THE POLITICAL MARRIAGE
As we predicted several months ago, the National "Democratic" Convention at Baltimore has nominated the Cincinnati Ticket—Greely and Brown. The political arena is now open, and the great factions are to play their respective parts in a contest that will probably pass into history as one of the greatest political battles ever fought on this continent. The country, for the first time in many years, now divided itself into two, and only two, political hosts, and between the two parties the people will this year have an opportunity to choose, and hereafter, for a time at least, politics will have gathered its ragged hosts together and resolved itself into two great bodies, one exactly opposed to the other in all things. Although it has been a sorry spectacle to witness the coming together of numerous extremes and estranged political faggots in order to get up an organization that could cope with the great Republican party, yet it has at last been done; Baltimore has sealed the vows, and a thousand weary souls have been made one in political wedlock.

We are glad, and really feel a relief, to know at last who are opposed to us. The way is now clear, and our enemies may be distinguished from all right hereafter. While we fully believe that the action of the Democratic party will have driven many from their ranks and over to the Republican hosts, yet it cannot be denied that from all the disorder that has ensued, a party has been born of no mean pretensions, numerically speaking. The party now in power, and the party that has been the life and salvation of this Republic for the many years of danger and bloodshed, from which we are but fairly emerging, has now an antagonist not to be laughed at. It behooves every member of our party, and every organization belonging to it, to be up and doing, and prepare to route the enemy with all his allies, foot, horse, and dragons. Let the thorough organization that has always characterized the Republican party, be kept up and even strengthened for the onslaught that now looms up before us. Let every township, every school district, organize its band; keep the camp-fires ablaze with enthusiasm; FOR GRANT AND OUR COUNTRY!

The Fate of Miss Helen McArthur.

We have heard a naked rumor that the body of Miss McArthur, so mysteriously disappeared from home two months ago, has been found in the Crow Wing river—that it was evidence she had been murdered; and that three half breeds here were arrested at Oak Lake as the perpetrators of this awful deed. This is but rumor, as we have said.

LATER.—Since writing the above we have been enabled to gather a few further particulars. Several days ago, as we are informed, the parents of the missing young lady, (who reside two miles this side of Crow Wing, ten miles south of Brainerd), heard that their daughter was at Leech Lake, among the Pillager Indians—having been kidnapped and carried off by one of this miserable band of wretches. Accordingly, parties were sent to Leech Lake authorized to ascertain the facts and relate her. Upon their arrival the Indians told them that the girl had never been brought there; but said that two half breeds were then at Leech Lake who had told in a bragging manner that they had murdered Miss McArthur near Crow Wing village on the day of her disappearance, after ransoming her. They also said that after the deed they took her shawl, tied it full of stones, and attaching it to her waist sunk her body in a slough near the place that they had committed the deed, and but a little way from where she had parted with her sister. The parties, upon this information, ferried out the two half breeds and arrested them. They arrived at Oak Lake, on the N. P., with the prisoners on Thursday, and telegraphed to Sheriff Gurrell to come out and get them, and bring them to Brainerd for safe keeping. On Thursday night our sheriff sent out a deputy who could speak the Chippewa language, and by yesterday's train from the west they arrived, and were turned over to him and locked up.

A great crowd of our citizens gathered at the depot to see them, and followed them on horse to the jail, muttering many threats against the supposed perpetrators of this awful deed, the character of which causes one's heart to almost sink within him. They will probably be brought up for a hearing to-day or Monday, and should they be proved guilty we cannot say what may be the course of an indignant and outraged public. This, coming upon the heels of the Cook family tragedy, is calculated to excite the most orderly and law abiding community to take the law of self preservation into their own hands. We hope, however, that they may permit the law to take its course, and if found guilty they will meet their just reward, though we are aware that the perpetration of such a deed in our midst is a hard thing to be patient over. The half breeds are both young and about the same age. At the trial, the parents, friends and neighbors of the young lady will probably be here; and the tragedy, so long shrouded in mystery will doubtless be cleared up, when we shall publish the particulars.

KAH-BE-MAH-BEE.

