REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.
The Republicans of the Thirtieth Senatorial District are requested to send delegates to the District Convention, to be held at Sauk Rapids, in Benton County, on Friday the 12th day of September, 1873, at 3 o'clock P. M., to choose one Candidate for the State Senate, and one Candidate for the House of Representatives.
The delegation from each County will be as follows:
Benton, 3
Crow Wing, 3
Mille Lacs, 3
Morrisson, 2
Sherburne, 4
B. K. KNOWLTON, Chairman Rep. Dist. Committee. Sauk Rapids, Aug. 22, 1873.

WASTED WIND.—A couple of eastern gentlemen—fresh to the west in search of wonders—dropped in upon us the other day, to pay their respects and ask us a thousand questions about the country around here and west of us—intending to continue their journey westward on the next train, in search of land. They asked us, and we told them all about the character of the country in the vicinity of every station and town between here and Bismarck; about timber and prairie, the comparative quality of the soils; about the water, the lakes, the people, the chances to get land, about the millions of fish, water fowl, and lastly, went off upon a most fearfully eloquent tangent about prairie chickens, and the grand sport we, as well as other expert hunters, had had in hunting them. We told them what kind of prairie they were mostly to be found upon, and described the complete and most approved mode of "taking" them; we described the model bird dog, how he was expected to operate, and how we had bagged as high as thirteen chickens in a single day with only two trained dogs—6-1-2 per dog. Then we proceeded to describe to them what a chicken looked like—their size, color, the peculiar manner in which they flew, and included every detail about chickens, imaginable, so that they could certainly tell one when they saw it. Our visitors were all attention, and drank in our graphic narrative about chickens, with the most satisfied smile. When we had concluded, and were just in the act of wiping the perspiration from our brow, one of those fellows remarked: "Yes, it is great sport to hunt chickens, I feel sure. I and my friend spent a week down near Red Wing, hunting chickens, and had very fair success; we killed between four and five hundred in three days."

COUNTY FAIR.—We hear the question, very properly, agitated among a few of our leading citizens, as to whether we are to get up another county fair this fall. We hope so; we have a county society—or the remnant of a society, at least—and a call for a meeting to reorganize, and the President, appears elsewhere. We hope to see the meeting well attended by all our good citizens who have at heart everything that will tend to give our citizens a noble gala-day and our community a good note and name abroad. Last year Crow Wing county had a fair that would have stood among the best of county fairs in the eastern States; and we know of no reason why we cannot do even better this year; and to this end let our producers preserve their choicest products to be placed on exhibition. Crow Wing county can turn out the biggest vegetables, the fattest pigs, and the sleekest calves for a fair, and the greatest number of "lightning" babies for a baby show, of any other county this side of Hong Kong. Let us have a rousing fair, by all means! Turn out! and interest yourselves, everybody!

Her Condition and What She is Doing.
No. 2.
The Establishment of the M. P. Manufacturing Company.
This company employs from 22 to 25 men, and have a capacity for, and do manufacture 20,000 feet of lumber, 20,000 shingles, and 10,000 laths per day.
"They, of course, are doing a good business, while they have hardly made a commencement towards opening the large field that is before them. H. D. Pettibone, Esq., is the business man of the concern."
One cannot look into and examine the permanent improvements of our city without noticing the liberality and public spirit of the L. S. & P. S. Co. They have, during the past season, erected buildings, graded streets, and put down sidewalks, at a cost of over seven thousand dollars. They seem to realize the fact that, to make a wealthy city, we must induce men of capital to settle here. We understand they are holding out very liberal inducements to any parties wishing to engage in manufacturing of any kind. They have been very liberal to all religious and benevolent societies, and especially to any move that has for its object the advancement of education. Mr. L. P. White, their Agent, with his broad views and liberal public spirit, has won the confidence of our people, while he has sustained and held up the reputation of the company.

