The Indian War.
The question of peace or war between the hostile Indians at Leech Lake and the government will undoubtedly be settled today. This afternoon council will be held at the agency at which time it is expected the Indians will decide whether they will give up the men wanted by the federal authorities and surrender their arms or fight. Just what the outcome will be is a mere matter of guess work and while it is hoped that the matter will be settled there are those in a position to know who openly express the belief that more trouble is to ensue. Gen. Bacon has every thing in readiness to proceed against the red devils in case they longer defy the government, his teams are ready and he has his scouts in a position to start on a moment's notice. Today's council will be final and if the Indians do not come in Gen. Bacon will wage unremitting war against the rebellious natives until they are annihilated or whipped into submission and it will be no easy task. Mayo's November return from Walker this morning and he says the situation is practically the same as it has been for some days. He is rather inclined to the belief that further trouble will ensue. Ed. Warren who is probably as well posted on the situation as any man is also quoted as saying that he does not believe the Indians will come in and give themselves up and that means a fight. Twenty-five men of the Third Infantry under Lieut. Barker passed through Brainerd Wednesday on their way to Walker. Among them was Frank D. French of this city, who was called in to report for duty Saturday in the vicinity of Pine River near the government dam there are quite a number of Indians, and when the news of the trouble at Leech Lake reached them they were wild. They took their rifles and started for the reservation to help the red devils, and before they departed notified the square men that they had better hide in some swamp for they would come down the Pine River road and kill all the settlers, and they seemed as anxious to get into the fray as they would if on the track of a wounded deer. That the above is true can be vouched for by gentlemen of known truth and veracity, not alarmists, and it would seem that when this trouble over and the Indians rounded up as they certainly will, they should be forced to remain on their reservation where they belong. Indians are treacherous at best, and are only good when dead, and if the authorities do not take some means to keep them in bonds where they will not molest the settlers and destroy their property there will be further trouble. J. H. Hallist, recipient of a letter from W. A. Rose at McGregor in which he states that no Mille Lacs Indians have been seen there lately, and that the Mille Lacs Indians claim they will keep out of the trouble.

Last Night's Meeting.
The citizens of Brainerd had the pleasure of listening to the eloquence of J. Adam Bole and Col. A. H. Herriot at Gardner hall last evening on the political issue of the day. Two years ago Mr. Harris was a supporter of G. A. Towse and free silver but he now believes that it is the duty of every loyal citizen to stand by the administration of President McKinley and elect a congress in sympathy with him and is doing his utmost to convince the unbelievers that the proper thing to do is to return Page Morris to the legislative halls of the United States. His address was well received, Mr. Bole occupied the attention of the audience for an hour in his original style and to say that he captured his audience is putting it mild. His address was full of convincing argument and he handled Charlie Towse without gloves putting him in his true light as the paid agent of the silver mine owners. Mr. Towse has refused to meet Mr. Bole in joint debate during the present campaign and those who heard the latter gentleman last night do not blame him in the least.

BETTER AVOID IT.
If Clothing is offered you and the price seems reasonable, and yet the quality isn't there, better pass it by. It's a waste of money to invest in such. It's the most unsatisfactory kind of purchasing. The satisfactory kind is what we encourage. No other plus satisfies us. The quality must be there. The value must be there. The style must be there. Perfect satisfaction goes with clothing that is the best in quality. There's no other right way. Ours is a store in which quality is the first consideration, followed by prices the most reasonable.

For State Entomologist: JOHN A. LOVELL. For State Entomologist: JOHN A. LOVELL. For State Entomologist: JOHN A. LOVELL.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1906.

The republican county ticket should be elected from auditor to coronator, and it will be.

A. H. FOSTER and Charles Towne struck alike the same night. They are traveling hand in hand.

A vote for the republican legislative ticket means a vote for C. B. Davis for United States senator.

The time for filing nomination certificates expires Oct. 18. Candidates who do not get their names on the ticket on that date will have to wait two years longer.

It is well known that Charles Towne engineered the political trade at the Little Falls democratic legislative convention. Towne and Duckman appear to be hand in hand.

Davis' Mr. Silver's annual denial he is out for office and strategy has been. Some of his warm political friends, however, seem to think he has played them a snaky trick.

Let us now change to a "political orphan." He declares that the money question is not an issue in this campaign, and says he is not a populist and has never thought of becoming one. Lind is thoroughly advanced of his associates.

Do the republican voters of the 4th legislative district imagine that the democratic are endeavoring to elect a man to the state senate who will vote for C. B. Davis for United States senator? There must be a trade somewhere, and in order to avoid any uncertainty in the matter it will be safe to vote the straight legislative ticket, Fuller, Ferris and Fleming.

There will be mighty few republicans in Crow Wing county who will vote for C. B. Davis for state senator. Duckman is fairly hot for the republican nomination and he now needs the election as a fair independent candidate with democratic support. And the democrats who are supporting him are of that class known as "here today and gone tomorrow." The straight party men of both parties will repudiate Duckman of the polls.

