

Enterprise in Business. We like enterprise, and we know of no class of business men displaying more of it than the newspaper publishers of this city. The publishers of our Fusion Paper, Chicago, announce this week in our columns, their Second Annual Distribution of premiums to subscribers. This wonderful Story and Family Weekly has been in its third volume. Its success has been great. It is firmly established as one of the leading weeklies of the Union, with the largest circulation of any paper in the West. Its success may in no slight degree be attributed to its method of distributing premiums which is prominent with every issue held annually. Its distribution last year gave general satisfaction. Their list of premiums is fine and secure to every subscriber for 1873 a premium either in cash or some one of the valuable articles suggested in the list. We desire to commend the paper. These plans of distributing premiums is a notable part of their well conducted enterprise and our readers need have no doubts as to the fact of being fairly dealt with. The paper is a financial success. Its success extends to its publishers who endeavor to offer this valuable list of premiums and to fully carry out their plan of distributing them. See these copies of the paper and permit me to give full particulars, you will be glad to address the Publishers at Chicago.