The Detroit Record says that this Indian, now imprisoned at St. Paul on charge of murdering Mrs. Cook and her children and planning the massacre of the entire family, is deserving of especial notice. And first, we will speak of his name, which is difficult of interpretation. (Allen Jordan and Tyler Warren, educated half breeds, agree that the name implies a sort of ubiquity of character; as Jordan expressed it, he "seems to sit in different places in a row,"—illustrating his definition by sliding along on a bench. In other words, he appears now here, and now there—a sort of "little joker." And we are not sure but that this would be the best name for him.) A gambler by profession (save the braining of women and children by way of variety) he is up to all the thimble-rig and games of deceit for which the Indian gambler is noted. Probably his name comes from this characteristic. When arrested, he was not only engaged in gambling, but was in the very act of playing one of those thimble-rig tricks. The Indians have a game which we will describe: Two gamblers sit upon the ground facing each other, take off their moccasins and place them in a row between them, with four bullets, corresponding to the number of moccasins—one of the bullets being chewed—the game is ready to begin. While a third party beats the drum, or tom-tom, one of the gamblers goes through certain privileged maneuvers with the bullets in his hand, and deposits one under each moccasin. His opponent then with a stick strikes the moccasin which he supposes to conceal the chewed bullet, and if right is credited on a tally stick. He then takes his turn at hiding the bullets, and the first man strikes the moccasin—and so on; and on this simple game they will, perhaps, gamble all day and night, wagering money, guns, clothing, and everything they have got. Kah-be-mah-bee was in the very act of charming the four bullets in his hand, when Tyler Warren and the others laid their hands on him.

SPECIMEN BRICKS.

Mr. Knapp, Supt. of the Manufacturing Co's operations here, placed upon our table some specimen of the first brick made at the Brainerd brick yard, the other day. The first kiln was finished a few days ago, and contained 75,000. Another one to contain 150,000 will soon be burned. The brick we are pleased to announce, far more than satisfied the most sanguine expectations, and are pronounced A. No. 1, both in quality and manufacture. They are smooth, solid, and free from lime, to speak of, and are pronounced a better quality than any that have ever been imported to these parts. This is another highly important branch of manufacture to our town, and the Northern Pacific Manufacturing Co. can hereafter supply the great demand for brick with promptness, and need not fear competition.

CHURCH SERVICE.

By the Rev. Mr. Wood, in Bly's Hall, tomorrow at 10.30 A. M. and P. M. Also, the Sunday school will be changed from the school house to the hall, and be held every Sunday at 2 P. M.

THE BRAINERD BRANCH.

Though a lull has taken place in the operations on the Brainerd Branch, from St. Cloud to this city, we feel fully authorized in saying that it is only a lull, and has not been abandoned altogether; as some of our down-country papers would like to have it. The Pembina Branch must needs be pushed with might and main to an early completion, that the interests of the Company may be subserved. Iron sufficient to push ahead on both branches can not be obtained, and consequently our little branch to St. Cloud must "await its time with patience." Nature, in all her phases, says the Brainerd Branch must be built; thousands of people are beginning to feel the need of it, and the authorities say it SHALL BE BUILT, and that, inside a year. Our busy cotemporaries will please stick a peg here, for we imagine we know what we are talking about.

THE YELLOW STONE COUNTRY.

The Duluth Herald learns from a gentleman who has lived in the Yellowstone country that probably no section of the Union will offer such tempting charms to the settler as will the region around the head waters of that stream. The land is unexplored for its fertility, and the scenery unsurpassed. Indeed, our friend predicts that its lakes, springs and other beauties will make it such an enchanting resort for tourists and pleasure seekers, that all other spots on the globe will sink into utter insignificance.

PERSONAL.

Mr. M. C. Kimberly, the efficient Chief Engineer of the Minnesota Division N. P. R. has been in town a portion of the week. Since his appointment to fill the place of Col. Grew, we imagine his duties must be somewhat arduous. He will spend about half his time on the line between Duluth and Moorhead; and the remainder at Duluth. Mr. Kimberly is physically strong and mentally vigorous, however, and can readily come up to any emergency in his department, and is, without one of the many No. 1 men of the N. P. with whom we commonly meet. They are all good common-sense men, and do not belong to the "Big I and little you" order.

We received a friendly call from Mr. Sam Rees on Tuesday last, the junior partner of the Duluth Tribune firm. Mr. Rees was on a Tribune trip along the line, and interviewed all the points as far west as Moorhead. He reports the Daily in a flourishing condition, which we are glad to know.

