplied and will increase with increasing wealth.

There will be money in growing all these classes of horses, but there will be no money in the misfits, the misbegotten brutes, that have different strains of blood quarreling in them all the time and that are good for neither one thing or the other. Western farmers have had a sore experience in the past by using a Norman for the first cross, a trotting horse for the second, and possibly an Arabian for the third, and top out with something cheap and nasty, and chosen because it was cheap. Under no circumstances could this kind of breeding make money. The extremely low prices have cleaned out much of the truck at about beef prices per pound, and it is well that it is gone. Would that all of this sort of truck were out of the country. It is easy to be horse poor with horses that no one wants, because fit for no purpose, neither fish, flesh nor right good herring. It will not be easy to be horse poor of breeding in the future is conducted on right principles.

EXCITING INCIDENT OF THE STRIKE IN CLEVELAND.

A Supposed Attempt to Blow Up a Non-Union Men's Boarding House Results in a Running Fire Between Rioters and Militia—Ten to Twelve Thousand Men May Go on a Sympathetic Strike.

Cleveland, Aug. 6.—Shooting by soldiers and rioters marked the opening of another day in the vicinity of the Brown Hoisting works. At 1:30 this morning two men stopped in front of Mrs. Lind's boarding house, a few squares from the works, where a man named Gettner, who is employed at the works, boards. The two men yelled for the "scab" to come out, and then they began to throw stones at the house. Presently one of the men fired at the door, the bullet passing through the panel and entering the house. The noise attracted the attention of the militia, and a detachment of Company I men were ordered to the scene on the double-quick. As the soldiers turned a neighboring corner the two men started to run. The lieutenant in charge shouted "Halt!" The pursued men paid no attention to the order, and the soldiers began firing at them. They returned the fire and for a few moments there was a lively fusilade. One of the men suddenly made a cry and was heard to groan. A moment later, however, both had disappeared in the darkness. The affair caused the utmost excitement in the neighborhood for a time. The bullets struck several houses. Two went clear through the side of a grocery store. The soldiers and others believe that the two men had planned to blow up Mrs. Lind's house.

About 150 non-union men went to work at the Brown works this morning, under guard of a large force of militia and police. An enormous crowd of strikers and their sympathizers were present, but no trouble occurred. On every street within a radius of nearly a mile of the plant both soldiers and policemen patroled the sidewalks. Many of the soldiers were double-armed, carrying belts and revolvers as well as guns. A number of the strikers also carried guns. At a meeting of the executive committee of the locked-out men this morning it was decided to ask the central labor union at its meeting this evening to declare a sympathetic strike. If this is done it will call out probably 10,000 to 12,000.

It is not likely now that the sympathetic strike will be ordered. Eight of the leaders of the central labor union who represent different trades were interviewed, and all but two of them expressed themselves as opposed to such a strike, declaring that it would be unwise and could not benefit the Brown strikers. The question will probably be decided at the meeting of the union to-night.

Sale of N. P. Lands.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 6.—All of the lands of the Northern Pacific railroad in the State of Washington, comprising 11,902 sections of patented and an indefinite quantity of unpatented land, were sold at public auction by Special Master Alfred L. Carey. The sale was under a decree of the United States circuit court of the Eastern district of Wisconsin. The property was bought in by Edwin W. Winter for the Northern Pacific Railway company, of which he is president, for $1,705,200. A private bidder attempted to purchase one tract of 160 acres, but Winter bid it up to $15,000 and took it at that figure. There was no opposition after this. Winter purchased the next tract at $100, with an option to take the rest of the patented land at the same figure, which he promptly covered, depositing $119,010 in Northern Pacific bonds. The remaining lands of the company were knocked down to him for a lump bid of $505,000.

Naturalization Refused.

Washington, Aug. 6.—In refusing to grant naturalization papers to two young Italians to-day, Judge Cole, of the district supreme court, held that no one who is in ignorance of the constitution of the United States is competent or entitled to become admitted to citizenship. The young men explained that they had come to this country before reaching their majority and that they have ever since resided here, but when questioned by the judge they confessed they did not understand the constitution and were even doubtful as to the form of this government. Judge Cole thereupon decided them to be ineligible to citizenship on the ground that they could not swear to support something they do not understand.