THE PLATFORM.
Resolved, First, That the Republican party continues to be the first party of progress and reform; that while pledging itself anew to the great principles of universal freedom and equal rights with which it has triumphed in the past, and which it has permanently incorporated in Government, State and national; it meets boldly new questions as they arise in the spirit of devotion to the rights of the people, irrespective of class or condition, and that it presents the first example of a great party, wise and just enough to correct its own errors and abuses.
Second, That whereas the Republican party has ever been the friend of the oppressed—securing freedom for the slave, giving a home to the landless, obtaining from European countries a recognition of citizenship here for adopted citizens—it now greets with hearty sympathy and an extended hand every movement to secure to agriculture and labor their due influence, interest and rights.
Third, That the producing, commercial and industrial interests of the country should have the least and cheapest modes of transportation possible, and while capital invested in such means of transit, whether by railroad or otherwise, should be permitted the right of reasonable remuneration; all abuse in their management, excessive rates, unjust and oppressive discriminations against localities, persons or interests, should be corrected by law, and the people should be protected from such wrongs and all improper and arbitrary use of the growing power of railroad and other corporations.
Fourth, That in our opinion, no rights should be vested in railroad corporations beyond the control of future legislation, and that such laws should be enacted as will limit to just and reasonable rates all tolls, freights and charges of railroad transportation companies, and protect the people from imposition, and that the Legislature should attach such conditions to all new grants and amendments or extensions of old charters, as will place the rights of legislative control over such corporations beyond all question.
Fifth, That we heartily applaud the active measures of the late Congress in ferreting out and exposing corruption. We have seen with profound regret, in the developments made thereby, evidence of official and political corruption and the use abuse of responsible positions by men of all political parties to further personal ends, and we demand pure official conduct and the punishment of unfaithful public men, State and National, who have betrayed the confidence freely extended to them, shall not be shielded from disgrace by any partisanship of ours, and we denounce all Credit Mobilier transactions whatever be their form.
Sixth, When retrenchment is required to lighten the burden of taxation and to continue the reduction of the public debt, an increase of salaries is unjust. We condemn without reserve the voting for or receiving of an increased pay for services already rendered, and demand that the provisions of the late act of Congress by which the salaries were increased should be promptly and unconditionally repealed.
Seventh, That the wise, patriotic and efficient administration of Gov. Horace Austin entitles him to the unqualified approbation of the people of the whole State. That the able and faithful discharge of the responsible duties of the office of Attorney General by the Hon. F. R. E. Cornell merit the highest public commendation.
Eighth, That we heartily endorse the action of the late Legislature in investigating and reforming the abuses in the office of State Treasurer.
Ninth, That in view of the recent decision of the Land Department at Washington in favor of certain Railroad companies, and against a large class of settlers upon a portion of the public lands in this State, whereby great injury and suffering is likely to result to such settlers, this Convention earnestly requests such action on the part of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, as shall secure the honest settler against any loss and injury as far as possible.

COUNTY CONVENTION.
There will be a Republican County Convention for the County of Crow Wing, held at Bly's Hall on Tuesday, Sept. 9, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing five delegates to the Republican District Convention, to be held at Sauk Rapids, as per above call.
The Committees would suggest that the several Wards of the City of Brainerd hold their Caucuses on Saturday evening, the 6th of September, at 8 o'clock, at the following places, for the purpose of electing five delegates, each to attend above-named County Convention:
First Ward, at Sleeper & Holland's Law Office.
Second Ward, at Bly's Hall.
Third Ward, at Bridges' Office.
By Order,
REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE.

THE JUDGESHIP.
The District Convention which met at St. Cloud on the 27th inst., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for Judge of this Seventh Judicial District, concluded their labors by re-nominating the present very worthy incumbent, Judge James M. McKelvy. The Convention was very fully represented when considering the vast extent of territory included in the District, and the contest—for it resolved itself into a contest—between the friends of the two candidates was a most animated one, and the ground was contested inch by inch, up to the time when the balloting commenced. Capt. L. W. Collins, also of St. Cloud, was the opposition candidate, and a more worthy and honorable gentleman was never presented for official honors in northern Minnesota than he. The fact was, the entire Convention admired both gentlemen, in all that goes to make up men fitted for so responsible a position, equally; and it was a decision made wholly by circumstance that gave one the nomination over the other. The formal vote stood, McKelvy 36, Collins 21; giving the former a majority of fifteen votes. Before the vote was taken a letter was sent into the Convention and read, from Capt. Collins, stating that having an intimation of about the way the vote would stand, he desired the Convention to make the nomination of Judge McKelvy unanimous, at the same time paying a high compliment to the Judge, who had always been his warm friend, etc. The Convention then made his nomination unanimous, and a committee was appointed to notify the Judge of his re-nomination. After a time he appeared before the Convention and thanked its members very feelingly but briefly, for the high compliment they had thus paid him, when the Convention adjourned with three cheers for JAMES M. MCKELVY. We have no time to make further comment at present, but may refer again in the future to this matter.

