Letter from Kate Dressell.

CONCORD, Wash.,
May 9th, 1899.

Editors Brainerd Dispatch, Brainerd, Minn.

Dear Sirs—Complying with your request to let you know something about this country when I arrive here, will endeavor to give you some ideas as to the same. Vinland is where I am staying at present, and is located about two miles from Concord, the business center, and is the prettiest little country you ever see your eyes upon, mountains surrounding on all sides, the Snake river coming in from the north-west and the clear water from the south meet and join, known still as the Snake River.

Vinland at the time of its organization had less than 75 inhabitants, which was about three years ago, but now the slow but steady influx of immigration has swollen the number to about 2500. The principal industries at the present time are farming, stock-raising and fruitgrowing, but fruit-culture is now fast beginning to take the lead. The low lands, which are not profitable for grain raising, owing to lack of moisture, are being irrigated when convenient and planted to fruit, for every kind from the peach to the blueberries, and grapes here have successfully. English walnuts of splendid size and quality have been grown in Astin county, in which Vinland is located, and these, and also took two first premiums and several seconds and thirds at the Spokane fruit fair last year.

Levaton Water & Power Co. have taken water from Astin creek through 20 miles of ditch and flume, and made a fruitful and fertile body of land in this country, known now as Vinland, at an expense of over $100,000, hence what was known three years ago as a barren waste, known then as Jawbone Flat, which if like the outside country, was but a fitting tribute, for Jawbone is a western phrase for "without moisture." is now dotted with beautiful homes of many people. As its name implies it is indeed a Vinland. Fruit land has been laid out in tracts of one to twenty acres, and is being sold at reasonable rates and on easy terms, which enables any one who desires to engage in the profitable business of fruit growing with very little capital and on a scale that will suit his circumstances, and build for himself a useful as well as an ornamental home. So rapidly are the people taking hold of this proposition and availing themselves of the opportunities that the whole site, 35,000 acres in all, bears a marked resemblance to a thrifty town. Four foot wood is hauled 20 miles down hill from the mountains and sells for five dollars per cord.
This makes a pretty good business itself, and many of the people follow it exclusively for a livelihood. Vineland is located 2,800 feet below the level of the table land through which the river runs. And it is said that here the climate even in winter is warm and resembles that in Los Angeles, Cal. though on the upland the cold is severe in the winter, the climate at present is simply grand, and one would have to look a great ways to find a better, the days being warm and evenings and nights cool throughout the summer. There is another good thing developing here which is an ice and cold storage plant, which is composed of Minnesota capitalists from Duluth and St.
Paul. The capital stock of $100,000 is fully paid up and will commence within six weeks manufacturing ice and furnishing cold storage for the products of the Snake river valley.
The plant is to be located at Vineland and will run a steamer up and down the river to gather fruit, vegetables, meat, poultry, eggs, etc., which they will store and handle on commission. Mr. Charles Francis Adams, the ex-president of the N. P. railroad, is president and owner of the Vinland Township Co., also of the Levaton Water & Power & Irrigating Co., and is doing his level-best to make a city of Vinland and to make it a second Eden. It would be hard to hear said that in five to seven years hence that Levaton will rival in its second Eden. It is fully guaranteed, and comes out in different tracts.
Can be used by anyone.
Put up in 5 lb. packages, at only 50 cents per package.
We also have a fine large brush, the retail price of which is $1.00.
We are selling them at 60 cents to purchasers of CEMENTINO.

It may be an item not generally known that the United States supreme court recently handed down an opinion to the effect that poultry is running at large in all game, and those upon whose property chickens may trespass have a legal right to kill them. If your neighbor's hens persist in scratching up your spring garden, the law will uphold you in killing them.—Aitkin Age.

The undersigned wishes to extend their heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends who so generously extended aid and sympathy during our recent affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. BROWN.

NEW CALENDAR SCHEME

Bundy's Plan For a Thirteen Month Year.

UNIFORMITY TO BE ITS OBJECT.

Author of "What Village Man Divides the Year Into Months of Twenty-eight Days Each—Keeps His Calendar With No Leap at Beginning of the Next Century."

Mr. C. H. Bundy of Marion, Ind., was in Muskego the other day. Mr. Bundy is the now famous inventor of the new calendar which he expects to see universally adopted in 1900. Mr. Bundy, when asked regarding his unique plan for a new calendar for 1900, which is 12 months of 30 days each, said: "When the present calendar was adopted, an error was made which makes it necessary to drop leap year in 1900, that the calendar may be exact with a correct solar reckoning. The history of early calendars is very unreliable, but enough is known to show that they were numerous and incorrect. I have made a study of this, and therefore I have designed and have a copyright on a new calendar which I hope will be adopted at the beginning of the next century."

Mr. Bundy divides the year into 12 months of four weeks each. As 1900 comes in on Monday, and as Monday is the first day of the commercial week, he makes it the first day of the month. The new month is called "Century," because of the time of its proposed adoption—the end of one century and the beginning of another. Under the Bundy calendar the months do not begin and end on different days in the week, as is now the case, greatly to our confusion.

"This new calendar," continued Mr. Bundy, in explaining its features, "will be good for all years to come, dating from the time of its adoption. By this arrangement it will not be necessary to look for or consult a last year's calendar or to compute time to find what day of the week or month a certain date was or will be. Another valuable feature under this scheme is that holidays, birthdays and all special dates will be permanent. This plan gives us a year of 364 days, leaving a shortage of 14 days plus, which may be taken up in Century or any other month which takes an extra day every four years to keep us in line with solar time. Now, for the sake of permanency, why not allow the loss of time to run on until we have enough to make an extra week? My calendar is very simple, equally complete and on a par with standard time. It is practical in every way and abreast with this progressive age."

