ANNOUNCEMENTS.

[Under date of Oct. 2, 1873.]

REGISTER OF DEEDS.

My Editor--Having the interest of Crow Wing County at heart, and believing the county office should be filled by property holders, I announce myself a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds, and if elected, promise to faithfully discharge the duties of the office. J. S. CAMPBELL.

COUNTY AUDITOR.

To the people of Crow Wing County. At the request of numbers of my friends, irrespective of party, I hereby announce myself a candidate for County Auditor, subject only to your action at the polls. Believing that no party principles are at stake, as far as our local affairs are concerned, at the coming election, I shall not seek the endorsement of any party, nor if elected will I be the organ of any clique or party, but try by a faithful performance of my duties to justify the confidence reposed in me. DAVID STEWART.

CLERK OF THE DIST. COURT.

To the electors of Crow Wing County. Gentlemen--I take this method of respectfully announcing that I will be a candidate at the coming election for the office of Clerk of the District Court. There will doubtless be other names presented worthy of this office, but I shall not seek the support of any party, as I consider it an office that should be filled irrespective of politics or party. I simply take this course, that the fact of my candidacy may be generally known, and I ask the support of all citizens who can consistently assist me, and I assure them that the same will be fully appreciated. Hoping to hear from you at the polls, I am, gentlemen, Yours respectfully, W. W. HARTLEY.

COUNTY AUDITOR.

I would respectfully announce to the voters of Crow Wing county that, in response to the request of many friends, I have consented to present myself as a candidate for the office of County Auditor. I assure all that if elected I shall strive to discharge the duties of the office to the very best of my ability, intending to be a permanent resident here, I shall take great pride in keeping the affairs of the office in proper shape, and my office where it will be convenient to all. Respectfully, H. A. HILLS.

SHERIFF.

Mr. Editor--Having been Sheriff of Crow Wing County for the past two years, I present my name as a candidate for re-election, and if elected promise to act in the future as in the past--for the benefit of the whole people of the county. Respectfully, JOHN OURELL.

LITERARY SOCIETY.

Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen assembled at the Baptist Chapel on Tuesday evening, to take into consideration the formation of a Literary Society in Brainerd. We certainly need something of the sort, and as it is the design to have a course of lectures this winter, under the auspices of the association, every one should lend a helping hand. The meeting was called to order by electing John W. Steel, Chairman, and Miss Rhoda Squire, Secretary. On motion, the following committees were appointed: On Organization, Rev. D. Webster, Judge W. W. Hartley, and Mrs. J. S. Campbell. On Constitution, J. W. Steel, Rev. D. Webster, and H. J. Humphrey. On motion, a committee of five ladies were appointed to entertain all who may be present at the next meeting. They will provide music and refreshments free of charge. The following ladies were appointed: Mrs. J. S. Campbell, Mrs. Isabella, Mrs. Root, Miss Mattie Squire, and Miss Dyer. The meeting then adjourned to convene at the Baptist Chapel next Tuesday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock. Of course, when the society becomes properly organized, some have will be procured in a more central situation. This is no denominational or sectarian movement. All, of every denomination, and of no denomination, are cordially invited to unite in this enterprise, and even those who do not wish to take an active part in the exercises are welcome as spectators. Come out then, fellow citizens, next Tuesday evening, and let us have a society of which Brainerd will be proud. Don't forget the meeting of our Literary Society on Tuesday evening, "Padding and milk," and baked beans are among the attractions. Admission free.

To the Republican Electors of the County of Crow Wing.

Entertaining the idea that one citizen has as good right to ask the support of his fellow citizens for an office--as two or three others have to trade through "sea" of treachery--to prevent competent men from obtaining nominations for office, and believing that resident citizens have a better right to offices than importations, and that Republicans only should dictate who shall be the nominees of the Republican party; and that the Republican party being in the ascendancy, ought not to barter away its power by ingratiation to its supporters in throwing to those who take without recommending its vital sustenance, I respectfully solicit the suffrages of those cherishing the same ideas, to retain me in the office of County Auditor of Crow Wing County, wherein for the past year I have faithfully endeavored to serve the people. Very respectfully, C. B. SLEEPER.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Hon. A. Barto, Republican candidate for Lieut.-Governor, will address the people of Brainerd, on Monday evening next, Oct. 13, at Bly's Hall. The meeting will be opened at 7 1/2 o'clock p. m. We hope all our citizens will turn out to hear the political issues of the day, fully and fairly discussed, as they will undoubtedly be by the distinguished speaker on that occasion.

THE INDIVIDUAL PERPETRATING PETTY TREASHERIES TO PRINCIPLES, PARTY AND HONOR FOR AN INSIGNIFICANT RETURN, LIKENS HIMSELF UNTO A PERSON GUILTY OF PETTY LARCENY; HE SELLS CHEAPLY, AND BESIDES BEING BENEATH THE CONTEMPT OF ALL, STARVES ON THE PROCEEDS.