Mr. Wm. Doyle, heretofore a brakeman with Conductor Edwin Schofield, running west from here, has been promoted to the conductorship of a freight train. Mr. Doyle is known to be a young man of strict integrity, and those best acquainted with him say the promotion was well deserved. We delight to record such incidents, and wish Mr. Doyle a thousand safe and pleasant "runs."

SHOENBERGER & CUSHMAN.

We take pleasure in calling particular attention to the advertisement of this reliable Duluth firm, to be found on the 2nd page of to-day's paper. They are well favorably known to almost all of the business men of the new Northwest, but any of our readers who do not know them can rest assured that any business they may wish to do in their line of trade can be accomplished in the most satisfactory manner by giving them a call. They are fair, liberal dealers, and up to the times in everything. Don't fail to read the particulars in their advertisement.

MR. EDWIN SCHOFIELD.

We had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of this gentleman the other day. Schofield is a conductor on the N. P., and one of those trustworthy and solid men that it is a pleasure and gratification to enjoy the acquaintance and friendship of. Mr. S. used to be conductor on the Union Pacific Road, we believe, when under the management of that accomplished gentleman and efficient General Manager of the Northern Pacific, Mr. C. W. Mead, and is one of the many valuable men that the Northern Pacific Company is getting together to conduct its important affairs.

BRAINERD DRUG STORE.

This institution, now under the care of Mr. Chapp, has been thoroughly overhauled, and fitted up in a most tasty manner. It presents as fine an appearance as any in the city, and the proprietors have got in a splendid stock of everything pertaining to an establishment of the kind. A well kept neat and periodical stand is also kept supplied with all the fresh and popular reading of the day. See the advertisement in another column.

THE FOUNDRY.

The new Brainerd Foundry is being pushed forward with giant strides, and during the past week the frame work has been erected. Mr. W. F. Bailey, the manager, is a man full of energy, and proposed to be working metal in this important manufactory, a week or two hence. We wish this firm success in this splendid enterprise.

SEVERELY INJURED.

A little Swedish girl was severely hurt on Fifth street a few evenings ago, while indulging in that too common practice of hanging on the rear end of passing wagons. She was swinging on the wagon, and in some way got her leg, through between the spokes of the wheel and her body drawn in between the wheel and the box. Her cries were frightful, but fortunately the team was only walking and the driver was prompt in stopping, otherwise the child would doubtless have been crushed to death. The child was promptly relieved and carried home, where it was discovered that although no bones were broken she was severely bruised in several places. This severe accident should put an end to this practice so frequently indulged in by our little folks, and should be considered as a warning, both to children and parents.

PERSONAL—ERRATUM.

During a day's unavoidable absence the latter part of last week, several matters for our last issue had to be written up by another party, and that party—we know thoughtlessly, but carelessly—made an awkward blunder from first to last of the personal notice of the Hon. J. Gregory Smith and party on the line of the N. P. Editors, like other men, are sometimes placed in a very awkward position before the public by trusting to others, and the item in question succeeded very successfully in putting us in an awkward position, which we regret exceedingly—it being a misstatement very poorly told.

Gov. Smith, who is President of the N. P. with a party of officials, made a thorough tour of inspection along the line of the Minnesota Division of the Road, and we are glad to learn that he was greatly gratified at the rapid progress of the Road, its local management, and greatly surprised at the wonderful development of the country along the entire line. On the other hand, his visit has been conducive of the greatest good benefits, lending a thrill of good cheer to the hearts of all, from the heads of departments and capitalists down to the humblest cottager throughout this great Northern Pacific country.

Gov. Smith was accompanied by his son, and Senator Windom, among the rest, and on their return from the west they arrived at Headquarters here a day or two, when many matters of great importance to the Company were considered, and we dare say disposed of with satisfaction to all. They left here to inspect the L. S. & M. Division.

ON A TRIP.

Gov. Austin and wife, Mr. Moore of the St. Peter Tribune, and several other editors and dignitaries passed to the west on Tuesday last, on a visit to the river within whose banks up river is down south, and down river, up north, with a view to spending a few days of the heated term amid the beauties lying immediately west of us. They could not have chosen a more delightful path.