Prisoners Shot.

Havana, Aug. 6.—Brig. Gen. Eshague, with 700 reinforcements, arrived by the trans-Atlantic mail steamer Catalina from Spain yesterday. The same vessel brought a quantity of munitions of war and $1,000,000 in silver consigned to the captain general. The prisoners of war, Antonio Pena Lopez, an insurgent lieutenant, and Marcisco Rodiguez Lopez, a private, recently court-martialed, were shot in the Cabanas fortress here at sunset last evening. Another prisoner from Santiago, Nunez Bravo, a rebel prefect, was shot at Santo Domingo yesterday.

Alabama's Election.

The Gray Estate.

Duluth, Special.—At the hearing in the Gray estate case to-day more testimony was introduced to prove that the handwriting in some letters alleged to have been written by Gray to Miss Western was not his. The record book of marriages of the late Rev. Mr. Smith of Hudson, Wis., who is alleged by Miss Western to have married Gray and herself, was introduced. It contains no record of the marriage. The heirs are striving to prove the "dear wife" letter a forgery, and Mr. Gray's ex-bookkeeper and many of his close friends have testified that in their opinion it is.

Sewall Will Not Resign.

Bath, Me., Special.—Mr. Arthur Sewall, Democratic nominee for vice president, was interviewed this afternoon as to the story that he intended to resign in favor of Mr. Watson. He said: "Any man who for a moment entertains such an idea is not worthy of an answer. I do not know whether Mr. Bryan will retain a place on the Populist ticket. He will come to Bath with Mrs. Bryan directly after notification, which will take place in New York. They will make their headquarters at my house while in Maine."

New York, Special.—In answer to a call sent out by Col. L. FIVE MILLIONS.

This Said to Be the Amount of the Moore Bros.' Losses.

Chicago, Aug. 6.—It is said that the Moore failure will aggregate between $5,000,000 and $7,000,000. Such is the sum mentioned by a bank president who has been in the confidence of the speculators during their daring and dazzling reign. According to this authority James H. Moore and William H. Moore, his brother, held together $5,500,000 worth of Diamond Match stock. A portion of this amount was owned in fee before the speculative era in the stock began. Much, however, was bought at prices ranging between 150 and 240. The Moore holdings were a majority of the total stock issued. It so happens, however, that the balance of the stock has been held by a great many stockholders. Soon after the stock began its wonderful aerial flight these minority stockholders began unloading, and each case the persons who bought this purchaseable stock were James Moore and his brother. Most of these purchases were not cash purchases, but on account, some of them running thirty and some sixty days. Margins of 5 per cent were given, and in this way at least $2,000,000 worth of the stock was bought. Two banks in Connecticut, one in Bridgeport and the other in Hartford, were the holders of the stock as trustees. As the stock fluctuated in value or the time limit for purchase expired more margins had to be deposited. In this way not less than 60 per cent on the par value of the stock was paid. All this the Moores paid without flinching, but, in the long run, the stock became, notwithstanding its extraordinary intrinsic value, a frightfully heavy load to carry. At last the two brokers were substantially the only prop to the big enterprise. The result was inevitable, and the crash followed. And thus it happens that to-day, while the Moores, the financial genii of this colossal enterprise, are losers to the tune of $5,000,000 or $7,000,000, the numerous minority stockholders are the winners, for they have been the beneficiaries of the margins paid and their stock is still theirs although held in trust.

IT WAS A DEFEAT.

House of Lords Antagonizes the Government.

London, Aug. 6.—In the house of lords that body to-day by a vote of 25 to 19 inserted a clause in the Irish laborers' bill which the government resisted as it would endanger the passage of the bill in the house of commons. The defeat of the government caused a stir in the lobby. It has disconcerted the government, which fears that the Irish land bill will suffer considerably at the hands of the Irish landlord peers, among them the marquis of Londonderry, the earl of Winchilie and the duke of Abercorn, whose strictures on the land bill promise amendments in committee which are likely to cause trouble when the measure is returned to the house of commons. After the vote Arthur Balfour, the government leader in the house of commons, had a long conference with the duke of Devonshire, lord president of the council.

