

Prospects of Future Farming in Crow Wing Co.

The soil of this County, generally speaking is of a heavy, sandy nature, well adapted to the culture of wheat, oats, rye, corn, potatoes, and all kinds of garden vegetables...

It is astonishing what a prejudicial feeling exists with respect to the quality and properties of the soil of this section of our live State...

With a proper course of cultivation I contend that good remunerative crops can be realized...

A succession of cereal crops on the same piece of land, if properly practiced by a large portion of farmers in Minnesota...

Cropping with corn and root crops, deep and thorough cultivation should be thoroughly performed...

Our markets are congested, as the N. P. R. R. is fast-tracking its strides to the Pacific coast...

LECCA made a beautiful speech the other night, in which she gave utterance to the following beautiful sentiment...
