Politics.
 Our readers will please excuse for this week, the lack of anything in our paper, scarcely, save something referring either directly or indirectly to politics. You see, gentle reader, we do not run an exclusively religious, moral, or agricultural journal, but one given, of necessity, to a little of everything. When any one of the many departments we are forced to carry is "out," of course, for the time being, we have to give the particular department we find in trouble a special hearing. Just now, it is the political department that "has worms," hence we have to devote our entire energies to the application of medicine suited to that kind of complaint, and naturally enough those who "don't take any stock" in this particular disease will murmur a little. But every reader of this great family journal of the western hemisphere, can always bet their bottom dollar on one thing, and that is, that no matter what subject comes up, that is worthy of our steel, we deal candidly with it, and if they support the men and measures we advocate they can never go far wrong. Hence, we say, vote for
COL. W. S. KING, FOR CONGRESS,
 AND
C. A. RUFFEE, for the Legislature, and all the rest of the Republican ticket—that comes within the jurisdiction of the TRIBUNE or its thousands of readers.

E. B. Chambers, Esq.
 Politics is boiling in the 41st District, and with one exception, is being conducted, probably, on as fair principles as could be expected when considering the high temperature of the condition. The exception we refer to is the despicable conduct of the opposition and their supporters against Mr. E. B. CHAMBERS, of the Glyndon Gazette. Mr. Chambers has been unjustly personal abuse possible, and as any one might have expected as the result of such an unjust course on the part of his opponents, the "hitters are being hit"—the "biters, bitten." Among those who personally know Mr. Chambers' eminent fitness as all respects for the position he seeks, or any other one, it is unnecessary for us to place our endorsement. But to those persons in his District who have not the pleasure of his acquaintance, we can say that no better man for the position of a legislator ever asked an election in the Northern Pacific country than Mr. Chambers. He is a gentleman of marked ability as an editor, a man who is extremely popular on account of his high social qualities, a frank hearted, generous, educated and well informed man, who would cut off his right hand rather than stoop to an act of meanness against any one. In short, being well acquainted with Mr. Chambers, we believe him to be the best man to represent the people of his District in the Legislature of any one in the whole 41st outfit—his detractors to the contrary notwithstanding. That he will be elected by a full majority we have every faith and every hope, as he would honor alike his constituents and his party.

That "Old School Democrat," The Democracy having completely worn out the yarn about Eugene Wilson's "personal popularity," have switched off on the idea of his being the last sacred relic now living of the "Old School Democracy" sort of a Henry Clay—John Hancock—Daniel Webster, or George Washington—Eugene being the last of this original stock left. They aver that he could never tell a lie on any account, stoop to low personalities, or get down to the level of a modern pettifogger; but is an old time, knee-buckle gentleman, a living Solomon, a Hercules of morality, and a modern Moses who has only consented to raise his Ebenezer in the multitude of this Third Congressional District that he might save his people. Any one hearing him "set up" by his backers, would never suspicion that he was a common lobby huckster when at Washington, and a main spoke in the pine land ring when in Minnesota—or any other "joy" where he can smell out a great or small number of dollars without work, and at the cost of the people. Oh, no! you'd never suspicion the fact.
 Eugene is a good fellow—ope of your lively, popular western boys, who has a smile and a nod for all passers—but when his backers try to shove him off on the people as a real 3rd-time Democrat, powdered-wig, gentleman—the only direct descendant from the Revolutionary heroes now extant—it is a little too thick to be sensible, you know.

Remember, that John Lewis, at the blacksmith shop, does all kinds of repairing in wood—from a wagon down to putting in axle-handle. Also, saw filing.
 The following named gentleman comprise the County Republican Central Committee for the ensuing year.

There is a great fight going on in Ramsey county. Mr. Wilson suffers there in the hands of those who are dragging other issues than those of the canvass into the campaign. Hundreds of Irishmen will vote for King. The Scandinavians will be nearly solid.

COL. WILLIAM S. KING,
For Congress!

Brainerd Cannot Afford to go Back on the Coming Man!
HELP HIM WHO WILL HELP US!
 Col. Wm. S. King is the best friend the Northern Pacific ever had, or will have.