THE PAPERS WEST.

Within the past few days two papers west of us have made their first issue—the Red River Gazette, at Glyndon, and the Red River Star at Moorhead. At least "they say so," though we have not yet seen a copy of either. We would see them both, and hope they have not respectively out of our acquaintance since victory has perched upon their walls. Detroit has also got an excellent newspaper in the Detroit Record, which reaches our table occasionally and is a welcome visitor.

P. S.—Since the above was in type we have received No. 1 of the Red River Star. W. B. Nickles editor and publisher, and must say we are highly pleased with its appearance, and the evident ability with which it is edited. Live, fresh, full of local matters, it is to be an institution of incalculable value to that wonderful town, Moorhead. May it have a prosperous and long life; may the citizens of Moorhead know what is to their interest, and give it a wholesome, liberal support, and may its editor grow fat in pocket; to grow fat physically, though, is out of the question with Nickles, however much we might wish it, for he is an OLD NACHELOR—but one of the best fellows of that class we ever met. We welcome the Star to our table; long may it twinkle.

The Duluth Herald says: "We learn that the N. P. Company are making arrangements to let still another division (the Montana) of their road. The work on the Dakota Division is progressing so rapidly, that they feel no hesitancy in letting out an additional division. The contractors on the Dakota Division are pushing not only the grading, but also the track laying, and trains can now go 13 miles beyond Fargo."

STEAMER POKAGOMA—EXCURSION PARTY.

Captains George Houghton and A. R. Russell, left Aiken on their regular July trip to Pokagomo Falls yesterday. They will return the last of next week. It has been suggested among our citizens that a party of ladies and gentlemen of Brainerd charter her, on her return, to make an excursion trip to Pokagomo Falls and back, calling in Sancy Lake on her way back, sailing all around it, and giving the excursionists a seven days' trip through a country that no white woman ever saw, at least, and but comparatively few white men. The boat, for the seven days' trip, will be furnished and manned by the gentlemen above named for about $200—the excursionists furnishing their own provisions for the trip. It is proposed to get up about fifteen or twenty couples, which would bring the expense down to a mere trifle, when considering the great extent of the trip and besides the great benefits to be derived by all the participants. Such a trip into the romantic depths of the country on the upper Mississippi would be a treat in pleasure never to be forgotten. A splendid dining hall would accompany the expedition, and the craft would be entirely occupied had controlled by the passengers.

We received a dispatch on Thursday evening from Capt. Houghton, asking us to let him know by telegram on his return to Aiken, as to the progress of the party, and if made up by Thursday next he would place his boat and crew at their disposal. Hence, parties wishing to register themselves and ladies for the trip, had better report to us at the Tribune office so that we may be able to communicate with Captains Houghton and Russell on their return. Particulars will also be given in regard to the details of the excursion.

MISS NELLIE GRANT—CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN HER AND QUEEN VICTORIA.

The San Francisco Chronicle has received, through private sources, a letter written by Miss Nellie Grant to Queen Victoria, previous to her recent visit to Windsor Palace. It reads as follows:

LONDON'S HOTEL, May, 1872.

MY DEAR LADY AND QUEEN—I am embarrassed at the honor of an official request, given through a high officer (your Lord Chamberlain, I think), to be presented to your Majesty. I should dearly love to see you that I might tell my father and mother that I had seen them honored. I am but a simple American girl. That I am the President's daughter gives me no claim to your recognition as a sovereign. If with the kind lady who is acting as my chaperon, I might visit you, I should be very glad. Our Secretary of Legation hints at some political significance in this opportunity. I cannot so interpret it, and would not wish to be so received, because I am nothing in American politics, and I am sure that my father would not desire me to appear other than as my single and very humble self. If with this explanation, your Majesty will allow me to visit you, I shall be greatly honored, and be very glad.

I have written this note of my own notion, and because I think it the right thing to do. I am your Majesty's very obedient servant and admirer.

NELLIE GRANT.

The reply betrays a spirit which does more honor to the British Queen than multitudes of other actions for which her subjects have loudly applauded her.

WINDSOR CASTLE.