AWFUL STRUGGLES.—The musty bones of the once Democratic party continue to rattle, though the carcass has been buried for these many years. It has come up annually, in as many shapes as there have been years since its death, and according to our belief, will continue crop out of the ground at every election that will be held from now until Gabriel plays his last trump. If it cannot persuade, it will ever continue to startle with its ugliness, and strive for a seat among the living. This year, in Iowa, the old ghost talks thus: "Let us have, at Cedar Rapids, Sept. 9th, a convention of Democrats, Liberals, Conservatives, Anti-monopolists, and all other political elements that oppose the Republican party, for the purpose of harmonizing, uniting and combining all the opposition possible to the party in power, and to make a State ticket that can be supported by this political combination." Let us prepare for a shock that will put to the blush a South American earthquake or a buffalo stampede. H—! Is going to be to pay, and all who oppose this combined stink-pot of richness, had better say their prayers.

ANOTHER HAPPY AFFAIR.—We are pleased to record another of those events in our local history which are so well calculated to bring "men nearer to men," and through which that better part of man is so beautifully and forcibly illustrated. Our friend, Mike Grace, Esq., as all who live hereabouts know, has long been one of the many main props of the Northern Pacific, in the capacity of Traveling Engineer. A short time since the co-workers and friends of Mr. Grace took it into their heads to make him a present, as a proof of the high estimation in which he was held among them as a gentleman and artisan. Accordingly the engineers on the Road and the machinists at the Shops, subscribed the snug sum of $135.00, with which a handsome watch and chain was purchased at the jewelry store of E. L. Strauss, Esq., Brainerd, and suitably inscribed. On Wednesday evening, the subscribers and friends of Mr. Grace, to the number of a hundred or more, congregated at Martin's Shades Billiard Hall, where a bounteous supper had been prepared, when Mr. G. was waited upon by a committee and requested to "fall in." He did so, and was ushered into the banquet chamber, where all awaited his presence. Mr. C. Bloom, the popular Clerk at the Headquarters Hotel, then stepped forward and presented the gift to Mr. Grace, accompanying the present with the following remarks:

REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE.

INTO A NEW ENTERPRISE.—Our good friend and fellow citizen, Jo Lamont, Esq., who has for a long time been one of Brainerd's successful dealers, has recently, in company with a Mr. Sherburne, leased the Merchants Hotel, Minneapolis, and they are now conducting it in the best of style. Mr. L. will still continue his business here, however, and be here a portion of his time. "Jo" will doubtless make fully as popular a landlord as he has citizen and trader here, and, if so, his "run" at the Merchants will be continually up to his fullest capacity—for he is widely known as one of the whole-souled men of this upper country. All who have occasion to go to Minneapolis should not fail to give the Merchants a call, and we guarantee they will be well treated, and will "go again."

Beware of Counterfeits.—We take occasion to warn every one in this upper country against counterfeit money now floating around along the Northern Pacific. There seems to have been several very successful visits to this section, of late, by persons passing off spurious money, wholesale. We have been shown five, twenty and fifty-dollar counterfeits which have been palmed off on our unsuspecting community within the past few weeks, and all were well calculated to deceive. The five and fifty bills are much better imitations than the twenty; yet any of them might be readily passed, especially where change had to be made in a hurry, and time could not be given for examination and comparison. But, the instant any one of them comes to be compared with the genuine, by any person used to handling money at all, the counterfeits can be detected instantly with the naked eye. We deem it the safest plan for our people all along the line to be on the sharp lookout for counterfeiters and those passing them. Scan your money closely, no matter from whom you take it, but be particularly careful when receiving money from strangers—especially the denominations referred to, although we doubt not that ten-dollar counterfeits are extant. A new country is always the most favorable place for the wholesale operations of sharpers and counterfeiters, and it seems that we have, of late, received our full share of all kinds, and it behooves all to be on the lookout for the hidden tricks and practices of depraved humanity.