There are Certain Things Brainerd Must Have, in Order to Grow to any Importance. Col. King CAN and WILL get them for us, if we Do Our Duty By Him Next Tuesday.

IF BRAINERD WANTS TO KILL HERSELF, LET HER PEOPLE VOTE FOR E. M. WILSON.

NEITHER WILSON NOR HIS SUPPORTERS HAVE ANY INTEREST IN THE NORTHERN PACIFIC COUNTRY!
 Vote for Col. Wm. S. King and C. A. Ruffee, the uncompromising friends of the N. P. Country, and of Brainerd.

How the Thing is Going!
 REPORTS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE DISTRICT.
 Letters are pouring in to the rooms of the Dist's Republican Central Committee, giving most cheering reports from the various counties. The following are extracts from the same:
OTTER TAIL.
 Both factions in this County are for King. The local excitement will bring out a big vote, and King will get the benefit of it.
CLAY
 will poll 500 votes this fall. I am sure it is perfectly safe to set Col. King down for 450 of them. Democrats are scarcer than hen's teeth. Anti-Monops have no organization in the county.
YELLOW MEDICINE
 will poll 450 votes. Col. King will undoubtedly at least receive 400.—Wilson is hardly spoken of in the county.
STEARNS.
 King will get his party vote sure, and will probably run ahead of his ticket.
ST. LOUIS.
 Republican party is divided on the local ticket. Both sides running King at the head. Democrats here are his most enthusiastic supporters. He will get almost the solid vote of this county.
PINE
 There are a few Wilson men here. Shall be able to give King a rousing majority.
POPE.
 All the local differences in this county have been harmonized, and the Republican vote is solid for King. There is no Wilson sentiment in this county.
WRIGHT.
 At the last election this county was carried Democratic by over 300 majority. King will carry it.
 Similar reports to those given above are received from Traverse, Douglas, (which will be strong for King), Todd and Polk, and the mail brings more of them every day.
BECKER
 will cast 500 votes, and Col. King will get 475 of them.
WADENA.
 Although the vote of this county is light, it will be a unit for King.
RAMSEY.
 There is a great fight going on in Ramsey county. Mr. Wilson suffers there in the hands of those who are dragging other issues than those of the canvass into the campaign. Hundreds of Irishmen will vote for King. The Scandinavians will be nearly solid.

VOTE FOR
 id. Leading business men who are identified with the State at large, believe Col. King a more influential man in Congress than any man this district can send, and are working hard for him. Wilson's majority in Ramsey county will not reach 500.
 HENNEPIN.
 This county will give Col. King at least 1,200 majority. It is well known that Wilson cannot carry his own party strength. All the interests of the city will be better served by the election of Col. King than of Eugene Wilson or any other man.

"TAKE AN OUVN!"
 A Know Nothing in the Camp!
 From the St. Paul Fish Times.
 "In January last when Wilson took control of the municipal affairs of Minneapolis one of his first acts was to remove Capt. Hoy, from the position which he had filled to the eminent satisfaction of all classes of citizens. He was waited upon by hundreds of gentlemen of Hoy's nationality, and other nationalities, but could give no reason for Hoy's removal, and there was no reason apparent, except that it be in the fact that he wanted to bestow the office on a member of a secret organization supposed to have greater political power than Irishmen. This is but one of the political acts of Mayor Wilson, the Democratic nominee for Congress. Now Irishmen are asked to swallow the annual Democratic pill and kiss the hand that smites them because it is held out by a Democratic nominee for office. We mistake not when we say Irishmen are getting tired of this kind of game. Too long have they slavishly voted the Democratic ticket in the vain desire for principle where no principle is involved. It begins to look as if the Democracy of the day has a little too much Know Nothingism in it for its healthful existence. What must Irishmen do, but repudiate it and its associates!"

Chadbourne.
 The Democratic candidate for Representative to the Legislature in this District, was in Brainerd a day or two last week, trying to "work himself off" upon the voters of this city, but somehow or other his supposed friends here failed to enthrone worth a cent. Old Uncle Chadbourne had better have staid at home; for Brainerdites thought better of him as a Legislator before they saw him than they did afterward. The few Democrats here will probably vote for Wilson, but they "can't go Chadbourne," and "will vote for Ruffee," almost to a man!

