MINNESOTA

Some of our happiest moments are spent in air flights.

A vegetable never looks as well as the one that has been raised in the open air.

You can't grow in a greenhouse all the year around. This ought to be a striking illustration for Dr. Lyman Abbott.

The entire system of the Pennsylvania railroad now carries its freight free. One by one they adopt the inevitable.

Young people, especially in the Milwaukee valley, are now sitting up at night watching for a meteor. At least that's their excuse.

The year has been a very sickly one, but the colleges are turning out large spring reinforcements for the doctors. We shall now have a more plentiful supply of the fight against disease.

As Senator Weaver and C. Huntington, two millionaires, state that they will go to Africa and buy ivory and other goods to sell in the States, that everybody has sufficient means to go to Africa and buy ivory and other goods to sell in the States.

Some of the leading jewelers are busy among their customers, and are selling a lot of fine jewelry for the summer season. It is a good sign.

It is an honor "good form" for the members of the Chicago woman's club to wear white and pink dresses on the occasion of their annual meeting.