Helena, Mont., Aug. 6.—The body of James Anderson, a well known telegrapher, was discovered yesterday in a cabin a few miles northeast of this city. Anderson had taken up a gold claim two years ago and was living alone on it. From the condition of the body it is thought that Anderson had been dead at least ten days. He died of typhoid fever. He had worked in the Western Union office when he first came to this city six years ago from St. Paul. He was considered a fast operator and had taken the press report for some time while in Helena. Anderson had considerable property, it is said, in Kansas City.

Wreck and Explosion.

Shamokin, Pa., Aug. 6.—Two men were killed and another fatally injured in a freight wreck on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad six miles west of here to-day. The wreckage took fire from the dismantled locomotive and the knowledge that on the siding where the accident occurred was a car loaded with gunpowder prevented any attempt at rescue until the explosion occurred. It was thus that the body of Engineer Michael Smock was burned within full view of the workmen. It was pinned beneath the engine and fiercely burning debris.

His Two Children and Throws To Lexow Chicago.

Chicago, Special.—Evidence tending to substantiate charges of police corruption in Chicago is in the possession of the civic federation. A movement is on foot to secure an investigation of the police department similar to the Lexow investigation in New York. Captains, lieutenants, sergeants, detectives and patrolmen, it is said, are included in the roll of dishonor.

MINNESOTA DEMS

THEY NOMINATE JOHN LIND FOR GOVERNOR.

The Deal With the Populists and Silverites Is Consummated by the Democratic State Convention—Places Are Left on the Ticket for the Populists—Lawler, Cutcheon and McCafferty Denied Seats in the Convention.

Minneapolis, Aug. 6. — The Democratic state convention was held here yesterday. Ex-Speaker Champlin of Blue Earth City was chairman. The following ticket was nominated and is in accordance with a fusion deal with the Populists:

Governor—John Lind of Brown.

Secretary of State—Julius Heinrichs of Hennepin.

Treasurer—Alexander McKinnon of Polk.

Presidential Electors — John Day Smith of Hennepin, H. H. Bonniwell of McLeod, Wilson Borst of Cottonwood, Charles d'Autremont of St. Louis, John H. Ives of Ramsey.

There was a scene of wild confusion when the report of the credentials committee was presented, recommending the expulsion of National Committeeman Daniel W. Lawler, F. W. M. Cutcheon and Judge McCafferty, from the Ramsey delegation, on the ground that they had bolted Bryan and the platform. An attempt was made to give Lawler and Cutcheon a hearing, but when they attempted to speak, they were howled down. Both spoke defiantly and declared that while they could not vote for McKinley, they would not vote for Bryan. Cutcheon is to be the Minnesota representative at the gold Democratic conference at Indianapolis. The committee report was finally adopted after a wild time. Following it the platform:

"First—The Democracy of the State of Minnesota, in convention assembled, hereby reaffirms the platform recently adopted at Chicago, and hereby approves its selection of candidates, Bryan and Sewall, for the high offices of president and vice president.

"Second—We further denounce the platform of the Republican party on the all-absorbing issue of the day, namely, honest money. It proposes to favor bimetallism, yet it proposes to submit the question to other leading nations, when it well knows that those nations are solidly in favor of the continuation of the present gold standard. The question therefore now before the people is whether we shall be obliged to remain on the gold standard, with all its destructive tendencies, or whether we shall follow the traditional policy of the United States and hold both gold and silver to be the standard money of our people, freely coined on the old legal ratio of 16 to 1. On this all-important question we earnestly invite the co-operation of every citizen who is anxious for the future prosperity of the country.

"Third—We demand that the policy which for the past thirty-eight years has controlled the legislation of our state and the administration of its institutions and affairs be now changed. Wrongs older than a generation remain to be redressed. No state can prosper which commits for so long a period its affairs to the same political party. We now congratulate the people that this long period of misgovernment is about to end, and that the people are now ready to resume their right of honest government and the reform of all abuses.

"Fourth—We denounce the Republican party of the state for its subserviency to corporations, rings and trusts and its total disregard of the great producing masses, the middle classes, the common people, farmers, mechanics and laboring men. We hold that these latter classes should especially receive the fair and first consideration of the legislative and executive powers of the state. We pledge the people, if given authority, that corporate and monopolistic selfishness, greed and power shall not control our conduct, and that, while we have no desire to strike down or injure in the slightest degree vested rights, we will see to it that the rights of the common people shall not be trenched upon, but jealously guarded.

