Free Fight.
There are twelve offices to be elected in the city government, to be filled on Monday, and there are now nearly fifty candidates before the people—and still more coming. If this isn't a "free fight," then what is!

If not one of our citizens know any needy families in their respective parishes, they will please be kind enough to send me their names. J. C. WALTERS

A Names--To the Voters of the First Ward:
GENTLEMEN: You will be called upon on the 23rd inst., to vote for a full set of city officers. Among others, you see to elect a Justice of the Peace for the First Ward, and at the instance of a number of my friends, I have decided to place my name before you as a candidate for that office. You have a sample of my ability as a public officer, and simply ask you for your support at the coming election. If elected, it shall be my constant study to see my utmost to bring about that change in the existing period.
Hoping you will not only consider this matter, and vote for the right man, I remain, Gentlemen, as ever,
Yours truly,
Wm. HARTLEY.

READABLE NOVELS in Christmas caudles at the New Book Store, four doors east of the Post Office.
Dr. D'UNOON, editor of the Duluth Herald, was in Brainerd a few days ago, on his first visit. The doctor was in a hurry, however, and either had not time to give us a call, or else he thought that a very light dose of Brainerd would be best to begin with. Well, Doc, come again, and come prepared not to be in such a hurry; for we never saw you yet, except by a light, and if you hold good day light, you shall not be held around for our light being so long.

PERSONAL.—We enjoyed a call this week from the Rev. A. D. Williams, of Mitacapolis, who has been spending a few days in our city, looking after the interests of the Baptist cause hereabouts. Mr. Williams will preach at the Baptist chapel to-morrow morning and evening, and extends a warm invitation to all to attend.

JUNOS OF ELECTION.—Judge Hartley has appointed the following gentlemen as Judges of the ensuing City election to be held on the 23d inst., in compliance with the provisions of an act passed by the Legislature in 1872.
First Ward—J. M. Ayer, W. M. Falconer, and N. Gravelle.
Second Ward—T. C. Birva, George Klock, and J. L. Starcher.
Third Ward—E. L. Fowler, T. M. Jordan, Jr., and Edward White, Sr.

That old but good story about the weather, comes in apropos just about this time. It has been very cold during the past week. The thermometer indicated all the way from 15° to 40° below, on several mornings, and hot stores, dry wood, and comfortable clothing, were among the most popular of institutions.

CAPT. EMERSON, whom every one knows along the line, as a first class steamboat, and as the builder of the steamer wagon, left for his home at Selkirk, Maine, a day or two since, in response to a telegram bearing the sad intelligence that his only son was dead, and that his wife was seriously ill. The Captain has the sympathy of many friends here, in his sad bereavement. He expects to return as soon as circumstances will permit.

NEW STOCK OF JEWELRY.—We have had the pleasure of looking over the new stock of goods just in by our friend, E. L. Strauss, Esq., the fashionable jeweler of Northern Minnesota. Mr. Strauss, besides having the established rule of dealing in nothing but the best grades of goods, displays an excellent taste in his selection of jewelry. All the patterns of ladies' and gents' jewelry are of the most tasty and fashionable patterns, and are just as good as they are pretty. He has a magnificent stock from which to select Christmas and New Year's presents, and our ladies and gentlemen are cordially invited by Mr. S. to call and examine the rich goods, whether they buy or not. His line of watches for both sexes, are especially fine, and all goods bought of him are warranted to be just as presented. He also does all kinds of repairing in the very best manner.

TO LET.—Two comfortable, furnished rooms, in a private family. Inquire at A. Hill's office.

A DASTARDLY OUTRAGE.—On Monday night last a shot was fired from the opposite side of the street into the window of the tailoring shop of A. Duffer, Esq., above Wm. Murphy's store on fifth street. The tailors were all at their benches, and it is presumed that the shot was intended to end the earthly pilgrimage of the workmen—Mr. John Wilhelm—who worked in front of the center window. The bullet struck at the base of the window, directly opposite Mr. W.'s bench, but striking the casing, glared off towards the south window, and went diagonally across the room to the opposite wall. A little boy of Mr. Duffer's stood exactly in front of where the ball made its first appearance in the room, and had it not glanced off as above, but come straight in, it must certainly have killed the child. Certain parties were arrested on suspicion, but after an examination were discharged. Other arrests have been made, but we do not know the guilty party has been found.

