

IMPORTANT NOTICE

There will be a Literary Concert at Bly's Hall on Wednesday evening, April 8th, at which the public will be entertained by the best talent our City affords.

Contributions to the programme will be thankfully received, up to Wednesday evening next, by W. W. Hartley, N. B. One of the leading features of the programme will be "Brainerd in Rayne" by J. W. Steel Esq.

A LEADING merchant of Anoka, a church member of fifteen years standing, has dissolved his connection with his church society, owing to the operations of the crusaders, one of whom was his own wife.

The women crusaders of Anoka continue to visit saloons, praying and singing at the several places visited. So far their proceedings seem to have been productive of more evil than good, much bitter feeling having been engendered, and two or three ineffectual rows stirred up.