"Fifth—The ballot is the weapon of American freemen, and the sacredness of the ballot can only be preserved by its secrecy. We unqualifiedly condemn all efforts of corporate or private employers to inquire into or investigate and uncover the true sentiments of the voting employe; thus by a covert threat challenging his vote and neutralizing his influence, and making him tributary to interests which may be opposed to the interests of the people.

"Sixth—The constitution provides that taxation of property shall be as nearly equal as possible. We therefore demand that iron mines and unused railroad lands be required to pay a fair and just tax in the same manner that other property is taxed.

"Seventh—We are furthermore opposed to the struck jury law, and demand its repeal.

"Eighth—We demand an amendment to the constitution of the United States providing that the election of president, vice president and United States senators be by a direct vote of the people.

"Ninth—We favor all legislation looking to the construction and maintenance of good roads in the State of Minnesota."

Struck by Lightning.

Rome, Special.—The Italian armored warship Roma, of about 5,800 tons displacement, was struck by lightning yesterday and caught fire. The flames spread rapidly, threatening to reach the magazine, and it was found necessary to sink the ship by discharging torpedoes at her. She was built in 1865, was of 3,000 horse power, 202 feet long, had a speed of about 13 knots, and carried two 23-centimeter guns and a dozen rapid-fire guns of different calibers. Her armor belt was four and one-half inches and her deck was plated 26 inches thick.

She Scorched Over Him.

Chicago, Special.—An unknown woman, riding a bicycle, ran over William Klink, an aged butcher, at Fifty-first and Morgan streets last night, and injured him so severely that he died from the effects to-day. The woman was scorching, and the old butcher in attempting to get out of her way, stumbled and fell. As he fell one of the handlebars struck him in the abdomen, rupturing one of his intestines. The woman mounted her wheel before it could be ascertained who she was and rode away, leaving the dying man lying on the street.

MINNESOTA CROPS.

How They Have Fared During the Past Week.

St. Paul, Aug. 5.—According to the weekly crop bulletin of the Minnesota weather bureau, "the week has been warm and showery, and on the whole favorable for all crops except that more rain is needed over limited areas for corn, potatoes and pastures. Corn, however, continues making excellent progress and is earing well. Wheat has deteriorated somewhat, owing entirely to insect ravages that are now beginning to show a decrease. They have been most injurious in the west central counties and in the southeast corner of the state. In the latter district army worms and chinch bugs have caused the most damage, while in the west central counties it is the Hessian fly, weevil and maggot not yet named. The wheat and oat harvest is well advanced, and cutting has begun as far north as Norman county, while in the south stacking is under way. But few counties report prospects of average yields, and most of them do not expect much more than half a crop. Oats are more promising, and it is expected will yield nearly the usual amount. Barley yields are considerably less than last year, but the quality of the berry is a good deal better. Flax is turning brown and some of the earliest is being cut. The crop is quite uneven, but has greatly improved during the last few weeks. Army worms injured some flax fields in Winona county, which is a crop they seldom touch. Late potatoes must have more rain to maintain their growth, and their condition is already becoming spotted, being best where rains are most frequent. Haying continues, and a bumper crop is being secured. Rye is yielding slightly less than last year.

"Later—Prof. Otto Lugger, state entomologist, states that the insects now so damaging in the west central counties are frit flies, which are related to the Hessian fly, but do not cause so much damage. He is now studying and experimenting with this pest, and later will give out more information about it. The best known remedy is to plow immediately after harvesting, in order to plow the insects under."

HARVEST HANDS.

The Demand Is Greatly Exceeded by the Supply.

Moorhead, Minn., Aug. 6. — The supply of help in the harvest fields will exceed the demand, and, notwithstanding that this fact has been published in the metropolitan newspapers, men continue to arrive here on every train. Along the river banks, on the Minnesota side, as well as North Dakota, camps of men can be seen, some camps numbering thirty and forty men, waiting for the harvest to commence in earnest, when most of them expect to obtain work. They appear to live comfortably, the weather being warm enough for them to sleep outdoors. The citizens have been liberal, supplying the men with meat, bread, etc., and for potatoes they raid the patches and help themselves, and while they take what they want of the latter and inflict no injury on the remainder no remonstrance is made. It should be remembered, however, that there is a limit to even a good thing, and the late comers may not fare as well as those who have come somewhat earlier. So far the men have given little trouble, and in consideration of this, the citizens of Moorhead, as well as Fargo, have felt disposed to assist them in the way of giving them something to eat at least.

