SHUFFLED OFF HIS MORTAL COIL.

Chas. Anderson, a Carpenter of Pequot, Committed Suicide Tuesday Afternoon.

DEED WAS DONE WITH SHOT GUN

Financial Difficulties Supposed to Have Been The Cause of The Rash Act.

Tuesday morning the authorities in the city received word from Pequot that a man by the name of Chas. Anderson was found in the woods not far from that village having committed suicide.

Deputy Coroner Dean went up over a freight to view the remains, and to hold an inquest if it is deemed necessary.

Anderson was well known at Pequot. He was 37 years of age and leaves two daughters and a son. It is supposed that he grew dependent over financial affairs and decided to commit the rash act to end his earthly troubles. He took a large double barrel shot gun in the woods with him and it is thought placed the barrel to his throat and pulled the trigger.

The manner in which he discharged the gun made the suicide all the more tragic. He tied the ramrod to the trigger, placed the end of the barrel to his throat and pulled the trigger. His head was nearly severed from the body.

Anderson was a carpenter and he and his children moved to Pequot from Emmons, Minn., last August. He was stopping at the home of G. C. Olson near Pequot and the deed was committed on the latter's place.

FISTIC ENCOUNTER.

William Kenney of Backus, was Attacked by a Colored Gentleman at Costello's Saloon.

This morning at an early hour William Kenney, of Backus, well known in this city, was in Costello's saloon on Seventh street, and seemed to object to the presence of one Jefferson, a colored gentleman who seemed to be running the place.

The colored gentleman impressed Mr. Kenney with his authority however, even if it had to be done with a beer bottle. Mr. Kenney was hit on the head with a bottle and a severe gash cut, thought not serious.

Wants Complete Survey.

Tim Byrnes, who is back from Washington for a few days, called on State Auditor Dunn yesterday morning. He has been laboring for a complete survey of government lands in Minnesota, and believes that his efforts will be successful. He said yesterday:

"The interior department favors the survey, and the outlook is favorable for an appropriation by congress for that purpose. "There are about thirty townships of government land, scattered over the northern counties, that have never been surveyed. When the work is done, sections 16 and 36 of each town will go to the state school land, and whatever is found to be swamp land will go to the state. The rest will then be open for homestead purposes. Much of it is good agricultural land and will be taken up quickly."

BROTHER DIED IN INDIANA.

Mrs. Frances Lawrence Receives the Sad Intelligence of the Death of Her Brother at Michigan City.

The following account of the death of George W. Curran, a brother of Mrs. Frances Lawrence, was taken from a Michigan City, Ind., paper: "George W. Curran died at his home at 203 West Sixth street, after four years' illness due to Bright's disease. Mr. Curran had been ailing all this time and had been gradually failing until Wednesday, when he took to his bed. He failed rapidly from that time until the end came peacefully this morning."

"Mr. Curran was a native of Michigan City, having been born there on February 22, 1848, so that he was in his 53rd year. He was married there in 1873 to Miss Elizabeth Carver, who with one son, George R., survives. The deceased also leaves his father, the venerable Robert Curran, and two sisters, Mrs. Alice Booth, residing south of the city; and Mrs. Frances Lawrence of Brainerd, Minn., besides a brother Will Curran, of this city, to mourn his death."

"Mr. Curran lived in Chicago for nineteen years and returned to this county two years ago with his family when his health almost entirely failed him. "The funeral occurred from the late residence on West Sixth street the following Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Wilson of the Presbyterian church will officiate and the Masonic fraternity, to which Mr. Curran belonged, will have charge of the obsequies at the cemetery."

An elegant line of the latest frames in all sizes and finishes, including the brown and black finish with gold burnishings; also a beautiful line of the 24 karat gold plate; also the gold powdered, which is the latest novelty.

MARIA A. CARNEY.

EARL MALLORY HONORED.

He is Elected President of Annual Junior of the University of Minnesota.

Spirited Contest.

The following from one of the Twin city papers will be of interest to the many friends of Earl Mallory: "The junior class of the university had a very exciting election when the officers of the annual junior ball were chosen."

"J. MacMartin, a 'hard,' and Earl P. Mallory, a 'frat' man, were the opposing candidates for the presidency. The university politicians resigned supreme, each working faithfully for his man."