School Apportionment.
 By the figures handed us by Auditor Goulet, we are delighted to be able to inform our people that the amount of the State School fund just apportioned to the Independent School District of Brainerd is $631.74. This is no less than a princely sum thrown into our school treasury, and puts it in shape to have almost a continual school, in connection with our other resources.

Natural Enough.
 The Princeton Appeal principally objects to Hon. C. A. Ruffee, our Republican candidate for Representative to the Legislature, because "he is too genteel," and is a gentleman of "too polished an address," etc. Well, the editor of the Appeal being acquainted with Mr. Chadbourne, the Democratic candidate, it is not to be wondered at that when he saw Mr. Ruffee he was entirely "overcome" by the contrast. Perfectly natural! Quite natural. Mr. Quigley! Give us your hand till after election, Mr. Quigley—your high compliment to Mr. Ruffee entitles you to our thanks and congratulation, Mr. Quigley.

Str. Paul Press: Next to a rooster in a rain storm, or a man with his mother-in-law on his arm, the most wretched looking thing in the world is a candidate who has just overheard some friend wanting to bet three to one that he won't be elected, and that's just the fit Eugene Wilson was in, the other night, at Minneapolis.

Sudden Death.
 On Tuesday morning last our citizens were startled by the rumor that Mr. Edward Morse had died suddenly at about 9 o'clock that morning at his residence on Fifth street. He had been ailing for some days previous, but was the day before about the streets, seeming ordinarily well.—Tuesday morning, however, he arose from his bed, complaining that he did not feel just right, and upon getting out of bed he went to the lounge and sat down. Mrs. Morse stepped out to get an armful of wood, and upon returning found him lying on the lounge in a dying condition. It was supposed to be heart disease that so suddenly terminated his life.
 Mr. Morse had been a resident of Brainerd some three years, and was one of our most active and energetic citizens. Peace to his ashes.

Vote for C. A. Ruffee!
Vote for Col. W. S. King!
 Unless something interposes, the Dispatch will jerk itself to pieces before election.

Immensely Popular!
 A great deal has been said about the "great popularity" of Mr. Chadbourne, the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in this District, in his own county, and at his own home.—That story will not do at all. Mr. Chadbourne ran for Treasurer of Sherburne county at the last election for that office, as we are informed, and in his own town there were seventy-six votes cast. Chadbourne got four votes, only! How is that for "great popularity at home!"
Vote for Ruffee!

If You
 Desire that your vote shall yield any return in valuable results to the several localities in the 30th Legislative District, vote for C. A. Ruffee, for the Legislature. He can accomplish more, and if elected will accomplish more for the benefit of all the people he represents, than any three men who have ever been sent to represent our interests in the Legislature.

Notice.
 The Digger Indians never present bills to those owing them, like we white folks are compelled to do by the slothfulness of our debtors. When a Digger Indian is exhausted for those owing him to come forward and balance their accounts, he goes to work and paints a red stripe around a lot of little sticks, and then goes along past the wigwams of the "slow pays," and throws one of his little sticks into their abode and passes on. Upon discovering the presence of the sticks in his residence the debtor forthwith makes arrangements to liquidate the claim, as it is an eternal disgrace among the Diggers to have such a token of indebtedness around his wigwam. We give notice, that we are now engaged in painting a large quantity of little sticks, and unless those who owe us, come forward and settle at once, they will certainly find one of these painted sticks in their respective wigwams some of these mornings, and paying no heed to this, will be set down as being "eternally disgraced."

Just Take
 Old Uncle Chadbourne in a turnip patch, or as a "heavy man" around a threshing machine, and he would be exactly "the right man in the right place." But when compared to CHARLEY RUFFEE as a Legislator, it can't be wondered at that Brainerd Democrats swear they "can't see it," but "will vote for Ruffee," of course!

