

The Old-Fog Man.

He was a queer, old-fog man,
And loved old-fog ways,
And railed against the reckless speed
Of these fast modern days.

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

Hydrophobia in Domestic Animals.
The veterinary editor of the Prairie Farmer gives the following description of the symptoms of hydrophobia in the animals and poultry of the farm-yard.

Of the origin, seat, and pathology of this fearful disease there have been various opinions, some considering it centered in the nervous system, and some that the blood is poisoned by the virus primarily, and the nervous system secondarily affected.

Household Receipts.

VELVET CAKE.—One quart of skimmed milk (half cream and half milk in proportion) three eggs (white and yolks separated), one tablespoonful salt, rice flour, six of the beaten yolks with the milk and the salt, then rice flour to make a batter thick as that for flannel cakes; lastly, whip in the stiffened whites very lightly, and bake immediately.

AN AMATEUR DIVER'S PERIL.

Fifty Feet Under Water in the North River.
An Amateur Diver.
Some time ago a young man with steel rails was sunk off of 50 feet, Hudson river, and the services of a submarine diver were required. During his operations he was watched with the deepest interest by the villagers, and a few days since the telegraph operator expressed a desire to join the submarine armor and go down to the bottom.

TRADE IN ENGLAND.

An Unusual Depreciation.
A London letter in the New York Times says:
A good deal of alarm is felt just now in England of the almost unparalleled depression of trade. The markets are either stagnant or declining, and on every side one hears complaints that there is nothing doing.

The Place of Woman.

One of the principal features of the Middle Ages, the recognition of the fact that Christianity introduced a new place in the social order of the world very different from what it had been before.

Raising a "Row."

From the Virginia City (Nev.) Herald.
A few evenings, since a fellow rushed into Tinker & Shepherd's saloon in a terrible state of excitement. Throwing his hat on the counter, he cried to Dan, the landlord:

Care of the Voice.

The imperative requirements of the singing voice in the way of rest, from time to time, are such as to lessen very materially the physical exertion of the voice.

Struck by Lightning.

A remarkable escape from death by lightning occurred in Rockingham County, Va., recently. Mr. John Donovan went out with his one-horse wagon on a rainy day to haul some rails.

THE PARIS HIPPODROME.

The Hippodrome of Paris, which was burned to the ground some years ago, is about to rise from its ashes. The restoration of this great circus, says the Pall Mall Gazette, will be a boon to the lower class in Paris, who delighted in the performances at the old establishment.

General Sherman's Make-Up.

General Sherman, says the St. Louis Democrat, "holds his own" remarkably well, and retains all that dash and vim which characterized his manner in the field, especially when he is on a little trip to the States.