"Mallory, the Delta Upsilon man, was elected by a large majority. "The other officers elected were: Vaughn Brown, vice president; Robt. Putnam, treasurer, and Malcolm MacLean, secretary."

"The date for the junior ball has not yet been set, but it is probable that it will take place sometime during the second week of February."

Was a Bugry.

The following from the St. Cloud Journal-Press will be of interest to the members of the local court, Catholic Order of Foresters:

"After borrowing Frank Thielman's rabbit's foot, J. F. Niemi, a St. Paul traveling man and high chief ranger of the Catholic Order of Foresters of Minnesota, attended the home of the Cathedral Ladies' Sewing society last night and won the expensive rubber-throated buggy given to the Young Ladies' sodality by the same body. He is well known here, having been a resident of Brainerd for a number of years. He is the son of Rev. and Mrs. B. Simon, of East Brainerd."

SCHOOL MATTER SETTLED.

The School of the Thriving Little Village of Mankie will be opened on Monday, January 6.

The committee of citizens and Motley school board who were in Little Falls Tuesday to appear before the court regarding the school trouble in that village, came to an agreement without bringing the case to court and the schools will be opened the first Monday in January. It seems that the board were willing to open the school as soon as the quarantines had been raised on the home where the boy was ill with smallpox, and as this would be done the latest part of this week, the date of opening would be the Monday previous to Christmas and the teachers registered a kick for the Christmas vacation. There seemed to be a general mis-understanding among all of the citizens and they secured an attorney and a settlement was agreed upon Tuesday evening and the school will be re-opened.

BROKE HIS LEG.

Man Brought Down from Aitkin and Taken to St. Joseph's Hospital for Treatment.

Wednesday, Samuel Kimball, a farmer living not far from Aitkin, was brought down to Brainerd and taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

He was hauling hay yesterday and tipped over. He was thrown to the ground and the load turned over on top of him. In the meloe Kimball broke his leg in two places. He will be laid up for sometime but no serious complications are expected to set in.

Will Get More Salary.

Northern members in congress are taking an active interest in the movement now being made for an increase in the salaries of rural letter carriers. Members who have studied the subject were originally of the opinion that it would be necessary for action by congress before the salaries of letter carriers could be increased to a figure commensurate with the services performed. It is now announced by postoffice officials that the desired increase can be made by order of the postmaster general, and if it is shown to be the sentiment of congress that increased salaries should be allowed that the postmaster general will take affirmative action. A proposition has been made providing for promotions in the rural service similar to those made in the city delivery. This provides that the salaries shall be fixed at $400 for the first year, $500 for the second year and $640 for the third year.

This morning A. L. Sinclair came in from his farm seven miles south of the city with a white owl, which is as fine a specimen of this bird as was ever brought to the city. The bird weighs five and one-half pounds and measures five feet and ten inches from tip to tip. The bird has been left with Dr. Henstead at the North Pacific bank, and he will have it mounted.

Thursday, the 12th, Constable Hammett arrested Z. J. Fournier, the big cook at the camp, for his up provoked assault and battery of Martin Peterson, and brought him before Justice Garrison, where he entered a plea of guilty to the charges as alleged. Owing to his Washingtonian disposition not to tell a lie, his honor imposed a fine of $5 and costs. This was the law and the dignity of the commonwealth of Minnesota upheld. The probabilities are that nothing could be recovered in a civil process, so the boy may be thankful that he escaped with his life.

Envo.
The figures compiled at the custom office at Duluth and Superior show that the total lumber shipments from the Duluth-Superior harbor for the season which closed last week were $70,204,778 feet, as compared with $24,001,000 feet a year ago. Adding to the shipments from Duluth-Superior harbor those at Two Harbors, the grand total of shipments from the head of the lakes for the season of 1901 was 282,180,776 feet, or 30,000,000 feet more than conservative estimates made at the season's end. The shipments of lumber during the past season have established a new record for the head of the lakes.

STARVED HIS TWO HORSES FOR SPIE.

Martin Luther Brought to Brainerd to Answer to a Serious Charge.

CASE CONTINUED FOR SOME TIME

William Vail, The Complainant, Claims that Luther Did It Purposely.