A Carol.
The ladies of the First Congregational Society desire to make public acknowledgment to the people of Brainerd for the generous assistance and liberal patronage which they have afforded a brilliant one. Where all did so handsomely, we feel sure, and we are confident, that they will be glad to receive special thanks to Messrs. J. C. Walters, Raymond, Davis, Green, Russell, Wood and Swaine, for their contributions and special services.

The ladies of the First Congregational Society desire to make public acknowledgment to the people of Brainerd for the generous assistance and liberal patronage which they have afforded a brilliant one. Where all did so handsomely, we feel sure, and we are confident, that they will be glad to receive special thanks to Messrs. J. C. Walters, Raymond, Davis, Green, Russell, Wood and Swaine, for their contributions and special services.

The children we suppose are anxiously looking forward to Christmas Eve, and
"O'er my eyes now wait to catch God's light, which shines the last."
Well, we have interviewed the old saint, and he assures us he means to leave a few of his good things at this point, and his sleigh is well loaded this year. His reindeer are in no danger of the "epizootic" and as the sleighing is good on the house tops the little ones that he wishes the longest will hear the "rattle and rattle" of the "jolly old elf," as he drives pell mell down the chimney and fills up the Christmas stockings. Old Santa Claus knows just what to do, and every good boy and girl will be remembered and the naughty ones, too, we expect, for he knows how hard it is for small, as well as full-grown humanity, to be good all the time.

RECENT DISPLAY OF ALL.—The most elaborate display of Christmas Goods, the largest assortment in Brainerd, is now on display at the Duro Store; the stock comprises the latest novelties to be found in the Eastern market, and something suited to both old and young, such as Toys, Games, and every thing the stock is full. A most beautiful line of Toys, Games and Perfumery has also just been received, and is especially adapted for Holiday presents. Call and see the sights.

FLORAL MATTERS.—Who says we are too far North to raise flowers! All in Brainerd witnessed the Flower and Vegetable garden of Mrs. Ed. White, of this city, the seeds of which were received from the noted seed-grower, James Vick, of Rochester, N. Y. He issues a catalogue of all seeds and flowers annually, a copy of which can be seen at Mrs. Ed. White's, or at this office. With all due respect to other Seed Dealers, we still advise every one to examine Vick's catalogue and (before purchasing) or ordering from another house. His catalogue for 1873 is one of the most beautiful specimens of the typographic and engraving art, we ever saw, and no one who either raises flowers or has a taste for Nature's fine arts, should be without a copy—it is a grand treat to any one to peruse it.

A NEW ENTERTAINMENT.—Several of our young men, of considerable talent in their way, in connection with two or three professionals from abroad, have organized themselves into a Minstrel troupe for the winter, and have rented Ely's Hall. They purpose giving two entertainments a week during the season, and have organized themselves upon a basis with special reference to furnishing a series of entertainments for the best class of our citizens, and are to be dignified in every particular. The troupe being the best, will be considerably more, they assure us, and will furnish for our people a dignified character of pastimes, whereat the most fastidious may go and enjoy themselves two weeks during the dull season. In being the case we wish the young men success, and hope they may meet with the reward their play deserves. For particulars and plays see posters and programmes.

WRITE FOR THE PAPER.—We ask our friends living along the N. P., as a special favor, to send us the news from their respective localities—anything that would prove of public interest, either at home or abroad. It adds to the interest of our paper, and will help your town, also, as the Tribune circulates far and wide. Don't say, "oh, I don't know how to write for the paper." Send along the facts in the plainest way possible.
Can cut and slash it.
Then, if it won't do—much it.

No PAPER NEXT WEEK.—There will be no regular issue of the Tribune next week, unless something extraordinary should happen—except a supplement to "nav's" legal—because, after nearly a year's incessant toil, late and early, all we wish was a little rest; and take a portion of Christmas week to get it. We think our good patrons will not feel about it, because it is nothing more than right—our office force have voted that we should have a holiday or two to ourselves, as well as others. It is likely, however, that we may issue next Saturday a "baby" number, to give the current news of the week. Job work will, however, be promptly attended to as usual.

DEATH.—We were pained to learn a few days ago of the death of Mr. H. B. Tuttle, who died at his father's home in Hastings, on Wednesday last week. Mr. Tuttle came here about three months ago and established himself in the mercantile business, and was highly respected by all our people, who will lament his sudden death while in the full vigor of manhood, and in the midst of a useful and promising life. He leaves a wife and several children.