During our absence, the "boys" of the TRIBUNE, aided by the gentlemen we left to "jerk" the "briny" part of the programme, have had a good deal of fun at the "old man's" expense--as we observe from looking over the proof-sheets. Well, "boys" will be boys, and although we felt like spanking the whole outfit with a single, we have thought better of it, and have cooled down our tea-kettle of wrath, and let 'er slide. The boys declare this issue to be the best TRIBUNE ever published, and if our readers will only think so, we are satisfied, and will say amen, to all that the "boys" have perpetrated.

SCHOOL MONEY.

We notice by Friday's Pioneer, which contains the semi-annual apportionment of the school fund, that Crow Wing county, having 322 scholars, is entitled to $238.28, or 74 cents to each scholar. This will help us greatly.

FRENCH & HARE, THE GREAT OYSTER DEALERS, AT THE NEW LEON TON, LAUREL STREET, ARE PUTTING UP AN ADDITION TO THEIR FINE ESTABLISHMENT.

OLD SOLITAIRE.

During a heated religious discussion that took place in a certain office here recently, the following luminous conversation took place: Light-weight--"Why will he use such language?" Heavy-weight--"A man who does not believe in the Bible is privileged to use any language he may see fit to."

TEASURER'S REPORT.

City of Brainerd--Report of City Treasurer for 1st and 2d quarter ending Sept. 30th, 1873.

RECEIPTS.

For Liquor Licenses, $1,310 00; "Peddler's", 140 00; Police Fines, 498 00; Sidewalks, 13 73.

Canceled Orders, $1,822 88; Treasurer's Commission, 134 42; Cash on hand to balance, 2 45.

R. MACNIDER, Treasurer.

"Russell, of the Brainerd Tribune, who is to be the next member of the Legislature from the 30th District, gives, in the last number of his paper, an illustrated history of his next winter's career. It is strikingly life-like. We should know Russell anywhere by those pictures. A friend who was with him here very early in the morning following the nominating Convention, assures us that No. 2 ('Busted') of the series is as good a photograph of the member of Crow Wing as he appeared about the witching hour of three A. M."--[St. Cloud Journal.]

Now, Ole, you know you're another.

We tried to find you; but after searching in vain till 10 p. m., a butcher-boy told us he saw the editor of the Journal going home on two streets about an hour before. Next.

OUR NEXT TERM OF THE DISTRICT COURT WILL MEET IN BLY'S HALL ON TUESDAY, OCT. 23, 1873.

SALUTATORY AND VALEDICTORY.

Editing a paper is like preaching, everybody thinks he can do it without any trouble. We thought so. The editor having abscquated this week, asked us to mount the tripod and "write something." We are on it. But what to say, and how to say it, that's what's the matter with Hannah. We had a head "chook full" of items and ideas. We seized our pen, intending to dash off a series of the most brilliant and instructive articles that ever appeared in print. We expected to immortalize the Tribune, and felt sure that a large edition of this number would be needed to supply the demand abroad, as we had no doubt it would be placed beneath the corner-stone of every monument, cathedral, and other public buildings about to be erected in the country. But, alas! our ideas have vanished "as the early cloud and the morning dew"; and if any other fool thinks he knows how to edit a paper, "off-hand" just let him try it--that's all.

OFFICE SEEKING.

In the earlier days of the Republic the doctrine prevailed that an office should seek the man to fill it--not the man the office. But that was so long ago we do not now understand exactly what was meant by the phrase, "the office should seek the man." We, of the present, reverse the sentiment, and for every office, from fence-viewer to President, there are usually quite a number who are willing to sacrifice themselves for the public weal.

There is no harm in a man offering himself as a candidate for any office in the gift of the people. It is a right we all have. But when a person is so anxious for position that he plays the demagogue, forgets honor, and panders to the lowest passions and prejudices of the lowest class of people for the sake of getting votes, he proves himself unworthy of the confidence of good men, and unfit to wield power. Just at this time quite a number of our citizens are aspirants for county offices. Most, if not all of them are good men, but inasmuch as the majority of them must be disappointed, it is well they make up their minds in advance to abide the result. We trust there will be no acrimony, no bitterness of feeling, but that those who are defeated will acquiesce cheerfully with the result, and turn in and help and encourage those who are successful to do their duty to the people of the county.

OUR SAY.