MISS NELLIE GRANT to have instructed lady—(to convey to you this note, and we shall receive you as the daughter of your honored parents without the intervention of our high officers of State. I shall accept your visit as an "American girl," and there shall be no other significance in the fact, than your kindly expressed desire to see the lady and not the sovereign. I shall find it pleasant to forget that I am Queen in recalling you to-morrow afternoon on our palace of Windsor.

ELFELT'S, ST. PAUL.

Any of our readers, whether male or female, when visiting St. Paul, should not fail to visit Elfelt's magnificent dry goods house, 162 Third Street. Mr. Elfelt is one of the oldest, most reliable and enterprising dry goods men in the State, and is honorable in all his business transactions. He always has the latest novelties in the trade, and no one, particularly the ladies, can fail to be greatly interested in his establishment.

ICE CREAM SALOON.

A first-class ice cream saloon has been opened on Front street by a couple of the world's ladies of our village. They propose to keep constantly on hand an excellent quality of ice cream together with cake of all kinds, and other little nick-nacks of delicacies. We doubt not they will be well patronized during the hot term, in particular.

NOTICE—J. C. WALTERS.

Mr. Walters left for the western country on Thursday last, looking after his important business interests in that direction. He will probably be absent 10 days, during which time Mr. Tuttle will be in charge of his establishment here, and is authorized by Mr. Walters to transact all business, collect, receipt for money, etc. the same as though he were here himself. This statement is made by authority of J. C. Walters, wholesale liquor dealer, Brainerd, Minn.

THIRD DISTRICT REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONAL CONVENTION.

A convention is hereby called to be held at St. Paul on the 13th day of July...

OUR PUBLIC MEN.

Jefferson died comparatively poor; indeed, if Congress had not purchased his library...

Madison saved money and was comparatively rich. To add to his fortune, however, or rather to that of his widow...

James Monroe, the sixth president of the United States, died in New York so poor that his remains found a resting place through the charity of his friends.

John Quincy Adams left some $50,000, the result of industry and industry. He was a man of method and economy.

Martin VanBuren died very rich. Throughout his political life he looked out for his interest. It is not believed that he ever spent thirty shillings in politics.

Daniel Webster squandered a million in his life, the product of his professional and political speculations. He died leaving property to his children and debts to friends.

Henry Clay left a handsome estate. It probably exceeded $100,000. He was a prudent manager and a scrupulously honest man in all his transactions.

James K. Polk left about $150,000; $50,000 of which he saved from his Presidency of four years.

John Tyler left $20,000. Before he reached the Presidency he was bankrupt. In office he husbanded his means and then married a rich wife.

Zachary Taylor left $150,000. Millard Fillmore is a wealthy man and keeps his money in a strong box. It will not be swallowed up in speculation nor squandered in vice.

Ex-President Pierce saved some $40,000 from his term of office.

Here is a painful story of a clergyman, J. T. Harcourt by name who died in the Tarrifville (Conn.) almshouse recently. He was over 70 years old.

He was forced, 16 years ago, by the failure of his voice, to give up preaching; but he obtained a commission as a co-porter, working for 14 years at a salary of $200 a year.

Becoming too feeble for this, he tried to live by selling books. This failed, and he found himself in Middletown without friends or money.

With some difficulty he got into the poorhouse, as he had no legal residence in the town. He seems to have been rather harshly treated, and finally he was carried to Tarrifville as a State pauper.

Well his troubles are over now.

The dog census of the United States is put down at 21,000,000. At a moderate computation each animal costs $8 a year, making a total of $168,000,000.

Of the number upwards of 100,000 go mad annually, and bite about 10,000 people. On the whole, the crop cannot be said to pay.

One hundred and ninety thousand quarts of strawberries arrived in Jersey City one day last week.

MINNESOTA NEWS.

Nicolas Henri, of Otter Tail county, has been arrested for selling liquor to Indians.

The wife of Hon. Saml. Mayall died suddenly in St. Paul on Sabbath afternoon.

"Star of the West" won first money, $850, in the purse of $800 at the trotting match at St. Paul July 4th. Time, 2:36.

A man named G. C. Hadley, of Burlington, Iowa, fell over the stair banisters at the Metropolitan Hotel, St. Paul, on Thursday and was killed.

Stephen Bureh, of Minneapolis, attempted to commit suicide on Saturday by taking laudanum. He may recover. Whisky.