STOCK AT COST, AND DWELLINGS FOR RENT.—Being compelled to look after business interests elsewhere, I desire to rent my store building and dwellings on Laurel street, Brainerd, and to close out my entire stock of groceries and liquors at cost, either at wholesale or retail. Best business stand in the city, and when I say cost I mean just what I say. Call on me at my store for particulars, OPPOSITE TRIBUNE OFFICE.
J. L. STARCHER.

DEDICATION.—The Baptist Chapel of this city will be dedicated tomorrow (Sunday) evening. The services will be commenced at 7:30 o'clock P. M., and will be participated in by Rev. Dr. Backus, of New York, and Rev. A. Gale, of Minneapolis, and the resident ministering brethren.

County Officers.—As the beginning of the commencement draws nigh, a slight flutter is noticeable among the ambitious in regard to who is who, and what is what, relative to the county offices to be filled this fall. Several names have already come to our ears as intending to be candidates for one office and another, and we say go in, boys, and get squeezed. "Urging" will doubtless soon take place, and then the pains of ambition will commence to develop themselves. So far as we are concerned, all we desire is competent, faithful men to take the affairs of Crow Wing county in hand, and conduct its government in a manner that will elevate her interests to the highest standard, and place her where, by rights, she ought to be, among the most financially strong counties in the State. We have ample resources to defray the expenses of our county government without taxing us heavily, if these resources are properly looked after and made available. As we before said, all we desire, and all that any one should desire, is good men for our offices, regardless of political "corners," ambitions or aspirations. And it behooves us, as citizens, to look to it that these things are thus.

Geo. W. Cushing, Esq., recently the Superintendent of Motive Power on the N. P. R. R., has resigned his position, to accept a similar position on the Toledo, Wabash & Western R. R.

TEST FOR SALE.—Jo Lamont, on Laurel street, has a large Tent for sale, at a great bargain. Best quality and in good condition. Call at his store for particulars.

PHOTOGRAPHY.—Our friend Thompson, opposite the TRIBUNE office, is making some excellent pictures now, of all sizes and kinds. He is turning out photographic work that will compare favorably with the productions of the city galleries, and his charges are very moderate. We were inveigled into the idea of sitting for one of his large sized photographs the other day, and the result was most astonishing; besides being an artistically finished production, the figure itself represented a magnificent looking man, with a powerful intellect, that would do honor to a Webster, a Clay, a Greeley, or a "any other man." It was a big thing; and anyone desiring a first-class picture, or wishing to "see themselves as others see them," should by all means place themselves in the care of Thompson for a few minutes, dressed in their Sunday clothes—for he jerks them.

What this county most needs is its floating debt funded and county orders at par.—Pine County News.
And we rather reckon that the county of Crow Wing needs a purging dose of the same sort—or something.

A NORTHERN PACIFIC FARM.
The Lakeside correspondent of the Audubon Journal writes as follows concerning a large farm near Lakeside, owned by a company of Hollanders:

FRIEND GRACE.—I have the pleasant duty assigned me by your many friends of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and on their behalf, of presenting to you this beautiful watch and chain, which we trust you will accept as a slight token of their regard and esteem. This, Sir, is not presented for its intrinsic worth, nor do we expect you to value it on that account, but rather as a voluntary tribute of those with whom you have been long associated, and who have learned your high attributes as a man, your uniform courtesy toward those who have had the good fortune to be associated with you, and the competency always exhibited by you in the performance of the responsible duties which has devolved upon you to perform. For these and other reasons which we might assign, we tender you our appreciation in this manner; and in the future, wherever widely our paths may be separated, rest assured you will be remembered with that regard which has manifested itself on this occasion. In conclusion, we would say (one and all), may health and prosperity attend you, and may you, as we know you will, wear this little souvenir with honor to yourself and friends.

THE UNDERSIGNED GIVES NOTICE to all persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of M. A. Hill and Co., that they must come forward and settle the same without delay, if they would save themselves both trouble and extra cost.

Oct. Lounsbury, the Brainerd Tribune editorial scapler, spent a day or so in Brainerd this week. He was here on business—to collect a hundred or so subscriptions from a similar number of subscribers he has located in the City of Pines. He got every bill as quick as presented, except two, and they had left the city. We don't know how much money there is left in Brainerd since his raid, but we Brainerdites have excellent bottom, and the town is yet solvent, in all probability. The Colonel says it is merely a pastime to collect in Brainerd, which proves what we have always stuck up for, that Brainerd contains the most liberal set of people in existence. We would try and have an ordinance passed excluding Lounsbury from the city, but for the fact that he is a "boy with a glass eye," and we like to have him "call," even though our peoples' pockets do have to suffer some.

