Indian Troubles.

Official news received reports the condition of Indian affairs as unsettled, and unsatisfactory to the agencies. The good Indians are being corrupted, and are leaving for the north to join the hostile bands.

The Tichborne Claimant.

The trial of the Tichborne claimant on charges of perjury, which has lasted 139 days, resulted, on February 28th, in his acquittal on all charges, and he was sentenced to fourteen years penal servitude.

The Acheen War.

A report has reached London that a great battle was fought at Acheen, on January 31, between the forces of Sir Garnet Wolseley and the Acheenes. The engagement lasted for three days, and ended with a decisive victory for the British.

At Large.

Mist operations are somewhat at a standstill, pending the uncertainties respecting the final legislation on the currency. The Pullman Palace Car Company has paid its regular quarterly dividend of three dollars per share.

Washington.

It is stated at the state department that Gen. Schoenck is coming home on an ordinary leave of absence, applied for by himself, for the purpose of transacting some private business. This is certainly the official record of his visit to the fact that he is expected to return to the state department on the 15th of March.

Foreign.

The steamship Mongol, from London for Wellington, has arrived at Melbourne. She had sixty-seven cases of illness on board during her voyage, sixteen of which proved fatal. The Spanish steamer Marillo, which runs down the coast of Spain, was subsequently condemned by the Admiralty Court and sold for a nominal sum.

The Ghost that Haunts Jim.

John's eyes were fixed upon the woman, by an air of knowledge, as if he had been provided upon to give up their business, which they claim is a just and legal one, so long as they fulfill the requirements of the law. The war has attracted the attention of dorymen throughout the country, and numerous and varied are the opinions expressed.

SCARED OUT OF A WIFE.

The narrative of which I am about to write was told me one bleak night in a country parlor. It was one of those nights in winter when the wind sweeps over the hills and valleys, and the stars are dim and cold.