"Our Eugene?"
 Eugene M. Wilson seems to have made a thrifty use of his position as a member of Congress. He seems to have employed whatever influence he could command in the interest of rings, in which he himself was a partner. When he left Congress he went back as a paid lobbyist in the interest of these same rings. His manipulations of half-breed scrip as a means of getting hold of large tracts of choice pine land on the sly, would form a thrilling commentary on Col. Robertson's allegation of his purity of character, if all the facts were brought to light. The truth is that Eugene Wilson belongs to that school of Democratic politicians whose conception of the sole end and aim of political organizations is public plunder. He is not gifted with a great amount of brains, but he has a good deal of cunning, which he diligently and conscientiously devoted, when in Congress, to his own pecuniary aggrandisement, and that is exactly what he is after now.—[St. Paul Press.]

Mass Meeting.
 Col. King and Senator Windom made each a rousing speech at Minneapolis a few evenings ago, to a multitude composed of all parties. The address of Col. King was received by rounds of applause as he drove the disreputable band of liars that have been baying at his heels, into their holes, and with facts known to all, he plugged the hole after them forever. Three times three cheers for Col. King were given at the close of the grand affair, without a dissenting voice. Goodbye Eugene! Alas, poor York!

Died.
 On Sunday last a little son of Mr. W. H. Lewis, Master Mechanic at the N. P. Shops, died after a painful illness of several days. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, and was attended by a large crowd of our citizens, who sympathized deeply with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis in their bereavement. Funeral services were held at St. Paul's Church.

The "Brainerd Meat Market."
 This fine institution, situated on the corner of Laurel and Sixth streets, has been fitted up by the proprietors, Messrs. Faine & Maby, in truly metropolitan style. They keep excellent meats, too, sell at a close profit, and deliver meat to any part of the city when desired. Give them a share of your patronage, for their establishment is worthy of support.
Vote For
 Col. Wm. S. King and C. A. Ruffee! They are men who are directly interested with us, and have the influence, ability and inclination to again set the business of the Northern Pacific country on its feet.

Getting the Lash.
 The absurd idea advanced by Mr. Wilson in his speech in this city, relative to the Northern Pacific Bill is, we notice, being made the subject of severe comment by the newspapers throughout the District—they copying our candid report and rebutting argument of last week as authority for their strictures. His endeavor to establish a distinction without a difference, set him down at once in the minds of all who heard his speech, as either a very ignorant man himself, or else he supposed he was talking to a lot of putty-heads. Take which horn of the dilemma he may choose, and it places him, just at this time, in rather a ridiculous predicament, and he is being told of it on every corner he turns, and in every paper he takes up. In trying to cover up his enmity toward the Northern Pacific while in Brainerd, he made his case so much the worse, and our people KNOWING him to be an enemy to our best interests, now will vote solid for COL. W. S. KING, their acknowledged friend!

The County Nominations.
 At the mass convention held on Saturday evening last, a full nomination was made for our County offices, and it seems there is no opposition. The ticket, as a whole, is a good one, as will be seen by referring to it as given on the 4th page. This will prove a new feature in Crow Wing County politics, as heretofore there has been from two to a dozen candidates for every office. Time is a great changer.

While Feeling Sure
 We could like Old Uncle Chadbourne as a neighbor, and a well-meaning old gentleman, at the same time, the ridiculous ridiculousness of putting him on the track for the Legislature is so ridiculously ridiculous that it is just simply ridiculousness boiled right down to "ridiculousity."
 The Democratic Con. Preparing to Come Down.
 The Dispatch, the high-toned and honorable (!) mouthpiece of the Democracy in this District, pretends to be afraid that the ballot-box will be tampered with by the Republicans in the frontier Counties. We believe the party has never been accused of carrying elections by such means, even by its enemies, but the above mentioned disreputable sheet has in this way prepared a very small hole by which it hopes to crawl out when it and its candidate for Congress are buried out of sight on election day.

