"Render Unto Cesar the Things that are Cesar's."

[VOL. 2, NO. 13.]

McMASTER, of the Lake City Leader, thinks we owe his "youngest" a pair of shoes for saying he was a bachelor.

CHAMBERS, of the Glyndon Gazette, thinks we perpetrated an ungrammatical sentence recently.

Our fellow townsman, J. C. Walters, has bought the two young bears from Mr. Keating.

Our base ball fellows are acquiring a fearfully big muscle on their legs.

FOR THE BISMARCK.—Several of our citizens have already gone out to the city of Bismarck.

THOS. P. CANTWELL, one of our leading merchants, left for the east, the other day.

CONTRARY to general expectation, the National debt statement again shows a reduction.

RAYMOND & ALLEN have certainly opened out the "nobbist" stock of fashionable spring and summer clothing.

The Headquarters Hotel is full of guests these days, and they are always pleased with the excellent treatment.

Good-bye.—We start to-day for a trip west as far as Audubon; will be back Monday.

The barn of Mr. Jo. Reed, of the Northern Hotel, caught fire on Tuesday. It was discovered in time.

A fire in the woods over the river on Tuesday greatly endangered the wood piles along the track.

We visited our friend F. H. Harvey's garden farm, the other day, and were kindly shown over his plantation by himself.

Our pine grove are very inviting these days. The ground dry and warm, covered with wintergreen berries for the children.

The gardeners of this vicinity are all busily at work, with every prospect of fine success.

UNCLE ED. WHITE has resigned his position of Master of Bridges on the Northern Pacific.

D. G. WALL, Esq., of Audubon, and an old newspaper man, enjoyed a visit with us Monday evening last.

The prairies are covered with flowers. The wood is also flowering out.

CERTAIN corruptions seem to have broken out in the management of the Vermont Central Railroad.

Our friends in Duluth will be called upon in a few days by our agent, W. W. Hartley, Esq.

OCEAN PASSAGE.—Let all interested take notice that that excellent and reliable institution, the Duluth Savings Bank.

The barn of Mr. Jo. Reed, of the Northern Hotel, caught fire on Tuesday.

WM. AYLMER, Esq., formerly of the Scoote House, has gone to Edwinton, or Bismarck, to make the people out there some Drink Beer.

READ, from top to bottom, the advertisement headed, "Duluth."

The chickens are just on it now—days—three eggs every two days.

C. K. DAVIS and a brother of St. Ramsey's is what is troubling the St. Paul Dispatch now.

PERSONAL.—Our old friend and ex-Superintendent C. T. Hobart, (N. P. R. R.) was in town on Tuesday.

The Daily Pioneer (which, by the way, has come out enlarged and with a beautiful new dress).

A FIRST CLASS runaway came off on Wednesday. Two horses and a wagon started on lower Fifth, coursed up to Front.

As we were around the highway, the other day, hunting Modocs or something, we were highly pleased to see everybody cleaning up and beautifying their places.

The Duluth Minnesotan seconds our idea of putting the Hon. W. F. Billson on the State ticket this fall.

BEER BEER at Starcher's. Also pure wines and liquors for medicinal purposes.

WHAT we want to see is this: The Sauk Rapids Branch completed.

The following is a list of the officers of the Brainerd Lodge, No 26, I. O. of G. T.

Mr. E. B. LYDDE, one of our popular and liberal merchants, is now below, and will bring back a handsome spring and summer stock of goods.

The church grounds of the city are being handsomely beautified and fixed up.

SINGULAR DEATH.—On Thursday Morning about 8 o'clock, John Anderson, boss repairer and oiler of the cars at the depot, was found by one of his associates in a small building close by the track.

We understand the police are notifying citizens to clean up their premises. We are almost overjoyed at this knowledge, and do hope the work will be made effectual and complete.

"DULL."—Many old croakers are in Brainerd, as elsewhere; hard times! no money! no business! is the salute one meets here and there.

The list of effects found in his trunk: Certificate of Deposit on National Marine Bank, St. Paul, $400; one note for $100; one note for $50; one watch, with letters, papers, etc.

The country was extremely dry in this section, and rain was needed badly.

We are crowded with all kinds of printing, and are using our best endeavors to accommodate our valued friends as rapidly and promptly as possible.

The falling and new walk on the railroad bridge across the Mississippi at this point is a big thing.

Subject of sermon at the Episcopal Church on Sunday morning: "Being a full line of ladies' dress goods, called to the same. Call and see them."

We understand the police are notifying citizens to clean up their premises. We are almost overjoyed at this knowledge, and do hope the work will be made effectual and complete.

The church was packed to its utmost capacity by the friends of the Sabbath School, and the performance passed off to the satisfaction of all.

The Magic Lantern Exhibition, at the Congregational Church on Tuesday evening, was a rousing success.

FEARFUL CALAMITY.—In the present age of Calamities, one scarcely notes any particular one, where only the matter of sweeping into eternity a few scores of human beings is concerned.

THE NEWS.

James A. Wann, a pork packer of Kansas City, is laid. An explosion of gas generated from benzine in a clothes-cleaning and dyeing establishment at Chicago, on Friday, fatally injured a child of the proprietor, L. Harding, and injured Harding, and an employe named Robert Simpson.

THE LOSS OF THE EMIGRANT. The Atlantic, whacked April 1st, 1873. For months and years, with penny and want and heartsease did they dare to hope; And while by miles was near, from earnings to buy some future day, the God-best hope.

THE GREAT FRENCH-WAR DEBT. What France is Doing With the Money. British Commissioners of the London Debt. From communications vouchsafed to the German Parliament by the German Commissioner of the London Debt.

After dark at my own door, the two young swains, as they lay comfortably in their beds, the baby asleep alone in a cot; and the mother and his dear baby sleeping peacefully in the same cot.

THE LOSS OF THE EMIGRANT. (Continued). They turned from homes all cheerful, child and man. With kindly feelings only for the soil, and for the hundred faces, pinched and wan, that prayed, and stayed, unwilling, at their toil.

THE LOSS OF THE EMIGRANT. (Continued). They lifted up their faces to the Lord, and lifted up answers in the western sun that called the stars, and shined on the sea, and beckoned eastward as the rivers run.

THE LOSS OF THE EMIGRANT. (Continued). On German villages and English dales: Like trucks that grow from many mountain side, the brook stream flowed out from Irish hills.

THE LOSS OF THE EMIGRANT. (Continued). Their grief at parting was not all a grief, But blended sweetly with the joy to come, When from fall store they spared the rich relief.