Tuesday afternoon Sheriff Erickson went down to Crow Wing and pleaded under arrest Martin A. Luther and he was brought to Brainerd that night. Tradition does not chronicle that this Luther, however, is a descendant of the great personage of this name, and his actions the past month do not indicate that he has any of the traits of that great man. Luther was arrested on the charge of cruelty to animals and the incidents surrounding the crime are appalling to say the least. The complainant was William Vail. It is understood that Vail had a mortgage on two horses owned by Luther. Luther's aunt begged for a loan to close the mortgage and Luther begged further time. This was granted, but soon afterwards another procedure was made in the matter and since the papers were served on Luther it is claimed he went as it is literally starved the team of horses. They died a few days ago and it is thought that was nothing other than starvation. Luther was taken before Judge Manion this morning, pled not guilty and his case was set for January 20, at 10 o'clock.

Indian Commissioner James has recommended to Secretary Hitchcock that an investigation be made on the Red Lake reservation, with a view to securing a cession to the government of eleven townships on the western portion of the reserve.

Representative Eddy recently filed a request that in respect to the Red Lake reservation, a preliminary step to having the eleven townships referred to opened for settlement. The commissioner favors the request, but that no action should be taken by congress until the Indians have secured their allotments. He also believes that it is not fair to cede that timbered lands should be included in the allotments. Under the law, the department has no authority to include timbered tracts in Indian allotments on the Chippewa reservations.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

The production of Lewis Morrisson's new "Faust" at the Brainerd opera house last night was greeted by a very good audience, which seemed to be an appreciative one. The excessive cold of the past few days and last night kept many away that would have been present had the weather been better. This was the first time that the new version of "Faust" has been seen in this city and general approval was heard from all sides. The cast was a good one throughout and the scenery was especially good—better in fact than has ever yet been shown in the production of this famous product of a spectacular nature. George S. Trimble as Mephisto was very good and Miss Francis Paul as Marguerite captivated the audience by her loveliness and particular adaptability to the role. The performance was all good and was seemingly enjoyed by the audience. It was rather unfortunate last night that the curtain was rung up about ten minutes too early, as the foyer was crowded during the first act and the confusion for a short time disturbed those who had taken their seats, but the management assures its patrons that the curtain will rise at the appointed time—8:30 o'clock—in the future.

CHASE-LISTER COMPANY. For the last few days in Christmas week the Chase-Lister stock company will be at the Brainerd opera house. This is one of the best companies of the kind in the country and they are meeting with great success on Manager Walker's circuit. The company has just completed the most successful run at the Winipeg theatre and is this week at Crookston. The first performance will be on Tuesday evening next when they will put on the "Senator's Daughter." The following clipping was taken from the Fargo Forum: "Wicked London" drew a good audience to the opera house last night and the Chase-Lister Co. provided an excellent entertainment. The specialties are the best ever seen here with a superior company, and are changed at each performance." A fine line of genuine water color heads, pronounced by experts to be the finest ever shown, at Marie A. Canan's studio.

BAD ON RAILROADS. Cold Wave has been Delaying Trains Throughout the Northwest. Past Few Days. The cold wave which has swept over the north-west during the past few days has been making considerable trouble for government mail. The north bound, No. 6, has been very late for the past four or five days and has caused considerable delay in the mails. The Twin City papers report that the fast mails with tons of mail are all delayed. Operating departments of the lines feel the cold wave severely. The chilled rails need especial careful inspection, engines steam badly and in spite of all attention. Coal consumption of locomotives, an operating official says, has increased from 8 to 10 per cent.

Salaries of Teachers. The statement compiled by J. W. Olson, state superintendent of public instruction, on state high schools for the year ending July 31, 1901, shows a slight decrease in the average salaries of all those employed in high school work as compared with 1900. The total salaries paid high school teachers in the 118 high schools of the state is $303,641. One hundred and ten superintendents receive $136,650, and average salary of $1,256, or $29 less than 1900. Seventy-three principals receive $69,129, an average of $946, $54 less than 1900. First assistants receive $65,436, an average of $654, or $29 less than 1900. Second assistants get $30,000, an average of $372, $1 less than 1900. The average salaries of other teachers has decreased from $555 in 1900 to $524. Miss Canan wishes to announce that she will be in her studio evenings until after Xmas. Everybody is invited to inspect the fine display of art goods shown.