Edward L. Morse.
 Editors Brainerd Tribune.
 On Tuesday morning our citizens were surprised and shocked by the news that "Ed. Morse was dead." On the circumstances of his sudden death, it is not necessary to dwell, suffice it to say that those who knew him best, deeply deplore his loss, and are well aware that they have lost one who was always a staunch, true friend, in the hour of trouble, one who would "do to tie to," when one needed such dependence. Of his faults, we presume not to speak; his friends know they were more of "the head than of the heart;" he has gone to a higher tribunal to answer for them, and we close this paragraph with the trenchant quotation—"Let him who is without sin cast the first stone."
 We have known him intimately since the first trees were out on the present townsite, and have yet to hear of the first act of his that had the faintest tinge of dishonor about it; his word "was as good as his bond;" all his business transactions were characterized by a spirit of fairness, and his actions as a public officer above suspicion.
 To the poor his hand was ever open; quietly and judiciously he gave liberally to the needy, asking nothing in return; he did not "with one hand put a penny in the urn of poverty, and with the other take a shilling out."
 Our Roster.
 We have been stall-feeding the Republican roster for a month past, and when we trot him out, his person and position will give evidence of the biggest majority for Col. Wm. S. King, ever given in this District.

REMOVAL.—Messrs. Lafond & Goulet have removed their "Pioneer Meat Market" to Sixth Street, east side, between Front and Laurel. They have a splendid location now, and propose to furnish everything in the meat line now, of the best quality and at prices lower than ever before.—Give them a call, and you will be well treated, our word for it.
 Who is this man they call Andy Monobly.
 Wilson is calling his backers in and telling them "it's no use."
 Everything is lovely, politically, and the goose occupies an elevated perch.
 Let every Republican who is worthy the name, stand by the whole ticket on Tuesday next.
 The best Bargains ever offered in Boots and Shoes, in Brainerd, at Marshall & Campbell's.

Married.—On the 25th day of October, 1874, at Wadena, Minn., by S. S. GANNON, Esq., Mr. JOHN W. BAKER, of Wadena county, to Miss ELIA E. LANE, eldest daughter of Mr. Charles Lane, of Deer Creek, Minn.

DIED.
 On Sunday, Oct., 25th, in Brainerd, Minn., EDIE LEE, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lewis, aged one year, four months and one day.
 Brookfield (Mo.) Gazette, and Palmyra (Mo.) Spectator, please copy.
VEGETABLES.—F. H. HARVEY, Esq., has now several thousand bushels of potatoes, turnips, cabbage and in fact all kinds of "garden sass," stored in the cellar of the Gravelle House, which he is closing out at the lowest prices. Go around and leave your order for a winter's supply, while such a rare chance offers.

J. L. STARCHER has just received direct from Kentucky a large stock of the better class of liquors, such as the old style of Kentucky whiskey, "Robinson County Bourbon," old Rye Whiskey, Peach and Apple Brandy, etc.
 W. H. LELAND, Esq.—This gentleman, the popular proprietor of the "Leland House," has exhibited an enterprise and energy during this summer that is highly commendable in a citizen. In addition to his fine hotel, he has now finished up the largest and best appointed barn and stables north of Minneapolis. Aside from being prepared now to furnish the traveling public with comfortable quarters for their teams and stock, he has also added a Livery stable department. He keeps fine "rigs" for hire, and also does all kinds of teaming, far or near. He also keeps groceries, flour and feed for sale at lowest prices. Such enterprise deserves a liberal patronage, and will no doubt receive it.

THE NEWS.

The East.

A man named Bryant was arrested recently on charge of bringing stolen postage stamps from juvenile thieves, and lodged in the 'Tombs, and while there his residence was entered and robbed of one hundred thousand dollars in money and valuables, $70,000 in twenty dollar gold pieces, each marked by a small hole in the goldness of liberty, a gold watch, $1,000 in mutilated currency, $12,000 in legal tender notes, $700 in new fifty and ten cent currency, a quantity of clothing, jewelry and silverware. Bryant offers a reward of $3,000 for the recovery of the property.

The West.

EXTENSIVE raids have been made in the street and corner departments of San Francisco. The street superintendent of San Francisco, Col. J. J. Bennett, has been ordered to accept the call which he recently received from the Church of the Messiah, in New York, but to remain in Chicago.

The South.

THE SEVENTH annual convention of the National Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, began at Baltimore, Oct. 17. The session lasted four days.

Washington.

THE WASHINGTON police have arrested a gang of book-thieves who have been making extensive depredations on the committee rooms of the Capitol. Thirteen hundred and fifty pounds of documents have been recovered.

Foreign.