Hottest in Five Years.

St. Paul, Aug. 6. — Yesterday was not only the hottest day of the season, but only once in the last five years has the mercury in St. Paul thermometers climbed to 100 degrees, the point reached yesterday. In addition to this the storm of Monday night broke all St. Paul records, both as regards rainfall and velocity of wind. At 7 o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer registered 73 degrees, and from that time the mercury gradually climbed the glass until it reached the 100 mark at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Only once in the last five years has St. Paul had such hot weather, and that was in July, 1894. Last evening the maximum was 92 degrees.

Took to the Woods.

Kenyon, Minn., Aug. 6.—Fred Quimby was taken before the probate judge at Red Wing and pronounced insane, and from there Sheriff Lundquist accompanied him to the Rochester insane hospital. He had left his farm near Webster, S. D., in the spring after the crops had been put in. He left horses and cattle in the barn and came away without telling any one. The stock was nearly famished with hunger when found. Since he has been here he has built a "tepee" in the woods and lived more like a wild man. On several occasions he has threatened to do damage, so it was thought safest to confine him.

St. Paul, Aug. 6.—E. H. Horr, for some time agent at Minneapolis for the Omaha road, has resigned to accept the position of general manager of the Brainerd & Northern Minnesota railroad, with headquarters at Brainerd. This position was left vacant by the resignation of O. O. Winter, who was appointed assistant general superintendent of the Great Northern.

Red Wing, Minn., Aug. 6.—A fairly well dressed man, said to be from Massachusetts, about forty-five years old, was found dead this morning under the approach to the high wagon bridge on the Wisconsin side. He had failed thirty feet, having evidently been robbed and thrown from the bridge. The man went over from Red Wing last night. He was sober and had some money. His name was John Blake.

Probably Held Up.

Bismarck, N. D., Aug. 6.—John Garrett, employed as a church janitor, was found in the street late last night in an unconscious condition. His head is badly bruised and appearances indicate that he was held up by highwaymen. He has not regained consciousness, and fears are entertained that the injuries will prove fatal.

Henry C. Caren was appointed receiver for the property of Dunden & Bergen, lumber merchants at Columbus, Ohio.

Liked Cleveland.

London, Special.—The Chronicle publishes an account by Hodgson Pratt on his recent visit to the United States, in which he says he was charmed with the kindness shown him wherever he went, and that he found President Cleveland equally cordial and gracious. "President Cleveland," he says, "expressed himself most warmly on the subject of Anglo-American arbitration but he told me that he thought it was best not yet to enter upon larger abstract questions of tribunals for all nations."

Defaulter Captured.

Fayetteville, Ark., Special.—A deputy sheriff from St. Louis arrived last night with requisition papers for Geo. L. Thompson, the defaulting cashier of an oil refining company. Thompson is said to have fled from St. Louis a year ago, a defaulter to the amount of $30,000. When the St. Louis officer arrived Thompson had fled.

Thumped the Unspeakable.

Athens, Special.—A large body of Mussulmans, supported by Turkish troops, engaged in pillaging the Adomati district of the island of Crete, have been attacked by a force of 1,500 insurgents. The latter drove the Mussulmans and the Turkish troops out of the district referred to and inflicted serious loss upon them.

Not So Grand as He Seemed.

Portland, Or., Special.—George McConnell, grand keeper of records and seals of the Knights of Pythias of Oregon, has disappeared and his accounts with the order are about $2,000 short. It is said he has gone to his former home in Canada.

A reception was given Senator Dubois and Congressman Willson at Boise City, Idaho, yesterday, followed by a torchlight procession and an open air meeting in the court yard.

