Destiny. BY LUCIA MARIE BROOKER. Great marvel that we dare to love To risk our chance for happiness; To love, to love, to love, to love, To all that's sweet and true, To all that's sweet and true, To all that's sweet and true, To all that's sweet and true.

During the summer of '17, might have been observed loitering about the Tuileries a spare, shabby-dressed man, past the prime of life, wearing a cap of his humble garb, an air of fidgety respectability and character. His name was deposed by the Emperor, and he was banished to the island of St. Helena.

A CLOCK WONDER.

At length, however, came a day when, in the Rue de Rivoli, as the Emperor was returning from a review, a pistol shot rang out from a balcony, and the Emperor, who, as he fell, uttered the words, "My God, my God, my God," expired.

THE REASON WHY.

We desire apologies—no! The reason we do not produce a better paper to-day than we do, is on account of an extraordinary amount of work in the job department of our office that has been done at all hours, and the scarcity of help. We have telegraphed in every direction for printers, but can get none. Our present force—including our self—have worked eighteen hours a day for three weeks, on job-work, and even then we have been forced to disregard many, and to disappoint others very sorely in not being able to give our final friends a better paper. But just as soon as we can get help we will strive to make amends. Will that do, reader?

Stad Ween.—Our friend, Dennis McNamney, Esq., having bought in bulk all the mill wood at the River Mills, is prepared to furnish everybody with good dry wood at a reasonable price and promptly delivered. Leave orders at his place, the Brainerd House, Front street.

Personal.—We received a call on Monday last from Capt. J. T. Williams, Special Agent for Minnesota, from Mankato. We have long been acquainted, by reputation, with the Captain, but never had the pleasure before of meeting him. We find him one of the most sociable of gentlemen, but thorough "business" notwithstanding. He earnestly applied himself to the very important duties of his position, and his visit up this way was for the purpose of getting into through running order the mail route on the Northern Pacific, instructing the route agents, and peeping into the internals of our postoffices—all of which, we feel sure, will result to the great advantage of the public along the line. Call again, Captain, on this string is always more than out for all "chick."

Capt. Johns, of Duluth, dropped in upon us on Monday and spent an hour. The Captain is a pleasant gentleman, and off the Greeley street, (upon which we have no fleet he roosts from choice) we think a good deal of him.

Assent.—Our friend, T. W. Knappen, Esq., has been absent for ten days, making a visit to the old homestead in Wisconsin. We hope soon to witness his smiling countenance again among us. Since the absence was in type the gentleman above-named has put in an appearance, looking hale and hearty after his trip.

Hebard, Raymond & Allen.—Don't forget that in ten or twelve days more this firm will have their gorgeous and mammoth stock of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods on exhibition and sale at their new quarters on Front street. They propose to have better goods and sell cheaper than any firm on the line of the road. All who wish Fall or Winter outfits in the line of Clothing, etc. should visit, by all means, till their magnificent stock arrives.

Partners Wanted.—Stearns & Louis, of this city, are doing a driving business, in the house sign painting way, and are over-run with business. They want, immediately, three good painters, to whom good wages and permanent employment will be given.