See Marshall & Campbell's new display advertisement on the 4th page.

A "Dock."—As our friend, Mike Grace, Esq., traveling engineer of the N. P., was spending a day here recently, he had a little experience in the auto-chamber of a "watery grave." Being down to the river for a walk, he stepped out onto the boom logs, and from thence to some floating ties near by. Those ties, however, like some marriage ties, proved treacherous, and friend Grace proceeded from thence to the bottom of the old Father of Liquids—the Mississippi. After a short interview with the catfish below, he came to the surface and crawled to the shore, where, with as good a "grace" as possible, our friend Grace sat in deep contemplation on the downs and ups, and the ins and outs of life, till the warm rays of Old Sol dried the surface of things once more. It is intimated that "Mike" got off a few "quotations" from the old masters, upon getting to shore, by way of an effort to do that dampens fall justice. He was perfectly excusable, we think, for perpetrating a few stanzas, under the aggravating circumstances, for we know how it is himself.

Stutz! they come! Boots and Shoes for the million at Marshall & Campbell's. Bottom Prices!

AITKEN.

The Historical Society of Minnesota make complaint that our orthography in the rendition of the name of our county is wrong. Now, it is unpleasant, I suppose, for a dead man to "wake up and find his name spelled wrong," and we would like to rectify the same; if any of your readers can throw light upon the subject such information will be much appreciated, and confer a favor upon the Historical Society of Minnesota. Address, Auditor, Aitken Co., Minn.

The steamer Pokegoma left for the upper Mississippi on Thursday.

Harry Williams represented Aitken in the Judicial Convention at St. Cloud.

Our tables are supplied with the whole category of vegetable productions from Alpha to Omega, from the gardens of Nat. Tibbetts, Esq., and Sol. S. Clapp. Mr. Clapp is an amateur gardener is a success. We have watermelons as big as a bran new twelve pound baby, and quite as "sweet."

A brace of pistols, two pairs of handcuffs and a constable went after a vendor of the ardent to Indians—full account next week.</

Two or three others were slightly injured.

REPORTS received from the surveying party in the northwest of Nebraska settle beyond a doubt the fact of the discovery of extensive pine and hard wood forests in the locality. Rumors of this fact have been afloat for years but the country has never been fully explored before.

A LEGISLATOR from Sioux City says: "Young, a train boy, who left here on Sunday on the Illinois Central train, stole a watch from a lady passenger. This theft was discovered near Ackley, Hardin county, at which place Young was arrested by Sheriff Upright. The boy subsequently got away from the officer, who made pursuit on horseback. Coming up with the lad the Sheriff sought to take him, and in the scuffle the Sheriff's revolver was discharged, the contents entering Young's right side, inflicting a fatal wound."

FIVE new cases of cholera in Chattanooga Friday—three fatal.

FREDERICK MANN, a young Mormon, who had run away with his uncle's wife, on being discovered by his uncle in a hiding place on Ludlow street, New York, shot himself and died instantly. The wife threw herself into the street and was killed. The woman who was discharged, wounding herself seriously.

SIX vessels, laden with nearly 250,000 bushels of grain, cleared from Baltimore for Europe during the week past, and fifteen more are now taking cargoes, and the demand for shipping and elevator accommodations is far in excess of the supply, and the railway tracks leading to the wharves are blocked with loaded cars for whose contents there is no place.

A DANBURY MAN wants to know if hay fever proceeds from new-mown hay. Or any ten married men who may sit on the edge of a newly-made bed to think, it is safe to affirm that nine will get up with sore heads.

A PRODIGY of an elocutionist has been discovered in Danbury. He read thirteen chapters of Webster's last oration to his father, the other evening, and the old gentleman became so absorbed in the recital, that he fell out of a chair and hurt his spine.

ONE of the most striking features of a mother's care and affection is putting black patches on light-colored pants. Of course, you know better, but when you give a boy a ring with two such patches you can't help but feel that he can see what transpires behind him without turning around.