Mrs. C. A. Outcalt, an old lady of sixty-five years, accompanied by her son of forty years, were on their way to Chatfield, and while going down hill the team ran away. Fire destroyed the Gray mill on Rice's Point at Duluth. The loss was $50,000, insured for $34,000. Of the insurance $4,500 was on the building and $29,500 on the machinery. This mill belonged to the Rist A. Gray estate and was running night and day under a lease by J. B. and G. F. Stevens, who were running on contract for the Cranberry Lumber company. Last year the mill cut 28,000,000 feet, which was a little less than its full capacity. There is 15,000,000 feet of this season's cut on the docks. It is improbable that the mill will be rebuilt, as the Gray estate is involved in litigation.

LAST DAYS OF POMPEII.

It Will Be Produced at St. Paul, Minn., During the Encampment.

One of the features of the G. A. R. encampment will be the grand pyrotechnic display known as the "Last Days of Pompeii," which was produced at the world's fair and has never been seen elsewhere in its perfection except at Manhattan Beach, N. Y. The management of this spectacle has been induced to place it here during encampment week. It is said that it requires twenty cars to transport the scenery and apparatus used in giving the display. The story of the "Last Days of Pompeii," as graphically described in the last chapters of Lord Lytton's celebrated book, is wonderfully and vividly brought out in this realistic work. It is a matter of congratulation that visitors to St. Paul that week may be permitted to see it.

Encampment Rates.

Inquiries are frequently received at Grand Army headquarters in St. Paul about railroad rates for the encampment from points in the Northwest. This information can be obtained from local agents. In most cases the rate will be one fare for the round trip. The time limit on tickets, when sold, will be fifteen days, but the time may be extended to Sept. 30 by depositing tickets with the joint agent in St. Paul before Sept. 10. These half-fare tickets from Northwestern points will be sold for trains arriving in St. Paul Monday, Aug. 31, and Tuesday, Sept. 1. This is the general plan for encampment business that Northwestern roads expect to observe.

WHAT IS OSTEOPATHY

THE SCHOOL OF WHICH THE SCIENTIFIC WORLD IS TALKING.

Remarkable Work Performed by the New Science — Some of Its Prominent Business Men of Minneapolis Interviewed by the Times.

The Minneapolis Times in its issue of Sunday, July 19th, reviews the new science of osteopathy in an article three columns in length, under the above caption. The article contains much of the same ground as those that have appeared in the daily papers recently describing Osteopathy as a magazine. It goes further, however, organized for the purpose of treating diseases of different kinds by the method and educating gentlemen and ladies in the science. The writer gives an interesting account of the methods employed in teaching anatomy and physiology, on which the science is based, and then gives several interviews with such prominent citizens of Minneapolis as Mr. W. H. Dunwoody, the large dry goods merchant; Mr. Anthony Kelly, Mr. George E. Higgins, wholesale grocers; Mr. John C. Oswald, Mr. Theodore Hamm, wholesale liquors, and Mr. Frank W. Greaves, wholesale tailors' supplies. On account of the high standing of these gentlemen we give their interview in full for the benefit of those who desire to investigate the science.

Mr. R. B. Goodfellow said in response to The Times' question as to his personal experience he had with Osteopathy: "I cannot say enough of Dr. Pickler and Osteopathy. From an experience in my own family I consider Osteopathy little short of marvelous. One of my family had a case of very painful rheumatism and has been a sufferer for years. I had spent hundreds of dollars in treatment under the best advice, with no relief. I was induced by friends to try Mr. Pickler and was truly astonished and more than pleased to find after a short course of treatment that a perfect cure resulted. I should be glad to recommend anyone suffering as I did to investigate."

Mr. Theodore Hasting, manager for Mr. J. C. Oswald, was also a witness in case of my son was a very painful one. To her eye years ago she received a foot skating fall and hurt his spine. In spite of the services of the very best physicians the curvature was very marked and it did not require a physician to have detect it. I consulted the best of advice, and was told that the operation of either New York or Boston, to some very celebrated specialists, might relieve. He would have to be gone four or five years and be put in a plaster cast on a bed of leather and steel harness. And almost nearly all the months he was at home with that harness some told me of Mr. Pickler and his sympathy. I had little faith in any such treatment and was astonished to see both a gentleman and a lady. Mr. Pickler He did not urge me to leave my son, but said he could benefit him. After considering the matter, I let him have his wish. I was astonished at the much further could hurt the body, and the pains were much less, and the pains were much less, and the pains were much less

McKINLEY & MORRIS CLUB FORMED.