Mr. Bundy has gathered all the extra days over and above 364 in each month from the present calendar and formed Century, and while he has placed it after December he is inclined to think the new month should be the first of the year on account of the world's attachment to Christmas and its time in solar calculation, but in constructing a calendar for the whole world holidays should be considered last. If the new month is placed as the first, our local holidays will come later, accepting Thanksgiving and Christmas, and if last they will come earlier, but in no case, it is claimed, will the change be serious, as the objection will be almost wholly a matter of sentiment.

Should Century become the first month the first holiday to disappear would be New Year's day. Then comes Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, which is on the fifty-third day of the year now. Under the change it would come the last Thursday in January, which would be the 41st. "But is there any serious objection," the author asks, "to paying respect to his memory on the seventy-eighth day of the year and continue to observe Monday, Feb. 22, as heretofore?" Next comes Memorial day. There being no month with 30 days, it disappears. Now it is under the one hundred and fiftieth day, which, under the change, would be Wednesday, May 10. The present date has been considered by many a little too early, as it is nearly always cool and flowers scarce. The 55th day of May would overcome both of these objections. Independence day on the 4th of July comes on the one hundred and eighty-fifth day of the year. By the new calendar the one hundred and eighty-fifth day would be June 17. Now Thanksgiving comes the last Thursday in November, or the three hundred and twenty-ninth day of the year. The new calendar would bring it on the three hundred and thirty-third day—the last Thursday, as now. Christmas comes on the three hundred and fifty-ninth day now, then it would come on the three hundred and sixty-first day, or the last Thursday of December.

Mr. Bundy is the recipient of many letters daily approving the change. The suggestion, he says, continues to grow in favor and is drawing to its support many progressive thinkers, who say there is nothing in the way of its success but some matters of sentiment. Mr. Bundy is a native of Ohio and was at one time in business in St. Louis, but has of late years been engaged in the newspaper business in Indiana.—Special Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

EVERY WALK IN LIFE.
Brainerd Citizens Appreciate The "Little Conqueror."

Every class of people has sick kidneys. The busy business man rushing through life on the run, fails to realize the constant strain he daily puts on the kidneys. The mechanic forced to assume unnatural positions, stooping and straining at his work, does not know that his backache is simply kidney ache. The clerk on his feet continually, leaning over a counter or desk; railroaders, conductors, street car men, subject to constant jarring, all have backache from the kidneys. Women at their household duties, boys and girls at play, overtax the kidneys and give them more work than they can do. 'Tis a fortunate thing the kidneys warn you when in trouble, that they cry out for help. Don't neglect the warning. Don't neglect a bad back. A weak, lame, or an aching back if neglected means future trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure every form of kidney ail, cure a bad back and make sick kidneys well. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by people we know, by citizens. Words of praise come from all parts of the state. Read what a Brainerd citizen says: Mrs. S. Drain, of the South Street, says: "I feel that Doan's Kidney Pills cannot be spoken of in too high terms. I suffered greatly from my kidneys, the symptoms showing unmistakably that the kidneys were at fault. The secretions from those organs were scanty and nauseous; the aching in my back was constant and exceedingly distressing. When my husband brought me the Doan's Kidney Pills I was much in need of relief. I used them and in a comparatively short time the pain had disappeared and the improvement in my condition was general. The kidneys were quickly restored to health and performed their functions naturally."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Sold by Foster-McMurray Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. and Canada. Beware of cheap imitations and take no substitute. For sale by the McFadden Drug Co., and Johnson's Pharmacy.

A Fine Company.

F. E. Long's big repertoire company is playing a week's engagement at the Gardner Opera House this week to crowded houses. Mr. Long is a veteran actor of established reputation, and he has surrounded himself with a strong company. That they are capable and pleasing is evidenced by the fact that the attendance has increased with every performance to such an extent that standing room is now in demand. In addition to the play new and pleasing specialties are introduced between the acts each evening, and moving pictures, also given between acts, are "pleasing" features, especially the war views. The bill tonight will be "A Hot Time in the Old Town," and on to-morrow night the splendid society drama "East and West" will be presented. A matinee for ladies and children will be given Saturday afternoon. A fine, high grade bicycle will be given away Saturday night, on which numbers have been given to every patron during the week.

The Data Fixed.

The date for the appearance in this city of the Lausie Brobany Ballad and Opera Concert Co. has been definitely settled upon for Friday, June 2nd. This leading attraction has been secured by Co. L, and the proceeds from the sale of tickets, after the expenses are paid, will go to that organization. A large number of tickets have already been disposed of and the advantage of securing tickets early is the fact that all those who speak for them before the board is put up will have choice of location. The company comes highly recommended and the entertainment will be a treat in the musical line. Miss Trebecky is a star of surpassing brilliance and each member of the company is an artist in his or her line, and the Brainerd public can consider themselves extremely fortunate in having an opportunity of listening to a high class entertainment of this kind. Tickets can be secured at M. E. Swartz's drug store or at S. R. Adair's jewelry store.

Successful in a Complicated Case.

To whom it may concern:

I take great pleasure in expressing my appreciation of Prof. Bruns' ability as an optician. After having my eyes treated and fitted to glasses by the best oculists in Boston and Minneapolis, and receiving but little benefit, I was at last fitted by Prof. Bruns, then I realized that nearly all my life I had not known what it was to see, therefore I feel that the highest praise is not adequate to express my gratitude, and I sincerely recommend him to all who need the services of a careful conscientious optician.

Most Respectfully,

Mrs. F. W. CLARK,
Anoka, Minn., April 25th, 1899.

Prof. Bruns will be at the Arlington Hotel May 22nd, 23rd and 24th. Eyes examined free.
