[VOL. 2, NO. 2]

INDIANISM. A dead Indian or two have been lying about the suburbs of town for a week or two past, and it would seem as though our authorities should see that they are buried, or done something with them.

PAU-NEE. - We met Maj. Whitehead in town this week, just down from White Earth, on important business. After sending the troops home from the pursuit of Pau-nee, and his friends, as stated in our last issue, he went to White Earth, determined to pursue him alone.

CROW WING NEWS. - As will be seen by an article elsewhere, the prospects of the Northern Pacific Railroad, the Northern Pacific people, and the Northern Pacific people, are decidedly looking up.

THE CAPTIVE QUESTION. - For several years our Legislature, at each session, has been more or less agitated over the vexed question of moving the State Capitol.

MAP OF MINNESOTA.

We should like to say about as much as possible in an unbiassed dictionary in condemnation of the Indian business, or, in other words, about the Indian policy pursued generally by the government in relation to the Indians.

It is not possible that the party may capture him, although it is not altogether probable, as he is as artful an old Indian as any in the country.

THE GREAT CHURCH FAIR AND CONCERT. - The Rev. Father Keller, the popular and indomitable Catholic clergyman, (whom every one knows well and favorably along the line of the N. P.)

FOR THE INFORMATION OF MANY INQUIRERS living abroad we would state that Brainerd is a little over two years old.

THE POLAND COMMITTEE in the House of Representatives have recommended the expulsion of Ames and Brooks.

There are reservations, or tracts of lands apart, which are called Reservations, for the habitation and exclusive use of the Indians, but instead of the authorities compelling the Indians to stay on their legitimate territory, they are allowed to wander all through the length and breadth of the frontier, hunt and camp where they please among the settlements and pioneer settlers.

THE INDIAN QUESTION. - The Indian matter is a question that has long been a source of trouble to our country, and the Government is continually inadequate to the task, let it say so, and turn the administration of Indian affairs over to the settlers, and they will fix themselves, and fix the Indians accordingly.

THE GREAT CHURCH FAIR AND CONCERT. - There will be all sorts of useful and ornamental goods on sale, a refreshment table, and amusements of various kinds, and a raffle for one of the prettiest bedspreads in the State.