THE GOSWOLD University will elect a Lord Mayor, November 10th. An active canvass is in progress. The Conservative supporters support Disraeli for reelection. The Liberals are divided, some going for Forster and others favoring Ralph Waldo Emerson.

COUNT VON ARMIN'S ARREST.

The Herald's Washington special gives a version of the arrest of Count Von Armin, obtained, as the Herald says editorially, from the highest available sources in America upon German affairs. The following are the points: The Count was sent to Paris as an ambassador, explicitly charged to maintain the most peaceful and agreeable course in all his dealings with French officials.

La Dame aux Camelias.

Think that was the play? The house was packed from pit to dome. With the gallant and the gay. Who had come to see the tragedy. And while the hours away.

GOTTON.

The cotton crop is indicated by the following state averages deducted from the October returns of the Department of Agriculture: The crop of Virginia is too small to influence perceptibly the general result.

THE ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE.

The annual meeting of the Army of the Tennessee was held at Springfield, Ill., Oct. 14. The President, General Sherman, Pope, McDowell and other distinguished officers were present.

A FIGHT WITH THE INDIANS.

A party of seven persons, five of them residents of Yankton, who left there ten days ago for the Black Hills, were attacked by a party of Brule Sioux while in camp at the mouth of Little Platte river, and in the fight which ensued John Law was shot dead.

CONGRESSIONAL COMPARISON.

The result of congressional elections thus far gives the following figures in a comparison of the present with the next Congress:

Table with 4 columns: State, 4th Congress, 5th Congress, 6th Congress. Rows include Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Vermont, Virginia, Total.

TWO OPINIONS.

Mr. Charles O'Connor and Mr. Beveridge Johnson have published letters in which opposing views are taken as to the recognition of state governments.

A WASHINGTON SCANDAL.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal says: "One of the aristocratic families is now bowed down with woe, owing to the difficulties existing between a young wife and her husband."

THE SOUTHERN RAILROAD.

The trustees of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad announce the intelligence of the sale in New York of the second million of Cincinnati 7-30 bonds for the construction of the Southern Railroad.

FOREIGN.

The North Schleswig "question," concerning which there has been much weighty speculation in the English newspapers, is not causing serious apprehension in any other quarters.

NEW RAILWAY ARRANGEMENT.

It has been proposed that Sidney Dillon and Jay Gould, representing the Union Pacific Railroad Company, met at Denver a few days ago prominent officials of the Kansas Pacific Railroad, and entered into an arrangement which specifies that the Union Pacific road shall hereafter operate with the Kansas line on all through freight and passenger business.

The Oldest Umbrella.

A gentleman in Boston owns the oldest umbrella. He says: "I have now in my possession an old green silk umbrella, presented by my grandfather to his wife when they commenced house-keeping in 1767, in Halifax, N. S."

THE SPARSLY'S BOARDERS.

The Misses Sparslay were ladies in reduced circumstances, who had opened a boarding house in order to keep body and soul together, and had hardly managed to get along with the average and indifferent fare to make both ends meet.

"I believe you've appropriated every atom of sunshine there is in the house. I always thought my own room was charming, till you came and disenchanted it."

"Your parlor looks like an oasis among the sands of Sahara," Miss Katherine overheard him to say to her, as he left it one day.

"If you are, I could never reconcile it to my conscience to steal away the Sparslay's boarders," averred Mrs. Slicer, with holy horror.

"You are the Sparslay's boarders, I believe?" she said, as if under the influence of some magnetism hardly understood by their land-ladies.

"I've been learning," he answered, "with the help of Miss Drexel, Pole, and Cavendish. I'm a partner fit for a lawyer."

"Then come down and play with Katherine and me sometimes. And perhaps Miss Drexel will favor us too?"

"I'm tired of dominoes," she consented, to be sure. But the scheme did not work.

"I've been learning," he answered, "with the help of Miss Drexel, Pole, and Cavendish. I'm a partner fit for a lawyer."

According to the Darwinian theory man was descended from a 'primordial atomic globule.' What do you think of your forefather?

The Minneapolis papers represent Eugene as "sitting on the ragged edge of remorse," for the whoppers he has told during the canvass.