HON. PAGE MORRIS.

Hon. Page Morris, our present able member of congress and republican candidate for re-election will speak in this city at the opera hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 25.

These Amendments. At the coming election there are four constitutional amendments to be voted on. The first one proposes that women may vote for jury boards and serve on them as well as vote and serve in school elections.

The second one is to submit constitutional amendments at only general elections, when the law is now silent, and that a majority of the votes cast on that proposition shall be required to adopt. The third is a modification of the home rule measure and proposes that charter commissions shall be chosen for six years and not for life. It requires them to submit a charter amendment to vote on a position of five per cent of the voters, and it establishes, for legislative purposes four classes of cities instead of three. The fourth amendment is the one providing for a state highway system. The amendments complete appear in this issue of the Dispatch and should be carefully read by every voter.

Instead of placing a democrat in nomination at the legislative convention at Little Falls, the democrats left this place open in order to assist a defeated candidate for the republican nomination, and those who engineered the job have had a democrat out with his political aspirations as an independent candidate. The democrats who had charge of the Little Falls deal have openly invited a very honest democrat in the party, and when the polls close on November 8th and the votes are counted it will be seen that the deal has not been overlooked. Democrats are not electing disgruntled republican politicians to office.

As a free coinage advocate at 16 to 1 who says he is for bimetallicism utters a falsehood. The free coinage of silver at any ratio less than the commercial ratio means the adoption of the silver standard, which at the present price of silver would make the purchasing power of a dollar only 43 or 44 cents. Hence a man or woman working for two dollars a day would find the purchasing power of his wages less than one half. The value of all insurance policies, all stocks in building and loan associations, all certificates of deposit, in fact all fixed value securities or monies of every kind except gold would be reduced more than one half. In there, can there be any reason why anyone man who the country again is becoming a proposition, should vote for a proposition so disastrous and revolutionary. This vote cannot be a vote for C. B. Davis. A vote for C. B. Davis means a vote for the silver standard at this dishonest and disastrous ratio. A vote for the democratic nominee for legislator also means a vote for this disastrous proposition, for three representatives have a vote for the United States senator, who has a vote in congress on the question. Vote for Page Morris and Moore, Fuller, Fleming and Ferris, the ablest United States senator Minnesota ever had.

The St. Paul Globe is making a highly excited and decidedly "yellow" attempt to feed the old warden throughout the state, into the belief that the Anti-Estate Veterans' club in Minneapolis is becoming a strong and noticeable cog wheel in the Democratic machine in the Twin Cities. The stimulus of the republican Civil War veterans of St. Paul and Minneapolis—the last man of them—are supporting the whole republican ticket and will vote solidly for Davis for governor in November. There is no man so scrupulous as the solid supporters of Mr. Davis to "capture" the Lind organization, which is a defunct business party on a shaky base in Minneapolis. All the noise concerning a "raid" against Davis means the veterans come from half a dozen gentlemen who are on the salary list, and their organ of publicity is the St. Paul Globe. Veterans throughout the state will take all political statements concerning the position of the Twin City veterans as sustained through the Globe with several grains of salt.

Letter From Manila.

The following extracts are taken from letters sent by Gen. A. Gallegos of 13th Minnesota volunteers from Manila to his relative here:
Manila, August 25th, 1898.
Dear Mother—Manila is divided into old Manila, new Manila and four or five suburbs. The population is over 400,000. The old city is surrounded by two walls 30 feet thick with a very wide moat between them. The houses are all built of stone, two stories high. The lower windows are covered with iron gratings. There are balconies in the second story covered with shutters and screens. The houses are all built together in the form of a square, with a court in the center. Taken altogether they look very much like a prison. When we first entered the city all the shutters were closed, but when the sentries saw that we were not such Indians as we had been made out to be, their heads gradually popped out. Now they have become accustomed to us.

We moved from Malate about a week ago and are now quartered in a building formerly occupied by the guards. After sleeping in a wind and rain we appreciate a dry floor. For the last two days I have been camped at the palace in front of court room, sitting as a kind of deputy. As soon as a prisoner is taken over to the proper prison. It is not a very hard job after what we have gone through. Just the instant I have been told I am not to go to court again, so you see I am out of a job. The insurgents have strained relations with us. We don't think much of them. All the natives are fighting with us. The new papers talk about the insurgents being up. That is all talk. They are not even within a hundred yards of a Spanish block house, and they are not to be seen at all. I am writing you from the house. I am writing you from the house. I am writing you from the house.

DON'T GO IT BLIND.
There is no need to be Brainerd—The Way is almost hedged with Guide-Posts.

Have you ever read a newspaper article, a glowing account of some accident told in glowing words to lead you on and found it ended up with a proprietary medicine advertisement? Made you mad, didn't it? And were you convinced of the merit of the article? We think not because it told of the experience of some stranger in a far away town. To take his word for it was like "going it blind." It's a very different thing when a statement is prescribed from a citizen from people who know that that is the case here.

Rivers who founded the company, continues associated with Mr. Litzky in the business.
