CLOTHING AND SHOES

The large wholesale Clothing House of Henry W. King & Co., of Chicago, very suddenly has decided to close out and quit business, on account of the death of Mr. King a couple of months ago, whose will stipulated that the business must be wound up at once. This firm claimed the distinction of being the largest clothing manufacturers in the world, doing an annual business of over six million dollars. We have bought a tremendous large stock of fall and winter goods from them at practically our own prices, and as we always sell on the same basis as we buy, we are going to give our customers the benefit. We also have purchased a big line of

Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes, under a similar circumstance direct from the manufacturer. Every item in themselves should be sufficient to crowd our store. Investigation and comparison will show to your satisfaction that the values we offer are far above the ordinary.

The Lumber Subject May Prove a Stumbling Block.

Quebec, Sept. 22.—The international commission met in joint session for an hour yesterday afternoon and adjourned to meet again at 10:30 a. m. Thursday. The adjournment over to day is taken because of the commotion attending the unrolling of the Champlain project, in which the members of the high commission are to participate. The American committee, headed by the arguments of Messrs. Balch, of New York and Fallon, of Ohio, who represent the interests of the United States island fisheries. At the first of the proceedings were held closed doors, but so far as the forest water fisheries are concerned, it is understood that the American and Canadian will agree with little trouble. Both sides desire the better protection of the forest water fish, and no doubt this part of the treaty will readily be discussed.

MINNESOTA NEWS

MANY SICK BOYS.

Fifteenth Regiment Left Nearly 200 Sick.

A majority of the sick boys of the Fifteenth Minnesota who were left behind when the regiment went South Thursday are fast recovering under the constant and tender care of the nurses. Although there are a few very dangerous cases among them, most of the soldiers are in a very weakened condition, and it will be many weeks before they will recover their natural strength. All of the boys are down with typhoid or complicated typhoid of the same disease. When the men are recovering from typhoid they are in a very weakened condition, and are susceptible to relapse. Several of the boys have already been taken sick a second time, as they were about ready to leave the hospital, on account of carelessness and lack of care on their part. The dangerous cases, however, and the doctors think they will all well through. There are a few boys who are now just at the height of their fever and complications might develop that would make their cases dangerous.

OVER A MILLION FOR SCHOOLS.

Minnesota's Gain by Recent Land Deal.

Through a recent action by the secretary of the Interior the state claim for school allotments in the White Earth reservation is sustained, and the state is practically entitled to the extent of more than $1,000,000 in school lands. The matter has been pending for a long time, and in bringing it to a satisfactory conclusion the state secretary has reversed the department to a long line of roll-back. The act of congress granting the state title to sections 10 and 20, specifically provides that its application extend to "all lands not previously disposed of." It has been held repeatedly by the department that the setting apart of a Indian reservation was a disposition of the land within the provisions of the act. The same question has been raised in a number of states, and the secretary of the Interior during each of these states have almost uniformly held that the land is a valuable gift from the government. He argued the case after an adverse opinion had been prepared for publication, but the state secretary, Attorney General Clegg, has taken a strong interest in the case, and it was due to his representations to the department that the state received its valuable gift from the government.