The Irish voters of Ramsey and Hennepin counties will vote almost solidly for Col. King. Mr. Wilson's contemptuous treatment of Mike Hoy is what causes the ruction. He is termed a Know Nothing by the Irish Times.

The Washington Chronicle says of Col. King: "Minnesota cannot afford to let such a man be beaten by one who will sit in the House with the gravity and power of a bump on a log." That's about the shape of it.

This is the way a colored preacher at Richmond arranged his hearers for mutual convenience: "De fore part ob de church will please sit down so de hind part ob de church can see de fore part, de hind part can't see de fore part, de fore part persist in stanin' before de hind part to de utter exclusion of de hind part by de fore part."

Col. King's Prospects.—As we do not think it necessary to fight the wind, and as Col. King will inevitably carry this county at the polls by a large, if not a larger, majority than he did at the caucuses, viz. four to one, there is no need of our saying much on the Congressional matter. There is no man in the State who is so popular with the Duluth people as Col. King, and the trade which the Democratic Congressional Committee have recently been publishing about him will do him no harm here whatever, as everybody understands that those stories were gotten up merely as electioneering clap-trap.—[Duluth Tribune.

Destructive Prairie Fire. About 7 o'clock last evening a prairie fire was noticed approaching Fargo and Moorhead from the south, under a strong gale of wind. At first it was supposed to be on the Fargo or west side of the Red River, and great apprehension was felt for the safety of our town, as a fire coming from that direction, with such a gale, was almost sure to do incalculable damage. At 9 o'clock it was ascertained that the fire was on the east side of the river, and Moorhead in imminent danger. Heavy volumes of smoke and grass cinder penetrated every nook and corner. Our citizens made an attempt to cross to Moorhead to help fight the fire, but were driven back by the smoke. For an hour we watched, expecting every moment to see the flames leap from burning buildings, but we were saved that dreadful sight. The indomitable perseverance of the citizens of Moorhead, and a strip of breaking a short distance south of town, saved the fine flouring mills and many other buildings from almost certain destruction. At about 10 o'clock the fire had passed to the eastward, and Moorhead was safe.—It cannot be ascertained at the present writing the amount of damage done, but no doubt considerable, as scores of hay-stacks could be seen burning at the same time, and it is known that several hundred tons of hay has been consumed.—[Fargo Mirror.

King and Wilson. From the Hutchinson Enterprise.

It is foreign to the nature of W. S. King to attempt anything underhanded. This distinguishing feature of his nature has been the cause of so much buzz among the political bar lots on the other side, who can say nothing against Mr. King, backed up proofs. They cannot question his ability as they realize he towers high above them in intellect; none dare deny that he is head and shoulders above the best of them. The one great crime is, that he has amassed a fortune within the past ten years, forgetting that there are scores of men in the Third District who have made fortunes twice as great as Col. King's in just as short a space of time.

E. M. Wilson has also made a fortune. God only knows how, as he has done nothing but smile emptily over a bar for over six years. Where did the money come from to build that palatial and aristocratic mansion, fit for the residence of the most fastidious prince? But all the trading and base personal charges will avail them nothing. Five thousand majority awaits Minnesota's greatest son. The people have not, and never can forget what Col. King has done and will continue to do for them, and an opportunity to honor him with their suffrages is hailed with delight with the honest yeomanry throughout the western portion of the District.

Northern Pacific Railway. To the Editor of the Pioneer.

In a previous communication, of last Friday, we took occasion, as one already somewhat conversant with the subject and warmly sympathizing therein, to indicate, merely, the great national necessity and importance of this gigantic work. And our object was to rescue it if possible, from "party" politics as likely to affect it injuriously, and at the same time to revive it in the press whilst the country is being stirred by the politicians and the approaching session of Congress is so near at hand. We stated what would have been the action of England, if free as we are at present, to proceed with a similar work; and what vast commercial, not to say political, interests it was destined in time to subserve. Analogous, though far inferior, interests are consulted by the railway projects at the south, and they too are quite sufficient to warrant that work. But unless the nation can afford to construct both roads at the same time, the southern scheme must await its turn, as the general interests in that direction are not only secondary, but can better abide the convenience of Congress.