The editor has gone on a "vyge" with Captain Houghton of the steamer Pokegama. What he went for, or when he will return, is a mystery as profound as boarding-house hash; but from the gentle smile which irradiated his noble countenance, it is thought he has ulterior designs. Indeed, as his geographical education is somewhat limited, it is possible he thinks Pokegama is in his "destrict," and has gone to electioneer the "bloody In-jit-us" of that region. We always thought Russell rather a handsome man, but since the Convention at Sauk Rapids he has improved amazingly in appearance as well as in printing office can disturb his serenity. If the press-handle flies back and "puts a head on him," he blandly bows and apologizes for his awkwardness. If the "devil" pies a column, he does not swear at him, may he does not even frown. Small boys, with garments all tattered and torn, approach him with confidence, being sure of a nickel from his ever open purse. He, Christian-like, loves all his neighbors as himself, and will continue to do so--until after election. If being a candidate for Representative works such wonders, who would not be one? "Hooray" for Russell!

REMOVED.

Rev. M. Wessley preached an excellent sermon at the Baptist church, last Sabbath, from the text, "The path of the just is as a light which shineth more and more even unto perfect day."

STRETCHED.

Captain Jack and three other Modoc savages were hung on Friday last, at Klamath, Oregon, for the murder of General Canby. The punishment was a just one, but so long as our Government pursues the "peace policy" with the red-skins, exactly that long may we look for outrages to be committed by them. If we give them food and clothing so that they have nothing better to do, they will inevitably do mischief; and if, in addition, we furnish them with needle guns and ammunition, it is not wonderful that they should practice upon white men as targets. They are a base, treacherous, cruel set of heathens and, in our opinion, the sooner they are exterminated--the better for the men, women and children of the frontier, whose scalps are never safe from these fiends who have become Government pets.

THAT'S HOW IT IS.

We clip the following from the Sauk Rapids Sentinel: "Our Legislative Nominations seem to worry the various rings down below. They have so long considered these upper county districts as mere pocket boroughs, whose control belonged by divine right to the Minneapolis and St. Paul rings, the temerity of the people in putting up independent men like Benedict and Russell is an act of rebellion too grievous to be borne, so they set up a howl against both. So far as we can make out the trouble, it is that neither of these gentlemen are sufficiently within the power of the party whip for the Press ring to lead them by the nose, on the one hand, and that they refuse to allow themselves to be used by the opposition to the Republican party, on the other.

And we think these charges are about so. We know that Mr. Benedict has always felt it to be his duty as a Republican to condemn dishonest officials--no matter what their party affiliations--instead of apologizing for their short comings--a la Press--when found in the ranks of his party. And our friend Russell is a Republican of the same stripe, and as we believe, of the stripe the people desire to honor. One thing is certain, they have neither of them been captured yet by the Minneapolis, St. Paul, or St. Cloud rings, as their opponents were long ago; nor do we believe those parties will succeed in capturing our people so as to get them to vote for the candidates of parties who are interested in hindering the development of our water power and great natural facilities.

THE FOLLOWING IS A LIST OF JURORS FOR THE NEXT TERM OF DISTRICT COURT.

Davenport, John Bishop, L. C. Purrier, Thos. Gilbert, Edward Morse, P. Eckford, D. L. Toner, F. X. Goulet, Henry Whipple, T. W. Wakely, B. F. Hartley, C. Bloom.

The Temperance meeting last week was well attended, and interesting addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Squire and Hon. C. McCabe. The music rendered by Mrs. Campbell, Miss Mattie Squire, and Mr. H. J. Humphrey, was splendid.

CHURCH SERVICE.

In a discussion upon "Responsive Service" at the late session of the Congregational Conference at St. Paul, it was discovered that the Congregational churches are exercising the privilege of borrowing such forms of helpful in increasing interest in worship. We append the order of service just adopted by the Brainerd Congregational Church.

Morning--After Voluntary the congregation will rise and sing, 1. Doxology, and remain standing during 2. Invocation, closing with the Lord's Prayer. 3. Singing. 4. Responsive Scripture reading. 5. DISTANCES FROM BRAINERD TO POKEGOMA FALLS.

The following Table of Distances from here up to Pokegoma Falls, has been kindly furnished us by the officers of the steamer Pokegoma, which runs regularly between Aitken and the Falls, leaving every Saturday at 1:30 p. m.

Table with 2 columns: Location and Miles. French Rapids 12, Rabbit River Rapids 15, Big Eddy Rapids 16, Old Mission 21, Pine River 29, Tow Head Rapids 29, Dean's Island 37, Pine Knoll 49, Little Willow 61, Aitken 71, Rice River Portage 81, Island Rapids 88, Willow River Portage 98, Willow River 101, Smith's Landing 102, Scott's Meadow 111, Moose Rapids 112, Portage City 126, Sandy Lake Rapids 131, Right Mile Rapids 136, Oxtongue 144, Crooked Rapids 148, Pokegoma Brook 157, Pine Rapids 160, Bald Bluff 164, Cut-off 166, Swan River 174, Swan River Portage 174, Birch Portage 178, Battle Hill 184, Split Hand 194, Upper Cut-off 201, Long Island 209, Hales' Landing 216, Day's Landing 222, Pine Logan 228, Prairie River 237, Rabbits and Clark's Landing 231, Grand Rapids 232, Pokegoma Falls 237.