Mr Joseph Proctor, of High Forest, Olmsted county, has a pair of two-year old colts, which weigh 2,200 pounds. They are of the French Norman breed.

A six-years old boy, Stanny Baldwin, of Minneapolis, fell from the top of an embankment on Monday, and struck his head on a boulder, causing his death.

Reports from White Earth Reservation state that grasshoppers have swept that country bare of all crops, and the Indians are now busily engaged in plowing, preparatory to sowing turnips.

On last Thursday one hundred pounds of gunpowder did the work for the Chute building at St. Anthony. All that remained of it was a heap of stones and mortar.

The accident on the Northern Pacific west of Brainerd, referred to in last week's JOURNAL, was caused by the expansion of rails. An engine and six freight cars were totally wrecked.

Charles McDonald plead guilty at Rochester last week to having chopped his wife with an axe, and was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary.

An old man named Charles Heston was brutally murdered in the town of Freedom, Waseca county, about two weeks ago. He was charged by John Hoffer, a farmer for whom he was working, with having stolen $20.

Some men seem born to trouble. Last spring Walter Floyd left Illinois and made a homestead in the northern part of this State. After building a house, he returned for his family.

While at McGregor, on his way here, his wife eloped with a paramour. Floyd continued his journey to his new home, but on coming there, he found his house in ashes.

On Wednesday, Mr. Bruce Dickey, of Forest Mills near Zumbrota, started with his wife and child to spend the night at Pine Island and come to Rochester on the Fourth.

About ten o'clock at night about three miles from Pine Island, the horses shied and Mrs. Dickey's leg was caught in the wheel and crushed, so that amputation at the hip was performed the next morning, and she died at 7 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth.

A correspondent, accompanying Prof. Agassiz's expedition, writes to the New York Tribune a description of Robinson Crusoe's Island, and tells how it looks at the present day.

Its shores are precipitous and its surface broken from high hills into deep valleys.

Wild goats—probably descendants of the very goat which furnished a coat for poor Robinson Crusoe in his exile—climb the rugged steep, and vegetation of a semi-tropical type flourishes everywhere.

Boys who are so unfortunate as to have comfortable homes in civilized lands will read with envy that there are twelve people, including several children, living and farming on the island.

The water surrounding it is of the clearest, deepest blue, swarming with a great variety of fish. It is a lovely little island, ten by four miles in extent; still, no boy will sigh to be cast upon its shores when he knows he would bear commonplace hens cackling, and see homely geese come swimming out to meet him.

Als, for the onward march of civilization!

Sixty loaded freight cars, and three of Wagner's drawing room cars, were also burned. Losses, $285,000.

The Chicago Times states that C. A. Morse, the West Madison street jeweler, whose store was recently robbed of nearly everything of value in it, has bought back from the thieves the principal portion of the stolen goods for $6,000, promising not to divulge the names of those with whom he negotiated.

Gen. Sherman and suite, while in the Caucasus, were invited to an elegant breakfast, at which they met a large number of official personages.

When the visiting party came to leave, they were presented with a bill for the breakfast, including all the expenses of every one who was present.

Budd Doble, the driver of Gridsmith Mail, publishes a challenge offering to test the Maid against Bonner's horses Dexter and Jo Elliott best three in five, with weights up and subject to all rules, for from $5,000 to $50,000, the race to take place at Prospect Park or New York course; the match to be open for one week.

The Philadelphia North American says of the Republican platform that it has met every issue of an importance by which the nation has been agitated in connection with the presidential campaign, and those who complain that the declarations are vague and general are mostly persons so bitterly prejudiced on particular topics as to be unable to take a statesmanlike view of them.

Strauss has just addressed a letter to the editor of the leading Vienna musical journal, concerning the Boston Jubilee, and says: "When I consider the grand effect of the fresh voices of the chorus, the splendid orchestra, and the mighty organ, I am forced to confess that the jubilee is a superbly impressive enterprise. And this noble impression results not only from the large masses of performers, but also from the talent and admirable execution with which all the music is executed."