WE saw a man who was crossing White street, yesterday, pick up a lump of coal and put it in his pocket. "There," said we to ourselves, "is a truly economical man. He is not afraid to save." He realizes that a penny saved is a penny earned, and he will profit by it." Then he stepped into a saloon to get a drink, and we moved on.

A MIDDLE-AGED lady met a bridish-looking lady in the postoffice yesterday, and the following conversation followed: "Mary, is it true that your little child is dead?" "Yes," said the former. "It is," said Mary. "And were you married before she died?" "No," said Mary. "Not until three days after." The middle-aged woman stared at the bride for a moment, and then slowly and bewilderingly said: "Do you mean to say that your poor mother died without seeing what you were married in?"

A NORRIM MAIN STREET gentleman saw his boy in front of the house throwing a ball in the air, last evening. He hadn't played ball himself for thirty years, and knew nothing of the kind of ball base ball clubs have introduced in the past few years, but he felt the old spirit rising in him at the memory of former times, and he told his son to "let her slide." She said: "He ought to let her slide, and then dropped it with his eyes full of tears, and his hands pressed under his arms. The youth subsequently told another boy that he could plainly hear the "old man's" bones snap."

METTERLICH at Vienna.

A few days since Archduke Ludwig Victor, the Austrian Emperor's youngest-brother, gave a ball. Princess de Metternich was of course invited. She did not make her appearance until 10 P. M. Archduke Ludwig went up to her and dryly said: "I regret, madame, you have not come earlier; Her Majesty has been here since nine P. M." The Princess smiled and said: "I do not regret having come so late, your Highness's ball, for the Emperor never speaks so graciously to me when I have the honor of meeting him."

"Madame, you insult Her Majesty!" "Your Highness, such is very far from being my intention, for I know the respect I owe to Her Majesty; I do but reply frankly to your Highness's remark, as I would do to any other nobleman as he walked about the drawing-rooms as usual at balls, and had dismissed this conversation from thought. But as supper was about to be served Archduke Ludwig Victor came up to her and said: "I beg pardon, a place has been kept for you at the imperial supper table; but after the insult you have given the Emperor, you cannot occupy that seat." She answered, with habitual calmness and dignity, "Very well, Highness; but, as I have ordered my servants for midnight, I beg your Highness to get me a hack." This insolent order (an Archduke ordered to get a hack) shocked her so much that she nobody out of the blood) she confounded the Archduke who could think of nothing better than to execute it. He went to the vestibule and ordered a footman to go for a hack. Twenty carriages were immediately offered her; she refused them all. She laid stress upon going home in a hack from the Archduke's house. She sat up all night packing her luggage, and she quitted Vienna by the first train the following morning. The Austrian Emperor is probably jealous of Princess de Metternich's brilliant success in society.

TWO men disputing about the word "either"—one saying it was "either," the other "ether"—agreed to refer the matter to the first person they met, who concluded them by saying: "It is neither, for they are alike."

A FIRE at Champlain, Ill., Monday evening, destroyed a large iron stable, and a merchant tailoring establishment in an adjoining building. Loss $60,000.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

Wool-Growing a Success.

We are asked why wool-growers do not fail as other men sometimes do. We answer simply because the growth of the wool and the increase is as perpetual as the time in which they live.

Helene's Antiquities.

Mr. Schliemann returned to Troy yesterday. He has completed his excavations after three years of labor, by a grand master stroke.

Stunstroke in Horses.

During the hot months of summer horses that are severely worked and exposed occasionally succumb to the extreme heat and become suddenly prostrated.

Helpful Hints for Housewives.

To Cure Hiccups.—A small piece of loaf sugar will instantly stop the most troublesome hiccup.

Ham Toast.

Scrape off the rind of some cold ham and mix it with an egg, season well with pepper, lay it on buttered toast, and place it in a hot oven for a few minutes.

Split ripe plums, take the stones from them, and lay them on plates to dry in a warm oven or hot sun.

Oyster Patties of Green Corn.

Take eighteen ears of soft sweet corn (roasting ears), and grate or cut the cob as far as possible.

To Preserve Plums without the Skins.

Four boiling water over large egg or magnum bonum plums; cover them until it is cold, then pull off the skins; make a sirup of a pound of sugar and a teacup of water for each pound of fruit.