CITY TREASURER.

Our friend, R. Macnider, Esq., having resigned the City Treasury, makes his report elsewhere. The Council, at a recent meeting, appointed Mr. Thos. P. Cantwell, as his successor, and all we have to say is, that both the outgoing and incoming Treasurer are gentlemen in whose hands the funds of our city government were, and have been, well placed.

J. C. Walters, Esq., is putting on a fine addition to the rear of his grocery store on Sixth street, which he designs as a first class "Sample Room."

He has come; we mean the Editor has. He is looking over the proof. We see, instead of the smile so child-like and bland with which he left us, "blood in his eye." He evidently don't appreciate our style, so we must abdiccate. In leaving the position which we have filled with so much honor, we have only to say that, in the course of our brief but brilliant career as an editor, we have offended any one, let him send us a box of cigars and a can of oysters, and we will say no more about it.

A BEAUTIFUL PRODUCTION--We had the pleasure recently of spending a few moments in the art studio of Mrs. J. C. Walters, on Laurel street. Among the large collection, we noticed her latest work--a large oil painting of the famed Minnehaha. It is much larger than the one that has been on exhibition in Mr. Walters' place of business, and is given in finer detail, and natural to life. She has many beautiful productions--the work of her own artistic pencil--but we regard Minnehaha as her proudest monument, and a work that should give the accomplished lady a high seat among the artists of the country. She will doubtless soon place it on exhibition, when it can be admired by all lovers of the fine arts.

MUSIC--Brainerd can boast of the best String Band in Northern Minnesota. Conant and Gador's, assisted by Ben. Hazen and "Louis," can produce a "concourse of sweet sounds" that will gratify the most fastidious ear. Quadrille parties can have a clarinet, two violins and a bass viol, or a part of them, as they may desire, by applying to J. B. Conant, Esq.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUSES--The Democrats of each Ward will hold Caucuses at the usual places of holding elections in the several Wards, on Monday evening next, Oct. 13, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of choosing delegates to the County Convention on the 15th inst.

NEW ARRIVAL--It was at Ed. French's on Monday night. If it isn't a girl it's a boy, but we have not learned which. Of course "Ed" is happy, and "sets 'em up" lively.

Rev. D. Wessley will preach at the Baptist Chapel next Sabbath morning and evening. The subject of the morning sermon will be, "Nearness to God." That of the evening discourse will be, "The Life of a Dog," addressed more especially to young men, who are all invited to be present.

THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

met at Bly's Hall, yesterday, at 2 o'clock p. m., when the following officers were nominated: Auditor--Wm. Goulet; Register of Deeds--C. W. Darling; Clerk of District Court--J. L. Spinks; Sheriff--A. F. McKay; County Attorney--J. W. Steel; Coroner--Dr. J. C. Rosser; Commissioner--R. K. Whitley and J. Olson.

PLAYED OUT--Looking at the old and dirty goods that have lain on the shelves since the whistle of the cars were first heard in Brainerd, Montgomery & Todd have just received one of their rousing stocks for the fall and winter trade. Good black Alpaca, from 60 cents per yard; Flannels, Woolens; Yarns in large quantities. Great stacks of gent's and ladies' Underclothing. A fine lot of Treco suits for gent's; also a fine stock of black cloth suits, either light or heavy Beaver, for gent's. Fine Water-proof goods, in grey, golden, or black. A fine lot of Millinery just opened. Our shipment of Furs will arrive so as to make us to display them on Saturday the 19th inst.

R. McKee was taken before Justice Walters, on Saturday, charged with assault and battery on one George Johnson. He demanded a jury trial, and it being proved that George had gone to Mr. McKee's house and talked "naughty" before ladies, and that thereupon McKee led him out with no other damage to him than a torn coat. After argument by counsel, Mr. McKee was honorably acquitted. G. W. Holland, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and J. W. Steel, for defense.

At night held all beside the stove And put a strong and steady glow. The while each year his memory wore Was still more foggy than the last.

And we would gather round to hear The old man tell of bygone times, Of his own days and bygone days, And early owners' jokes and crimes.

Immense was he in argument— Of logic taught by uneducated. But facts he could with ease invent, And pour them in an endless stream.

He argued with unending zeal, Dying all to put him out; He'd put a strong and steady glow, Of what he knew the least about.

When one a stubborn truth would bring, He'd meet it with "Young friend of mine, You cannot teach me anything, For I've been here since forty-nine!"

His choiceful tale was of a ride, Of his own days and bygone days; And how, when all seemed safe and free, By random shot, his Indian lay.

"I rated her up—but she was dead!— My own dear wife!—accused the fates!" We sobbed with him—until he said, "My other wife was in the States!"