How SHE WAS STRUCK.—The Northfield Standard, noticing the statement that has been going the rounds of the State papers that Miss Belle Durgin, one of the Alleghenian troupe of singers, was struck by lightning while singing at that place, during a thunder storm, says:

"The facts are that the young lady was probably somewhat frightened and went off in a very pretty little train, but was promptly caught in the arms of a nice young man, altogether making an interesting episode in the programme. Miss Durgin however, appeared in the next piece, blushing and decidedly interesting."

THE TROPICS.

The trees shook hands high overhead, and bowed and intertwined across the narrow way, while leaves and moss and ivy and ferns, gold and red, and blue, through all the canopy of green, let not one sunbeam slip between.

Birds hung and swung, green-robed and red, or droop'd in curved lines daintily. Rainbows hovered, from tree to tree, or sang low hanging overhead.

For low, as they sang and slept, and sang, like some far water-fall, and took no note of us at all, though mist in the way were spread. Old crush and crackle as we slept, old crush and crackle as we slept, old crush and crackle as we slept.

The Soul, the mother of deep fears, of high hope and faith; Of glorious dreams, mysterious tears, of sleepless night's flight.

CONTRACT—WHICH IS THE BEST MAN?

The New York Times draws the following contract between the conduct of Grant and Greeley during the war.

Mr. Greeley cried out for submission; Gen. Grant captured Fort Donelson. Mr. Greeley coquetted with rebel emissaries; Gen. Grant captured Vicksburg.

Mr. Greeley lost heart and declared the war a failure; Gen. Grant saved Shiloh and ordered the march through Georgia. Mr. Greeley prematurely shouted "on to Richmond!"

Gen. Grant, in his own impressive good time captured the whole rebel army, and entered Richmond in triumph.

Mr. Greeley fomented sectional strife. Gen. Grant assured national union. While Grant was accomplishing through good report and through ill report, his colossal and magnificent task of saving the union, Greeley was doing all he could to inspire a conviction of the hopelessness of that task, and to dishearten the country with "fanciful doubts and fears."

The Tribune's line in the rear of our gallant army was almost incessant, and entirely in accord with the wishes and requests of Mr. Greeley's confederate correspondents in Canada and Europe.

So far as it was possible to disorganize President Lincoln and his cabinet, as well as the brave fellows at the front, the influence of Greeley and his organ was notoriously strained to the uttermost end.

ADVICES from Otter Tail county state that a company, to be known as the Fergus Falls and Pacific Railroad Company, is being organized to build a railroad from Fergus Falls, via Otter Tail, to the N. P. R. R., and that the engineers will commence the surveys in a few days.

Workmen are having the path made smooth for them, though which they can return to their employment. In New York, the iron foundries offer them their places on the old terms, with the promise of protection from "extremists" while at their work and to and from it. In case of injury, they promise to continue wages and render whatever assistance in their power.

The French have been successful in procuring the evacuation of German troops from their territory but have been unable to secure any modification of the treaty which holds them in its uncomforable grasp.

Germany proposes that France shall pay every cent stipulated for when the latter was powerless to resist. The entire indemnity amounts to $1,244,000,000, besides the crippling of France by the segregation of the tax paying districts of Alsace and Lorraine. In spite of the weight of the burden, that nation is buoyant under it, and, if such a thing as a good and stable government were possible for her, she would soon shake off a debt but little over half the size of our own.

PROSPECTUS. Seven-Thirty Gold Loan. In its First Mortgage Gold Bonds the Northern Pacific Railroad Company furnishes to the public an Investment Security which combines the ready negotiability, the convenience, and the high credit of a first class Railroad Bond, with the Solidity and Safety of a Real Estate Mortgage on Land worth at least twice the amount loaned.

These Bonds, WHICH AFTER FULL INVESTIGATION, WE STRONGLY RECOMMEND AS RELIABLE AND USUALLY PROFITABLE INVESTMENT, AND WHICH NOW STAND PROMINENTLY AS THE MOST SOUND AND FAVORITE SECURITY in thirty years, and the interest (at the Banking House of Jay Cooke & Co., New York,) semi-annually, first of January and July, at the rate of 7 1/2 per cent. per annum—nearly 8 1/4 per cent. current.

1. The issue is limited to $50,000,000. The interest is payable in Gold—the Principal in thirty years, and the interest (at the Banking House of Jay Cooke & Co., New York,) semi-annually, first of January and July, at the rate of 7 1/2 per cent. per annum—nearly 8 1/4 per cent. current.