Nearly Two Hundred Members Secured in Thirty Minutes—Great Enthusiasm Prevails.

When Hon. Stivers, of the Journal, predicted on the streets that not fifty members would be secured for a McKinley and Morris Club, he evidently allowed his free silver enthusiasm (at so much an ounce) to get the better of his judgment. And if he had been at the municipal court room on Tuesday evening while the club was being organized, he could readily have seen why it is that a club with 10 times fifty members will be secured. As it was one hundred and sixty-seven men walked up and asked the privilege of signing their names as fast as it could be done, and accompanied the act with such remarks as would indicate that their zeal for the cause of honest finance would grow until an overwhelming victory was secured in November for McKinley and Jonas Morris.

The meeting was called to order by Mayor Halsted, who read the call and stated the object of the meeting and dwelt upon the necessity of organization. On motion Mr. Halsted was elected temporary chairman and F. W. Wieland, secretary. The following declaration of principles were suggested by Judge Chipperfield, and were on motion, adopted:

We, the undersigned, believing in the principles of the republican party as enunciated in its platform adopted at the national republican convention at St. Louis, on which Mr. McKinley was nominated for president, and Garrett A. Hobart for vice president, which principles were re-affirmed at St. Cloud, July 16th, 1892, at which time Judge Page Morris was nominated for congress for the 6th district, do hereby pledge ourselves to support the nominees above mentioned, and to use our best endeavors to promote the best interests of said party and its nominees, and to that end, do hereby associate ourselves together, as a club to be known as the McKinley and Morris Club, of Brainerd.

An opportunity was then given for all who desired to sign the above declaration of prnnciples, with the result, as stated above, that 167 names were obtained. While the signing was in progress, A. F. Ferris moved that a committee of five on by-laws be appointed by the chair to report at a meeting to be held one week from that time, which was carried and the chairman announced the following gentlemen as members of the committee: A. F. Ferris, J. N. Nevers, W. A. Fleming, C. E. Chipperfield, and A. E. Pennell.

It was moved and carried that the chair appoint a committee of three in each ward to solicit members, and the chair selected the following gentlemen:

First Ward—Wm. Erb. R. J. Hartley H. G. Trommald.

Second Ward—S. H. Parker, J. C. Davis C. A. Albright.

Fifth Ward—H. H. Paine, Dan. Doran, Wm. Dodd.

Motion was made and carried that when the meeting adjourn that it be until Tuesday, Aug. 11th, at such place as the chair may direct, to be announced through the newspapers. After some discussion of the situation the meeting adjourned. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and there was an evident determination on the part of everybody to do all in their power this fall to save the country from the false and vicious theories of the mob that has obtained control of the Democratic party. All seemed to recognize that the fight this fall will be one involving the honor of the nation, and are determined to take no chances but give the common enemy such a drubbing as will last a lifetime.

Chairman Halsted has called the next meeting for Tuesday evening, Aug. 11th, at 8:30 o'clock, at Peabody & Baker's Hall.

Democratic County Convention.

A democratic county convention to select delegates to state, congressional and legislative conventions was held at the court house on Saturday last. Only four wards of the city and three outside precincts were represented, but this is a large showing for democracy, as it is usually hard work to find enough democrats in any precinct to represent it. Dr. Hemstead was chosen chairman and J. F. McGinnis secretary. After organizing in the usual way the convention got down to business, and passed the following resolution.

It is hereby declared to be the sense of this convention that all Democrats and bimetallists should give their earnest support to the platform and the nominees of the Democratic national convention. recently held in Chicago.

It is further declared that this convention favors the nomination of Hon. John Lind for governor, and Hon. Chas. A. Towne for congress.

Delegates were then selected as follows:

State Convention—H. C. Stivers, J. F. McGinnis, Jerome Kelleher, Dr. W. Hemstead and J. M. Elder.

Congressional Convention—W. P. Buckley, Timothy Toohey, W. A. Prentice, H. C. Stivers, M. J. Reilly and Jerome Kelleher.

Legislative Convention—Dr. W. Hemsteed, J. F. McGinnis and Timothy Toohey, and such others as are necessary to fill the delegation, to be selected by the three already named after which the convention adjourned.

Bro. Stivers' "infloocence" was felt in every proceeding of the convention.
