Common course next Monday. Means will change the course of the people against the plutocrats at $1,000 a night.

Gen. Wetzel now engaging in the pleasant past time of boring his Ohio captives.

The coal and wood men of the Northwest are evidently in league with the weather bureau.

The log out on the upper Minnesota this year will not exceed last year's. This is due to the fact that only one-fourth of the cut is left.

In the light of the result of the recent election, no wonder Gen. Stevens wanted to sell his Minnesota silver mining stock for a song.

Is it the southern states with two exceptions, South Carolina and Arkansas, the Republicans vote is increased this year. The total gain being over 50,000.

News from the top of the Journal editorial this week. Mr. Stivers' initials H. O. ought to be reversed and read H. O. Stivers.

Is the weather of the past week an indication of what we may expect this year in the Minnesota? Minneapolis is praying for a January thaw.

They now claim that the quotation "upon the gods would destroy they first make man" should read "upon the gods would destroy they first make populus"—as in the case of Charles Town.

The vote for sheriff of Anoka county at the recent election was a tie between the two candidates, and an election has been called to settle the matter.

All the miners on both the Vermilion and Mesaba ranges are now at work after a year's idleness. They probably think conditions have been improved since they are through with it.

Word comes from Duluth that Chas. A. Towne will not contest the general election next year.

The editor of the Minn. "Populist" has declared that the paper is not a party organ and declares that the paper is not a party organ.

The St. Paul Dispatch has won the first round in the fight brought against it by C. A. Towne, Charles Oberly and the other members of the board of directors.

Nowhanding the extreme cold of the week last, a goodly number of members and some visitors were out to the regular business meeting.

A communication from the state board of directors was read and approved.

Mr. C. J. Voss had proposed a resolution to appoint an agent to represent the party in the coming year.

The matter of re-appropriating the legislative districts of the state at the coming year's session was discussed.