2. The bonds are a First and Only Mortgage on the Road, its Equipments and Earnings, and also on a Land Grant which on the completion of the road will exceed 25,000 Acres to each mile of track or 500 acres of land to secure each $1,000 bond.

3. They are at all times recoverable at 100 PER CENT. PREMIUM (110) in payment or exchange for the Company's Land at market prices—provision which protects and increases their yearly interest income nearly one-third.

4. The proceeds of all sales of land are required to be devoted by the Trustees of the bondholders as a Sinking Fund to the purchase and cancellation of the first mortgage bonds, or temporarily to the payment of interest thereon, if necessary. This provision will make the Railroad Company itself a constant and heavy purchaser of its own securities in the open market from the time the road is completed, until the bonds mature, or are all bought in. The effect of this will naturally be a steady rise in the value of the bonds.

5. ECHANGING U. S. BONDS.—In view of the ability and exact policy of the Government to sell its bonds at 110, and to substitute a low interest bond, many holders of 5-20s are exchanging them for Northern Pacific, thus adding to their principal the present premium on Government Bonds and increasing their yearly interest income nearly one-third.

All marketable stocks and bonds will be received (by express or otherwise) at current prices in exchange for Northern Pacific seven-thirties without expense to the investor. Pamphlets and full information will be furnished on application.

The Duluth Minnesota expresses so nearly our views in regard to the kind of man the Republican party should put into the field in this District for Congress, that we copy and endorse as follows:

"It would be folly in any one to suppose that the election of Grant and the Republican ticket in Minnesota will go by default as has practically been the case in many of our former elections; but instead, we must anticipate an unusually strong array of forces against us in the field, and it will behoove us to place at our head and front as a leader and standard bearer, no weak or negative man as a Candidate for Congress.

We must expect, and we will see a strong man, strong in intellect, strong in purpose, nominated by the Green party; and because of that fact, it is the unquestioned duty of the Republican party of this District to select the best man to be found capable and willing to assume the leadership of the party during the campaign.

In looking about for candidates, several things are to be considered as necessary in St. Louis County.

First, that our choice is sound in Republican principles.

Second, that he is a man of commanding intellect, and of sufficient importance to command respect in Congress, as well as in his District; and

Third, a true friend of the interests of the lake portion of the District."

FILL THE BLANKS.
Mr. W. M. Falconer, the assessor for this town has left blanks with every property holder in the city, and he requests us to say that he desires to have them filled up by Tuesday next, as he will be around again to collect them in on that day, and make his returns.

He cannot wait longer, and any one who fails to fill out the blank left them by Tuesday, must trust to his estimate of their property—which he hopes will not be the case, as he does not wish to pass upon their property, which would give him much extra labor, and more of a responsibility than he cares to assume if it can be avoided.

JOB PRINTING.

Our facilities for doing every description of job printing are now very respectable, and we are enabled to compete with St. Paul both in style and price. Persons ordering work from a distance should be explicit in their instructions, in order to avoid mistakes of any kind. Send along your orders, for we guarantee satisfaction.

DEAR VS. DOG.

The Fourth street bear and dog fight opened again on Thursday evening last by a brilliant set to. Bruin has been enjoying a vacation for a couple of weeks, and opened up his second term in excellent trim, covering himself with glory for his great valor among the swarm of dogs. He made one dog very sick during his first appearance, and the entertainment was witnessed by about 500 men.

MAJ. WHIFFEN.

Who has been with us a month in the TRIBUNE office, took his departure on Monday last, for his home in Peoria, Ill. The Major made a good many friends during his short stay in Brainerd, and was understood to be a good fellow all around. If he ever passes this way again he will "find our latch string out."

ARRIVED.

Our old-time friend, Mr. R. Parker, late of Nashville, with his family, arrived in Brainerd a few days ago, with view to making our young and promising city his home. Mr. Parker did himself have labored together for many days in some of the best publishing houses in the United States; and for him we can say that, outside of being thorough, straightforward gentleman in the strictest sense of the term, he is a finished typographical artist in all its multitude of branches. We have fortunately secured the promise of his permanent assistance in carrying on our rapidly growing business, and feel sure that we can now fully satisfy the most fastidious tastes in the art of printing.