In this connection we would say, as to the abuses charged against railroad construction companies, imputing an interest therein to directors and other guardians of these enterprises; and arraigning members of Congress as recipients of stock in return for their votes in behalf of speculators in railway interests, and pocketing the dividends on said stock; all this we have outlived, whether true or false, and need not alarm ourselves that the like sins, if ever committed at all, can be repeated. The other evening, we had the benefit of the Hon. Senator Windom's views, clear, concise and searching on land and water conveyances, wherein their relative merits were considered in reference to farming interests; and though the advocate of waterways, not only as cheaper, but as the only national corrective of railway abuses, he regarded the material development of the northwest as entirely dependent on the competitor of our railways. Had Congress felt acted in the spirit shown by this energetic young Senator, we should have by this time our system of railways completed, the immigration bill, now neglected for two sessions, taken up and passed, and our immigrants safely landed at their destination on the prairie and river valleys of the west, there to enrich the country and themselves, instead of, as at present, recruiting the dangerous, menacing classes at the seaboard, after being victimized by sea and land. Not all of these immigrants, however are expected, or even desired, at the Northwest. Many will seek the central and southern directions, especially those embellied in health, or not inured to a cold climate; but the vigorous, healthy and athletic will seek the North, and become, in time, the strength and mainstay of government and the guardians of civil liberty, for "Empire comes from the North." What stronger inducements, then, have we to offer the intending settlers that are not stronger elsewhere. Hardly any one professional and official information afforded us during the last few years. Of the 2,038 miles of railway route from Duluth to Tacoma, or from Lake Superior to Puget's Sound, at the Pacific, we find every yard explored and measured, and the whole subdivided into sections, the better to instruct us on the soil and mineral wealth throughout the entire distance. Not only on the finished portions from Lake Superior to the Missouri river, at the east, and from Kalama on the Columbia river, 40 miles below Portland, to Tacoma or the Sound, at the west, but from Kalama to Bismarck, or the immediately unfinished portion, is the route thoroughly explored and explained to our satisfaction. Then we have within our own State a regular system of railways in operation or in process of completion; as for instance the St. Paul & Lake Superior and the St. Paul & Pacific, or more properly these and the Northern Pacific; and besides these, there are others, such as the Sioux City road, and all of them traversing regions fit for settlement, for the greater part, where hundreds of thousands of settlers might find a happy home and independence.

Dr. McKoon. Mr. C. H. GREENE, R. R. Agent at this place, informs us that the cash receipts for freights at the N. P. depot, in Fargo, during the week ending Oct. 14th, were $1,333.65. This does not include any freights that were received here and transferred.—[Fargo Mirror.

Summons. State of Minnesota—County of Crow Wing in District Court, 11th Judicial District. Caroline Grandelmyer, P. V. vs. Christine Grandelmyer, Deft.

The State of Minnesota, to the above named Defendant: You are hereby summoned and required to answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled action, a copy of which is herewith served upon you, and to serve a copy of your answer to the said complaint upon the subscriber, at his office in the city of St. Cloud, in the County of Stearns, in the State aforesaid, within thirty days after the service of this summons on you exclusive of the day of service; and if you fail to answer the said complaint within the time aforesaid, the plaintiff apply to said Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

OSCAR TAYLOR, Plaintiff's Atty., St. Cloud, Minn. March 16th, A. D., 1874. n387-7

To the Public: I desire to say to my patrons that the State Atlas of Minnesota is now in press, and that the delivery will commence about the middle of November in the northern portion of the state, and work southward. Having been requested by a number of my subscribers to furnish them with a better quality of binding, I will bind in Morocco, gilt edges, stamped gilt back, with Ellsbery's Chronicle of St. Paul, Minneapolis and Winona, 15x27 inches. The extra cost will be four dollars per copy. Orders for the extra binding must be sent to this office immediately. Delivery agents will not be allowed to sell albums, but only furnish copies to subscribers. Having spared neither trouble or expense to make this the most complete work of the kind ever published, I will place it in your hands as near perfect as was possible to make it, and hope it will more than fill your most sanguine expectations.

Yours truly, A. T. ANDREAS.
